Saltonstall May Review 600 Cub Scouts At Sixth Annual Palava Next Sat.

Event Signifies Close of Winter Cubbing in Norumbega Council; Grand Howl, Campfire, To Climax Program

Governor Leverett Saltonstall is expected to review the six hundred Norumbega Cub Scouts in ceremonial pageant as part of a throng of fifteen hundred boys and their parents who are to attend the Annual Club Palava of Norumbega Council to be held in Sudbury adjoining the Nobscot Reservation at 2:30 p. m. on Saturday, the 13th. Novel plans which will make this a long remembered event are rapidly taking shape under the able direction of a special committee of Norumbega Cub Pack officials headed by Henry S. C. Cummings of Newton Centre and representing the junior boy scout division of the Newtons and Wellesley.

There have been five previous outdoor palavas which customarily bring to a close the winter cub scout season of activity, but because of greatly increased membership figures in the Cubbing division of Norumbega, which is a comparatively new development in the Scouting program, the attendance at this year's event is expected to be unprecedented.

Among the novel features planned are a "gold rush" under the leadership of Harold Banks of Newton Highlands, with a prize for the individual cub winner and special recognition for the pack to which he belongs, followed by a ceremonial review in Pioneer and Indian costumes before His Excellency Governor Saltonstall and a group of distinguished leaders in the cubbing division of Scouting. The Ceremonial Review will be led by H. H. Clafin of West Newton, after which the Governor will be presented by Representative Douglass B. Francis of Newton Centre, Council Commissioner for Cubbing.

The Pioneer-Indian Dramatization in costume will follow, showing the meetings, the conflict and the eventual reconciliation of these colorful groups of earlier days. The Dramatization will be directed by William N. Mansfield of Newton Centre and William V. M. Fawcett of Newton. There will be (Continued on Page 2)

Linnehan Captain In Fire Department

Lieutenant Francis J. Linnehan of Truck 1, Newton Fire Department, was appointed captain by Chief Randlett last Friday. He headed the list of eligibles as a result of the examination taken several months ago. The vacancy in the rank of captain was caused by the retirement last year of Captain Michael Turner. Linnehan was born in Newton Centre 41 years ago, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Patrick Linnehan. He was appointed to the Newton Fire Department on April 29, 1922, and made a lieutenant on Feb. 12, 1933. He has been assigned to Engine 6 at Newton Lower Falls.

PROCLAMATION

The President of the United States has designated May 12th as National Hospital Day.

The desire to relieve extreme need was very early implanted in the mind of man. Hebrew prophets called for mercy and kindness. The Master of Men spoke the parable of the good Samaritan. The Church has ever taught almsgiving.

Right-minded people everywhere have always ministered to the poor and sick. On this day and every day let us keep in mind the needs of our local hospital which has so long and so effectually carried on its work of healing in our midst.

Haughey Starts Reorganization Of Street Dept.

Plans To Merge Three Former Divisions Of City To Form One District

Under the direction of Acting Street Commissioner Haughey, a reorganization of the Newton Street Department is underway. Heretofore the department has been divided into three divisions, each under the supervision of a district foreman at the Crafts st., Auburndale avenue and Elliot st. yards. The Crafts st. yard cared for the Newton and Newtonville districts; Auburndale ave. yard served West Newton, Auburndale and Lower Falls; and the Elliot st. yard the South side of the city.

Under the new system the position of district foreman in charge of the Elliot st. yard at Newton Highlands will be abolished. Foreman Frank Ward has been serving as acting district foreman at this yard, and he will return to his regular duties. An examination was held several months ago to fill this position, and some controversy resulted over the fact that clerks were permitted to take the examination, as well as working foremen. Under the new plan, Division Foreman Charles McCarthy, will be in charge of street construction and maintenance for the entire city. Division Foreman Richard Murphy will be in charge of the collection of ashes and rubbish, cleaning of streets, and the supervision of the city stables, incinerator and dumps. All the horses will be kept at the Auburndale ave. stable in West Newton. This is expected to effect an economy, as fewer stable attendants will be required, although more time will be consumed in driving the slow moving horses from Auburndale to distant parts of the city. Acting Supt. Haughey favors the elimination of the horses, but because it is believed that the steeds (Continued on Page 2)

New Schedules of Telephone Rates In West Newton

Will Bring W. N. Within Five Cent Call Area; Makes City One-Rate Area

With plans for its new building in Newtonville rapidly taking shape, the Telephone Company, according to Manager E. J. Campbell, is filing a notice of a new rate schedule which covers the consolidation of the three Newton offices into one exchange rate area, and the establishing of Watertown as its own rate area, still to be known as Middlesex. It is expected that the new rates will be effective some time next month.

While the new schedule makes some changes in the contiguous and one message unit areas to be reached from the Center Newton and Newton North-Middlesex offices, it will accomplish a most desirable change for West Newton customers by bringing them into the one message unit area from downtown Boston. Thus, instead of the present ten cent charge to downtown Boston, West Newton customers with unlimited service will pay only five cents for such calls, and those with measured service will have Boston added to their measured service area. This measured service area will include points as far away as Winchester and Hyde Park.

As a result of the consolidation of the three Newton offices into one rate area, West Newton exchange rates which are now below those for Center Newton and Newton North will be made the same as those for the latter offices. Measured service customers in West Newton will then get the advantage of the larger message unit allowance now in effect in Center Newton and Newton North. Also, services offered in West Newton will be limited to those available in Center Newton and Newton North. This will mean the elimination of unlimited (Continued on Page 6)

Aldermen Override Mayor's Veto On Sergeant-Mechanic

Temperley Only Member Of Board Not To Favor Abolition Of Job

For the second time in two weeks the matter of granting the petition of Mildred Clark Sears and the Boston Safe Deposit Company seeking permit for the use of the Clark residence on Claremont st., Newton, as an institution for young girls by the Florence Crittenton League, caused a lengthy debate at a meeting of the Board of Aldermen on Monday night. Alderman George Rawson, chairman of the Claims & Rules Committee, made a severe attack on the political strategy used by the majority of the Board after Alderman Hutchinson of Ward 3 urged that action on this important matter be deferred.

At the meeting of the Board on April 17 the petition was rejected by a vote of 10 to 9. Two-thirds of the Board would have to vote favorably on the question to have it passed. Of the 9 voting in the negative, one, Alderman McCabe of Ward 1, favored the proposition and voted with the minority so that he could move for reconsideration. The following day, McCabe formally gave notice of the intention to ask for reconsideration, and on last Monday night he moved for reconsideration. Alderman Hutchinson seconded the motion, and remarked that inasmuch as two members of the Board, Floyd and Jamieson, were absent, he would move that the vote to reconsider the action on granting the petition, be postponed until the following meeting, May 15, when the full Board might probably be (Continued on Page 2)

APPEAL FOR MATERIAL

The thoughtfulness and generosity of many housekeepers in Newton for many years encourages us to again ask for left-over materials. Odds and ends gathered during the year such as spools, stockings, ribbons, tape, pieces of silk or cloth, paper dolls, embroidery materials, woolen articles are all greatly welcomed. The response to this plea has always been generous and the materials donated have helped to keep many hundreds of little children busy and happy during the summer vacation.

If you have a donation, the playground truck will call for it at your home by appointment; call the Playground Department, Centre Newton 4700.

Parallel Parking On Centre Street

On the recommendation of the Street Traffic Committee, the Board of Aldermen on Monday night voted to amend the traffic ordinance so that motor vehicles will have to park parallel on the East side of Centre st., from Jefferson st. to the Watertown line, about 200 feet distant. Alderman Gaddis explained that automobiles parked at an angle along this stretch, frequently block Boston Elevated cars. The change was made on suggestion of traffic officers at Newton Corner.

Water Will Be Turbid For Few Days

On Thursday night, May 4 the Newton Water Department shut off the water supply from its own reservation and started to take water from the Metropolitan system for about 3 days while the new 30 inch line from the Newton water reservation is being connected to the pumping station. There will probably be turbidity in the water during that period, and in many sections of the city it will be discolored, but it will be potable and safe to drink. Water Commissioner Joseph Murray hopes to have this condition cleared away by next Monday, which is wash day.

City Refuses WPA $90,000 Project

Turn Down Proposed "White Collar" Project For Geodetic Survey

An offer by WPA officials in Washington to allocate $90,000 to the City of Newton as a "white collar" project through the medium of a geodetic survey of the city was declined by city officials after City Engineer Harvey had given the information that Newton already had been geodetically surveyed by its own engineering department. The proposed project was one of several submitted to the WPA several months ago, and its purpose would be to provide a triangulation system by which all points in the city could be definitely located. It would have given a long period of employment to a considerable number of "white collar" men on the local WPA lists.

A "white collar" WPA project which is employing 18 men in Newton is a survey of city expenditures to determine the cost of running the city, separated into the various wards and sections of the city. Those working on this project at a hall in the Taylor Block, Auburndale, obtain data and records at the offices of various departments in City Hall.

Board Votes To Reconsider Action On "Welcome House"

Rawson Castigates Action Of Majority In Delaying Immediate Vote

Last Friday Mayor Childs vetoed the order passed by the Board of Aldermen on April 17 which calls for the abolishing on July 1 of the office of sergeant-mechanic in the Newton police department. The Aldermen voted 19 to 1 to abolish this office, contending that it is not necessary, and that the repair and maintenance work on the police automobiles can and should be done by the civilian assistant of the sergeant-mechanic. The Mayor contends that the office is necessary. When the office was created, it was asserted that the then motorcycle policemen were not obeying instructions of the mechanic because he did not outrank them. The mechanic at that time had the rating of a patrolman.

By a vote of 18 to 1 the Board of Aldermen on Monday night overrode the veto.

As a result of another severe criticism by Alderman Frank McCabe at the meeting of the Board of Aldermen on Monday night of conditions in the Newton Soldiers' Relief Department, the Board voted to have a special committee of three members appointed to investigate this department. McCabe, who is a retired major of the United States Army, recently made charges before the Board concerning the alleged activities of a man who is connected with the Newton Soldiers' Relief Department, and who, McCabe asserted, has received $6900.58 from the city during the 16 months ending April 30, 1939, in addition to a considerable sum received from the Federal government. Following the reading of his prepared statement relative to the Soldiers' Relief Department, McCabe moved that the committee of three be appointed, one of whom shall be a veteran, and the Board voted in favor of the motion, without any opposition.

Alderman McCabe's statement was as follows: "Since last May I have on several occasions spoken of the pernicious stooge system of the mayor. 'He has of course denied such a system, but that denial is an insult to anyone's intelligence. His replies may be summed up as follows: 'Ten percent men.' 'That's bunk.' 'Aldermen have no right to investigate.' 'Let us not deviate or go astray from the idea that a public office is a public trust.' 'Motivated by politics.' 'Dual capacity,' and finally that very clever and smart remark, 'It's like a mosquito bite. It soon passes over.'"

"On March 6, 1939, I gave the board a mild report of repulsive and dishonest practices of two of the mayor's pals, Stooze No. 3 and 3A. He laughed that off for awhile. Again on March 29 I gave figures paid personally to Stooze No. 3 for 1938 and up to Feb. 28, 1939, as $6164.80. This amount is now $6900.59 up to April 30, 1939, a total of 16 months. This is exclusive of any money derived from cases the stooge settles with the mayor's protection and approval. Look at the city treasurer's pay rolls.

"On March 28 I made a written request on the commissioner of state aid and pensions, under Section 18, Chapter 115, General Laws. This was as an alderman, veteran and taxpayer. Our state commissioner made a thorough investigation, and in his opinion there has never been another case like it in Massachusetts. The information he obtained has also been turned over to the state police and our district attorney. The point in question just now is that all of these payments to Stooze No. 3 have been approved by the mayor.

"The mayor on April 3 further weakened the police protection by taking a patrolman from his regular duties to act as his private investigator. This was done notwithstanding the fact that we have a competent and honest inspectors' division in the Police Department, but the mayor ignored this group. This so-called special investigator spent most of his time with Stooze No. 3, visiting the out-of-city cases who have Newton settlements. These are divided into beneficiaries (those who submit) and victims (those who do not submit). There are many nasty true stories connected with these cases. Beneficiaries, of course, receive more coin than the victims.

"The mayor was quite indignant that I should have been given this money information. He made some false accusations. I received none from the director of soldiers' relief. I purposely avoided him. He has a most difficult job to handle with the mayor and Stooze No. 3 directing procedure. My information came from the city comptroller who very properly informed the mayor that he gave it to me. He gave me this information at my request. That's my right, and the right of every alderman to see where our city's money goes.

"I have stated before that the mayor fosters, sponsors, aids, abets, encourages and protects his stooges. His loyalty to them is unquestioned. They can do just as they please in several departments, destroying efficiency and morale, and Mr. Taxpayer pays the freight. For over three years I have felt the sanctimonious heat, not always from the head, but from higher boss or a stooge. Right here and now I challenge the mayor and his motley crew to do their worst. I shall continue to use my best efforts to expose hypocrisy and dishonesty.

Angier School Starts Annual Garden Project

The children at the Angier School, Waban, are about to start their yearly experiment in gardening. They will not only plant the seeds, but will dig and prepare the soil, later transplanting the seedlings to the garden of Mr. and Mrs. Charles M. Clark, parents of one of the children, and to their own individual home gardens. The principal of the school, Mr. Carlson Ray, says there is a great deal of enthusiasm shown among the children for this new project. In fact, in a recent lecture on gardening, to the fourth, fifth, and sixth grades, it looked as if several hundred pupils were not only willing to work in the school garden but anxious to have one of their own too.

Mr. Hall Carpenter, landscape consultant, gave the lecture, and has consented to get the children started. In his talk he reviewed the fundamentals of gardening, the preparation of the soil, planting of seeds, etc., and showed lantern slides of some of the flowers the children will plant.

The New England Toro Company has given a generous supply of annual seeds; cosmos, verbena, nicotiana, nasturtium, sunflowers, marigolds, zinnias, to name a few of the commoner varieties. This last week, under the direction of Mr. Carpenter, the school garden club, consisting of children chosen from the upper three grades, in groups of ten or twelve, dug and prepared the soil. In the near future the children will plant seeds. Groups will take turns keeping the ground watered, and then cultivated when the seedlings appear.

This year, instead of neglecting the plants in the summer when school is no longer in session, the children will transplant them. Mrs. Clark of Dorset rd., Waban, has generously offered the school the use of her annual flower beds. Under the supervision of Mrs. Clifford Farber of the Waban Garden Club, and Mr. Ray, the children will discuss the landscaping of Mrs. Clark's flower beds; what plants to set in various places; the mixture of flowers in regard to height, color, etc.

For indoor interest the three divisions of the fifth and sixth grades will plant tuberoses in pots in their schoolrooms. These fragrant flowers are usually started indoors in this locality. They quickly send up numerous shoots, so the children can watch their development in the schoolroom. At the end of the term the tuberoses will be big enough to transplant to Mrs. Clark's garden.

Last year the gardening project consisted of planting a few vegetables in the school garden and supplying all the children interested with a package of seeds. The school gardens dried up during the summer and the children knew so little about the actual process of gardening that they didn't have much luck. However, the enthusiasm still lived.

Second Church in Newton Opens Educational Building

The Second Church in Newton, West Newton, opens its new Educational Building today for the first time. This seventy-five thousand dollar addition to the beautiful West Newton church has been made imperative by the swift and steady growth of the church and church school in recent years.

This Educational Building, planned by the architects of the firm of Church, Allen, Collins, and Willis of Boston, contains twenty-three new class rooms and five larger rooms, to be used as parlors or assembly rooms. The building rounds out the exterior of the plant in a most satisfying fashion, for the beautiful spire now rises out of the centre of the mass of buildings. The view of the church from Chestnut and Margin sts. is now most unusual for the roofs of the various buildings rise upon one another from level to level, culminating in the spire in a manner seldom seen in this country. The Building Committee, composed of F. S. Hoyt, chairman, E. A. Dockstader and C. C. Macomber, has been in charge of the construction and furnishing. Harty Blaney Construction Company has been the general contractor in charge.

The church school, under the direction of Frank Grebe, director of Religious Education for twelve years, now enrolls about six hundred children and is administered by a staff of seventy-five teachers. The Committee of Religious Education consists of the following: Richard B. Cole, chairman, H. A. Amidon, Mrs. R. B. Cattell, Mrs. J. G. Cook, C. M. Cutler, Mrs. R. H. Garratt, G. G. Jewett, James B. Palmer, Mrs. W. C. Wyman; ex-officio: Dr. Boynton Merrill and Frank Grebe.

Under the new plans, to be put into effect May 7th, the entire school will convene each Sunday at 9:15 a. m. The Toddler, Kindergarten and Primary Departments will meet for three hours: 9:15 to 12:15. A most unusual and varied program of both indoor and outdoor activities has been planned. For four years the church has conducted a daily Nursery School under the direction of Miss Ann Mark and this longer Sunday session but extends the very successful week-day sessions and opens them to a far larger number of children.

The Junior, Intermediate and Senior Departments will meet from 9:15 to 10:45 and many unique activities are being projected by the Committee of Religious Education and Mr. Grebe. The Educational Building is to be open for public inspection on Friday and Saturday, May 5th and 6th, from 4 until 6 and 7:30 to 10 o'clock. A cordial invitation to all interested friends is extended to visit this new and commodious building erected by the large and forward-looking parish in West Newton.

Lasell Community Orchestra Presents Final Concert May 9

On May 9, 1939, at 8:15 p. m. the Lasell Community Orchestra will give its final concert of the season at the Winslow Auditorium of Lasell Junior College, Maple st., Auburndale. This will be one of the important events of the season in Newton and the public is cordially invited.

The orchestra was formed last Fall as a result of a community need, with the Newton Symphony as a nucleus. It is now composed of about fifty players many of whom are members of a very large and appreciative audience and featured William Weigle, The enterprise is dedicated to the advancement of appreciation of good music. It is sponsored by Lasell Junior College, has received the active interest of Dr. Guy M. Winslow, the president of the college, and is attracting a great deal of attention in Newton and adjoining communities. The concerts of the orchestra have been of very high order. The orchestra is under the able direction of Mr. George Sawyer Dunham, Musical Director at Lasell College.

The beautiful auditorium, where the rehearsals and concerts are held, is equipped with a new Skinner Pipe Organ, and is a generous contribution to the musical life of the community. The first concert, February 7, drew a very large and appreciative audience and featured William Weigle, the well-known baritone, and Harold Schwab, organist of the Union Church, Waban. Mr. Schwab played Handel's Fifth Concerto for Organ and Orchestra. A Tone Poem, "Aurora," by Henry M. Dunham, for many years head of the Music Department at Lasell, closed a most successful program.

The coming concert, May 9, will feature the Orphean Chorus of 180 girls from the College singing the brilliant Scene and Prayer (sometimes called the Easter Hymn) from Cavalleria Rusticana. Another feature of this concert will be a Tone Poem by Rudolph Nagel of Brookline, for many years a member of the Boston Symphony. The orchestra has been inspired by Mr. Nagel's music and also by his helpful presence at the rehearsals of his own composition.

One of the soloists of the evening will be Anna Elchhorn, violinist, for many years Concertmistress of the MacDowell Club Orchestra at the time Mr. Longy was the Conductor. She will play the Prelude to the Deluge by Saint-Saens with accompaniment of strings only.

The names of prominent people appear upon the list of patrons and patronesses and many of them have signified their intention of attending the concert on May 9.

Aldermen Vote to Reconsider Action On Florence Crittenton Institution

present. According to Hutchinson, all the members of the Board should vote on such an important decision.

Alderman Rawson said there was no need to vote on reconsidering this matter. It had been defeated at the preceding meeting by having failed to obtain a two-thirds vote, and he asked—"Why drag it out again?" Rawson characterized the action of the majority in asking for a postponement of the vote on this matter as "the smoothest, slickest piece of political trickery I have seen in this Board." Rawson said that the advocates of the postponement knew that no one of the eight members who were opposed to the petition had changed his mind, and he dared them to take a vote on it at this meeting. He said that we have heard about "invisible government," and this is an example of it and he said—"You are playing cheap politics, and you are playing fast and loose with the zoning ordinance." He asserted that if the zoning ordinance is trifled with in Newton people who moved here from other places in the belief that the city governments of Newton could be depended upon, will move out of the city to Wellesley, Weston and other towns where zoning ordinances will be protected. He said that the future of the city is at stake, and he would fight this matter to the bitter end.

Alderman Tiffin agreed with Rawson and said there is no assurance that all of the Aldermen would be present at the next meeting, or at any meeting. Alderman McKay said he did not object to the deferring of action on the matter, and he stated that he will vote against it unless he changes his mind in the interim. He voted for the petition at the April 17th meeting, but he had since been informed that the City of Newton would be responsible for the education of the girls at "Welcome House."

Alderman Inches asked Alderman Hutchinson if he would agree to postpone a vote on the granting of the petition until some meeting when all members of the Board would be present? Hutchinson did not give a definite answer.

Alderman Gaddis said he voted for reconsideration for a purpose. He said his conscience had troubled him because he had voted in favor of the petition at the previous meeting. He said he had since found out some things and that unless he changes his mind, he will vote against the amendment on May 15. He said he would favor postponing the vote on the petition to May 15 if the maker of the motion to postpone (Hutchinson), would agree to the amendment to have the vote on the petition deferred until a meeting at which all 21 members will be present. Alderman Hughes made the amendment suggested by Inches and Gaddis.

Alderman Hutchinson said he was sorry that Rawson took the view that members of the Board were indulging in slick, political trickery, and hoped he would retract it. Rawson replied that he would not take back one word, that he did not regret anything he had said. He asserted that during the past two weeks there had been subtle, efficient propaganda by persons endeavoring to have the permit for Welcome House granted; that the Aldermen had been on the "hot seat," and they will be subjected to additional propaganda the coming two weeks. Alderman Colby said he realized the strain Rawson had been under, because of the controversy over "Welcome House," and he lauded Rawson for his efforts to protect the zoning ordinance during the four years he has been chairman of the Claims & Rules Committee. Colby said that to grant the permit will adversely affect the city in the future. He stated that he believes the next time the matter will be voted on, members of the Aldermen will oppose it. Alderman Temperley said that no propaganda had been directed at him and his mind is made up on the question.

Alderman Tiffin said the question of the full board being present had not been raised at the preceding meeting, and he asked why it was raised at this meeting? He said that he had been informed by the State Department of Education that the City of Newton will be responsible for the education of the girls who will be domiciled at "Welcome House." Tiffin asserted that the matter should be voted on now. Alderman Rawson remarked—"You will hear more on this matter tonight." He said that he had been informed by the State Department of Education that the City of Newton will be responsible for the education of the girls who will be domiciled at "Welcome House." Tiffin asserted that the matter should be voted on now. Alderman Rawson remarked—"You will hear more on this matter tonight." He said that he had been informed by the State Department of Education that the City of Newton will be responsible for the education of the girls who will be domiciled at "Welcome House." Rotary Club

The guest speaker at the Newton Rotary Club luncheon on Monday at the Brae Burn Club was Dr. Harold D. Choche, director of Newton Public Health Department. It was Dr. Choche's directional efforts which recently gave Newton first prize in the National Tuberculosis Campaign.

Dr. Choche handled the subject of tuberculosis tests and prevention in a most instructive and capable manner. Among the many points he brought out were that the citizens of Newton had paid some $360,000 towards the cost of the Middlesex Tuberculosis Hospital located in Waltham. Newton also used 60,000 patient days for which $16,000 was paid out of the Health Department budget; and the city was further assessed for an additional $41,000 to make up Newton's total expense for that year.

The trend of tuberculosis test prevention in this district was shown by comparing the progress during the years 1932 and 1938. In 1932, 9,099 cases were tested and in 1938, 22,556 cases were tested. Mention was also made of the fact that the sale of tuberculosis seals, which are so generously subscribed to by Newton citizens yearly, took care of all organization expenses.

A very recent test of Newton High School pupils showed 20 per cent of positive cases which will undoubtedly only result in one actual case among these students. This certainly emphasizes the efforts and efficiency of Newton's Public Health Department. Dr. Choche said that the mortalities of persons between the ages of 15 and 45 years were 66 out of every 100,000 during 1938, that the deaths from tuberculosis of unskilled workers were much greater than among skilled workers, and that deaths among the professional class were much fewer than among those of the working class.

In the populated sections of the country these tuberculin tests and prevention work was carried on at conveniently located and well organized clinics, and in the rural districts automobile trailers go direct to those to be tested. X-ray machines are used extensively both in the clinics and trailers. This fine and efficient prevention work which has been carried out in recent years has shown that deaths from the "white plague" including the period from 1910 to 1935 have been reduced to one-third. While Dr. Choche felt that tuberculosis is well under control, he emphasizes the fact that "No home is safe until every home is safe," and advised the full cooperation of all citizens in the prevention of tuberculosis, by seeing to it that examinations and tests are made promptly and that the public be educated to the knowledge that tuberculosis is a curable disease and can be definitely cured.

ALL NEWTON MUSIC SCHOOL

On last Sunday afternoon, a large audience gathered in the Parish House of the Central Congregational Church, Newtonville to listen to a program of music by pupils of the All Newton Music School.

Junior members of the Stearns School Centre and the West Newton Community Centre, special guests of the afternoon, opened the program with singing of Handel's "Where e're You Walk" and a group of folk songs. Then followed numbers for two piano ensembles, violin ensemble, cello, clarinet and piano solos. The young musicians entered into their work with enthusiasm and with credit to themselves and their teachers.

On next Sunday evening May 7, at 7:30 o'clock in the same place a recital will be presented by pupils of intermediate grades of the Music School. The program will include group and solo work from the voice department and the usual instrumental numbers from every department.

The public is cordially invited to attend and no tickets of admission are needed at the door.

A Lecture on Christian Science

Entitled

Christian Science: Its Compassionate and Loving Ministry

by
CHARLES V. WINN, C.S.B. of Pasadena, California

Member of the Board of Lectureship of The Mother Church,
The First Church of Christ, Scientist, in Boston, Massachusetts

A large audience that filled all seats in the church auditorium and overflowed to the Sunday School rooms of First Church of Christ, Scientist, of Newton, Friday evening, April 28th, listened to a lecture on Christian Science delivered by Mr. Charles V. Winn.

Mrs. Gertrude R. Brayton, Second Reader of the Church, introduced the lecturer and spoke as follows:

First Church of Christ, Scientist, of Newton welcomes you.

A Christian Science lecture brings joyous expectancy of good, for there will be unfolded to us more of the truth of being which Jesus the Christ practiced during his mission among men.

The subject of our lecture tonight is "Christian Science: Its Compassionate and Loving Ministry."

Our lecturer is a member of The Board of Lectureship of The Mother Church, The First Church of Christ, Scientist, in Boston.

It gives me pleasure to introduce to you, Mr. Charles V. Winn of Pasadena, Calif.

Many centuries ago there came to the world a man sent of God, a messenger of hope, a servant of the Most High, bringing to humanity a gospel of joy and healing. This man, Jesus the Christ, brought to the world the highest concept of God, the noblest concept of man, that had ever come to the human consciousness. He not only set forth his sublime teachings with clarity and love, but he demonstrated their truth with undeniable proof and works. He came, not only preaching God's infinite love, but showing us plainly how everyone can share in the boundless love of the Father. His great compassion and sublime tenderness found utterance in that gracious invitation, "Come unto me, all ye that labour and are heavy laden, and I will give you rest." Was this invitation intended only for those of Jesus' day and time? No! It is universal and eternal. Its message is for all peoples and climes, and the Christ is still saying to all earth's children, "Come unto me and ye shall find rest from all your woes, your sorrows, your sins, and your diseases, through the power of God, here and now."

True Ministry

The word "minister" means "to do things needful or helpful; to render aid; to be serviceable; to give or supply something." No matter how successful and efficient one may be, there comes a time in everyone's life when his human efforts fail him. He is inevitably forced to reach out to some power beyond and above himself in order to overcome his difficulties. While this may seem to be a time of discouragement, it is really a period of great hopefulness. The man who reaches the place in his mental journey where he sees the fulfillment of mere human will, the inability of the human intellect to guide him aright, the utter failure of material means and methods to heal him, the inability of material pleasures and sensual indulgences to bring true happiness, has taken the first step toward his deliverance. It is right here that the compassionate and loving ministry of Christian Science comes to his aid, strengthens his courage, exalts his hope, supplies that which is needful, and leads him forward and onward.

Having reached this point of conviction that there is a divine power beyond and above the human and that this power is adequate to supply that which is needful, the next step is to learn the nature of that power and how that power can be practically applied to our human needs. It is here that the compassionate and loving ministry of Christian Science comes to our aid and teaches us the true nature of God or the supreme power of the universe. Surely we cannot avail ourselves of this supreme power unless we understand the nature, character, and essence of that power. Our ability to lay hold upon this power is in direct proportion to our comprehension of it. In Psalms we read, "God Spirit, spoken once, twice have I heard this, that power belongeth unto God." Then the more we understand about God the more practically we can utilize His power.

Definition of God

In the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy (p. 465), we have this definition of Deity: "God is incorporeal, divine, supreme, infinite Mind, Spirit, Soul, Principle, Life, Truth, Love." This clear, succinct definition of God has not only blessed the vast number of persons who have become Christian Scientists, but is rapidly transforming false theological beliefs and is leavening the whole of human thought. God's nature never changes; He is the same yesterday, today, and forever, but through uplifted thinking and exalted consciousness we can discern more and more of the divine character and attributes. How often we go to a familiar spot which we have visited many times, and see something that we have never seen before! The landscape had not changed, but we took in more of the beauty that was always there; the scene had not changed, but our discernment of it had changed. In writing to the saints of Ephesus, Paul prayed that God might give unto them "the spirit of wisdom and revelation in the knowledge of him; the eyes of [their] understanding being enlightened." While in the definition just quoted Mrs. Eddy has used the familiar Scriptural terms for God, she has also used other terms which do not appear in the Bible. These terms bring to our thought phases of His character which are constantly set forth in the Bible and thus are both logical and Scriptural. But the most basic reason for their use is that they are demonstrable and provable. In a very striking passage in the Christian Science textbook, its author has written (p. 547), "You can prove for yourself, dear reader, the Science of healing, and so ascertain if the author has given you the correct interpretation of Scripture." Surely we could not ask for more than tangible, unsalable, definite proof.

God Is Divine Mind

In Job we are admonished, "Acquaint now thyself with him, and be at peace; thereby good shall come unto thee," so let us see how we can gain that true understanding of God and thus lay hold upon that power divine which brings into human experience abiding joy, peace, and healing. The understanding of God as Mind is most helpful in enabling us to prove His power and presence. The word "infinite," which Christian Science constantly uses in connection with Mind, is of great significance and importance. The word "infinite" means "unlimited." That which is infinite has no peer, no competitor, no opponent, for there is nothing outside of it or beyond it. An infinite power must be all-power, for there is none beside it that can restrain it or curtail its activity. There is nothing that can be opposed to the infinite and All. As the Bible so clearly declares, "He is in one mind, and who can turn him? And what his soul desireth, even that he doeth."

Since God is Mind and All-power He must be the only creator, and Mind's creation must be the only creation. There is no other power that could bring anything into being. Right here Christian Science gives us another most helpful truth about God, or Mind, namely, that "Mind in every case is the eternal God, good" (Science and Health, p. 415). Since God is Mind, the only power, the only creator, then God's creation is a good creation. The power of infinite good that brought it into being must be supremely active in that creation. The only law operating in that creation is the law of Mind or good. The Scriptures frequently refer to the wisdom and knowledge of God. Wisdom is supreme, divine, unerring intelligence, and He who is all-wise governs His creation wisely, intelligently, and beneficently. The power of Mind or supreme good always operates to bring into manifestation the highest degree of good, the greatest manifestation of good.

The Allness of Good

In the light of the foregoing facts, Christian Science, through its compassionate and loving ministry, shows us clearly and demonstrably the allness of good and the unreality of evil. The human mind has accepted the false belief in the reality of evil for so long that it is reluctant to acknowledge the great truth of being, the allness of good. It is only when proof displaces doubt and demonstration supersedes mere belief that the human mind forsakes its false basis and rejoices in healing. If a person does not think intelligently about something, he makes mistakes, that is, he gets the wrong answer in place of the right one. Evil is only a mistake, a mistaken sense or false concept about that which is true. To properly correct or overcome a mistake one must know the fact. To become impatient with the one who has made the mistake is never helpful, but to show him lovingly and kindly where he is wrong and to explain graciously to the erring one what is right, is healing and redemptive. Argument never brings conviction; demonstration is all-conclusive.

Demonstration Inculcates Faith

A man who was suffering from ulcers of the throat once came into a Christian Science practitioner's office. He said that Christian Science had been recommended to him, but he did not see how Christian Science could do anything for him, as he was an atheist, and that he had no faith in Christian Science treatment. It was lovingly explained to him that he did not need to have any faith, but that after he had been healed through God's power he would naturally have faith resulting from incontrovertible proof. Under those conditions he was willing to have Christian Science treatment. The treatment was given and a later examination showed that the trouble had entirely disappeared. That one proof of the power of God made available to man accomplished more than any amount of argument. The man who has lost his way and who has thereby wasted many valuable hours and traveled many useless miles needs to be shown the right way to his destination. To explain to him that he is on the wrong road is helpful, but to show him how to find the right road is best of all. After he has arrived at his destination quickly and safely he is not very apt to go back to the wrong road.

God Is the Only Presence

Since God is Mind, the one infinite good, the only power, He is the only presence. He who is All-power must be ever-present, for the supreme power of the universe could not be absent from the universe. How does God's power become operative in our experience? By the realization of His presence! The Bible speaks of "him that filleth all in all." The value and reality of anything is our consciousness of it. As we become conscious of the ever-presence of God or good, we lose the consciousness of evil and wrong, and its seeming power is rendered inoperative in our experience. God is ever-present. We only have to become conscious of His presence. As we are conscious of His presence we are unconscious of His absence. Because He is now here, evil is no where. There was a man whose sight had forth the foundation for that righteous thinking which alone brings peace, joy, success, health, and holiness! Since God is Mind and infinite Love, then every true thought must express Love. Every true thought originates in God, divine Mind, and must express Him. If any thought does not come from God, divine Love, then it is utterly lacking in truth, power, and reality. As we entertain those thoughts that reflect God, divine Love, the supreme power of the universe is on our side and we are on God's side. As the hymn so beautifully puts it, "He always wins who sides with God," for He is unfailingly on the right side. Every thought that expresses God has God's power behind it and is invincible. It cannot fail. Failure is unknown to God.

ites and maintains the universe. He knew that the power of God or good was unlimited and unrestricted, and because it is supreme it is ever-operative and universally available. God is infinite good and His power can only bring to pass goodness, health, holiness, harmony and right. No matter how long an evil condition has seemed to exist, its seeming power is rendered null and void when God's supremacy is understood.

Jesus' Way of Healing

How beautifully Jesus proved this in the case of the boy who was afflicted with a dumb and deaf spirit, when his father brought him to Jesus for healing! You will recall that even the disciples had failed to cure almost entirely disappeared. He went to see a Christian Science practitioner, and a treatment was given. A Christian Science treatment is the realization of the all-power and ever-presence of good. In "The First Church of Christ, Scientist, and Miscellaneous" (p. 364) our revered Leader tells us that a practitioner of Christian Science is able to "heal the sick, by recognizing the supremacy and allness of good." Since good and the power of good are ever-present, the ability to see must be ever-present. Sight is a gift of God and must have been right there, for God was there. When this truth was realized, the sufferer, like the man whom Jesus healed, "came seeing," and his sight was fully restored. It was proved that the God-bestowed ability to see was ever-present; the inability to see was never present, was never anyone, anywhere, or anybody. The recognition of the presence of good was accomplished by the manifestation of the power, the activity, and expression of good.

The compassionate and loving ministry of Christian Science brings harmony to every situation, heals disease, uplifts human relationships into the realm of the good and true. The Psalmist sang, "Surely the righteous shall give thanks unto thy name: the upright shall dwell in thy presence." All that is ever present in God's creation is that which He has brought into being. Infinite Mind and divine good has brought forth its own pure and perfect ideas, and they are all that are ever present or expressed. As we perceive and discern God's presence we become conscious of harmony, not discord; love, not hate; joy, not sorrow; affluence, not want; goodness and virtue, not sin and evil. The man whose back is turned toward the sunset does not see its beauty and grandeur; he is not looking in the right direction. Christian Science keeps us looking in the right direction. It enables us to hold our gaze Godward, not earthward; to Mind's perfect expression, not to error's false presentations; to what God has done and which error has never undone.

True Standard of Thinking

As we are helped onward and upward through the gracious ministry of Christian Science, as we know God aright, as we discern His true creation, we have a basis or standard for our thinking by means of which we can bring into our lives that which is worthy and good and reject that which is baseless and false. The greatest treasure that we have, the most valuable possession, is the ability to think. That which will show us how to think aright is indeed priceless. To understand what is right and true is a divine gift with which no earthly talent can be compared. In speaking of it the Bible says: "Length of days is in her right hand; and in her left hand riches and honour. Her ways are the ways of pleasantness, and all her paths are peace." The most important business in which we are engaged is thinking. The right thinker is engaged in the most profitable business in the world. In our human affairs we naturally invest in those enterprises which will bring us a right return and afford us the maximum of security and safety. The right thinker is engaged in a lofty enterprise whose returns never fail him, and he is multiplied manifold. His capital consists of right ideas and is never impaired, but remains intact and cannot be impaired.

The basis for all true thinking is most beautifully set forth in the Christian Science textbook on page 335, where we read, "Mind is the divine Principle, Love." How clearly this sets

God's Power on the Side of Right

There was a man to whom a sum of money was owed which was being unlawfully withheld from him. One day after making repeated efforts to secure that which was rightfully due him, but without success, he determined to make one more effort. Before doing so he carefully searched his own thought to see if he was acting in full conformity with that which was right. After a little heart searching he found that he was withholding from another that which was his honest due. He immediately took care of this honest obligation, and inside of forty-eight hours he was paid the entire sum that was due him. When he aligned himself with that which was right, God's power became operative in his experience and the so-called power of evil was annulled. The thoughts of honesty and gratitude had omnipotence behind them; the thoughts of dishonesty and ingratitude were proved impotent and powerless. As the Bible so clearly states it, "In God I have put my trust; I will not fear what flesh can do unto me." As we entertain God's holy thoughts we need have no fear about what flesh, carnal thinking is attempting to do, for it is nothing and can do nothing.

Basis of Healing

As we understand God better, as we see that He is always good, as we perceive more clearly that He is the only Mind and that the mind that is God is infinite Love, we find the basis for all true healing and redemption. In seeking a method of accomplishing anything we necessarily seek that method which is most successful and capable of bringing about the desired results. Jesus was the most successful healer who ever lived, and his method was the most efficient ever known. His work was unfailingly and unerringly effective, and surely we can find no better way. Every material method is relying on some sort of power. One person may rely on the supposed power of a drug to assuage his suffering; one may depend on surgery to help him; another may seek a change of climate to benefit him; but in every instance he believes that the system employed has the power to relieve him of his distress. All material methods are, by their very nature, limited, tentative, and uncertain. At one time they will seem to help and then again they utterly fail; they often seem to benefit one and not another. Sometimes material means bring other difficulties which are far worse than the original trouble.

A true method of healing must operate uniformly, unerringly, and with divine certainty. Such a method was the one that Jesus used in his compassionate and loving ministry. Jesus never failed, even in the most extreme cases; he was never at a loss as to what to do; he never classified disease as curable or incurable; he never at any time admitted that he would take time to effect a cure, nor did he ever prophesy a long period of convalescence or recovery. What was the secret of his unerring success? He was successful because he relied wholly and unreservedly on God, that supreme and infinite power which cre-

him. Jesus asked the father how long this false condition had seemed to trouble the boy, and the father replied, "Of a child." Jesus then rebuked the dumb and deaf spirit and after he had cast him out the child was perfectly healed. Even though the difficulty had seemed to persist since childhood it was proved impotent and powerless. The power of infinite good had been there all the time; it had never been absent from God's universe, nor had it ever been unexpressed. Man's perfection and completeness forever exist in the Mind that is God. God's power, understood, only brings it into manifestation.

I knew a woman of quite advanced years who was perfectly healed in Christian Science of a serious difficulty that she had had all her earthly life. Another friend, although one whom the world called no longer young, was perfectly healed of total paralysis. Her testimony later appeared in one of our periodicals as an expression of gratitude to God for His goodness, beneficence and love. True being is timeless and ageless. Infinite good knows no periods of ebb and flow, but is forever expressed to all His children. In the instance just referred to, Jesus "rebuked the foul spirit," which shows clearly that the malady was not primarily physical, although it seemed to express itself materially. The error was only a lying belief about man, and when Jesus rebuked it, repudiated it, and denied its reality and power, it was destroyed. False belief is never true, no matter how long it has been believed, and Jesus proved that although the discord had been present "of a child," it was not God-created and never was a part of man.

God Is the Only Spirit

The compassionate and loving ministry of Christian Science brings to us another great blessing—the understanding of God as Spirit. It leads us forever away from any thought of God as corporeal, humanized, or limited. It takes us completely away from the trammels and limitations of a false belief about God and reveals to us His infinitude as omnipresent Spirit, infinite Truth, boundless Love, and limitless good. As we understand this great fact we gain a released sense of life and attain the great possibilities of timeless and infinite being. In "Miscellaneous Writings" our beloved Leader tells us (p. 282), "Remember, it is personality, and the sense of personality in God or in man, that limits man." God never limits man. "Of his fullness have all we received, and grace for grace," and the recognition of this truth unfetters a false belief about God and reveals to us His infinitude as omnipresent Spirit, infinite Truth, boundless Love, and limitless good. TRAVEL SECTION

BRITISH MOTORISTS TO TOUR AMERICA

America is becoming a popular touring place for British car owners. A special tour has been arranged by the Junior Car Club and a ride of 2,000 miles has been planned throughout the eastern section of the United States. The group will leave England in the new Mauretania, sailing from Liverpool June 17. Already space for fifty cars has been reserved in the liner's spacious "garage." On arrival at New York the party's first visit will be to the World's Fair. Many big cities are scheduled in their program. They will sail for England from Boston in the Laconia July 8.

SUMMER CRUISES TO NOVA SCOTIA

During June, July, August and September the Cunard White Star liners will make a total of five cruises to Nova Scotia. The dates will be June 30, July 17 and 31, August 14 and Sept. 1, a Labor Day cruise.

THOUGH THE LAND IS BARREN, THE WATER IS RICH

The coast along the Strait of Bab el Mandeb, is barren and forbidding, but natives reap a rich harvest from the pearl-oyster beds in the adjacent waters. While one acts as boatman, the other inspects the water for a likely spot for a dive, using a water-glass—a plate of glass replacing the bottom of an oil tin. It eliminates reflections on the water surface which prevents clear vision, and makes it possible for the diver to see the ocean bottom as much as 60 feet below.

THE STREET CALLED STRAIGHT

The Street Called Straight, in Damascus, is but half a mile in length. Here may be seen the site of the house of Judas, where the light of Christianity dawned upon Paul, later to become the great St. Paul. A little mosque covers the site.

SOUTHWESTERN ENGLAND SUB-TROPICAL

New Quay, in Cornwall, England, is so warmed by the Gulf Stream that sea bathing may be enjoyed virtually throughout the entire winter. Sub-tropical plants grow continuously in the southwestern shore country of England.

Curtis Fined $25 On Wages Charge

Lewis F. Curtis of 333 Commonwealth ave., Newton Centre, was fined $25 by Judge Weston in the Newton court last Friday for having failed to comply with orders of the court, issued last year, relative to the payment of back wages to some of his former employees. At that time he was charged with owing about $800 in wages to his former housekeeper, and to two men who had trained his racing pigeons; and he was ordered to pay the back wages at the rate of $75 per month. Not having entirely complied with the order, he was arrested on April 27 by Serg. Sullivan and Patrolmen Smith and Turner. In court on Friday, Judge Weston was informed that Curtis had paid the wages, so he placed two charges against the defendant on file, and imposed the fine on the third charge.

ited business service. It is believed, however, that in most cases savings resulting from the larger message allowances, the enlarged calling area and lower rates for Boston calls will offset the increases in monthly base rates. There will also be a number of changes in toll rates due to the re-centering of the Newton area.

Hints to Gardeners

by Gilbert Bentley
Flower Expert
Ferry Seed Station

About Transplanting

TRANSPLANTING is an important activity in almost every garden, but a gardener can save time and possible disappointment if he knows what can and what cannot be transplanted.

The following annuals should not be moved: California poppy, celosia, didiscus (blue lace flower), four o'clock, and hennemannia. Among the perennials, lathyrus (perennial sweet pea), and oriental poppy should not be transplanted.

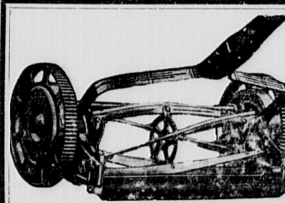

These flowers are damaged, sometimes even killed, by transplanting because of their peculiar root growth. The following popular flowers may be transplanted with little fear of damaging them: Annuals—ageratum, alyssum, snapdragon, aster, calendula, marigold, pansy, petunia, pink, salvia, scabiosa and verbenia; perennials—aubrietia, buddleia, Canterbury bells, columbine, hollyhock, pyrethrum, pink, scabiosa and viola.

There is a third division of flowers, plants whose lives will not be endangered by transplanting, but whose growth will be stunted. Both plant and blossoms will be smaller but earlier. Larkspur, zinnia, phlox, nasturtium and bachelor's button are in this classification.

It is advisable, when moving either small seedlings or larger plants, to transplant them into well conditioned soil which has been watered about 12 hours before the transplanting. This helps the plant through its period of readjustment, when it must have ample moisture. Make sure soil is firmed well around the roots.

Except where it is necessary to move full-grown perennials to more favorable locations, transplanting should be performed with small plants. When plants are larger, well-developed root systems are injured by the moving, sometimes resulting in severe damage to the plant.

In all cases it is advisable to take up with the plant a good amount of the soil in which it is rooted.

*THIS IS HOW THEY DID IT, AND HOW YOU CAN DO IT, TOO

1. SHE: "Oh, isn't there some way that we can buy that darling house we saw?"
HE: "I'm afraid not now, dear. It takes a lot more money than we've got."

2. HE: "Look! This ad says the Mutual Savings Bank has a hundred million dollars to lend..."
SHE: "So people like us can buy a home? Oh Jack, you must find out about it right away!"

3. HE: "Great news! Our savings bank is glad to write a first mortgage on good residential property and..."
SHE: "You mean we can really plan to buy that house! Oh darling, is this really true?"

4. HE: "You bet! And our savings account nest egg is enough for the down payment. The Savings Bank has a plan which reduces carrying charges to a minimum and I figure we can handle the payments easily, even with my small salary."

You, too, can buy a home on a low cost, flexible, Mutual Savings Bank Mortgage Plan. In many instances, it will cost you no more than to pay rent. Now is a favorable time to buy and finance. Don't make other arrangements until you have consulted your Savings Bank.

DOG/NOTE
PETER BOGGS

Dogs do not take kindly to persons who have the audacity to touch automobiles they consider to be their private property. Recently I noticed a dog sitting in a parked automobile on a busy street. Two of the windows of the car had been lowered to give the animal plenty of air and it seemed as if every fifth person made the mistake of trying to be friendly with the pup. They would go to the lowered window and put their fingers through it. Little did they realize that the mildest dog will often become a ball of fire on such occasions.

Dogs that are easy to approach when free on the street are often untouchable when inside their masters' cars. It is a good thing to remember to mind your own business by leaving dogs alone that are minding theirs, especially when the dog is in a parked automobile.

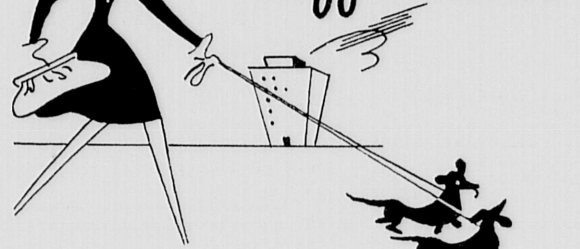

Question: Should a dog be fed entirely on raw or cooked meat or is it all right to feed from one type to another? How about pork?—M. W.
Answer: It is advisable to change occasionally from cooked to raw meat. Both are excellent. Never feed your dog pork in any form.

The head table included past presidents, who were called upon by Mrs. Phinney to speak in honor of this twentieth year of the Club. These were Mrs. Arthur G. Hosmer, the first president; Mrs. Phister Cowin, Mrs. Thomas Weston, Mrs. Henry B. Patrick, and Mrs. Austin H. Decatur, all of whom incorporated in their remarks humorous stories which were greatly enjoyed by the members. Another speaker introduced was Mrs. Sidney B. Thomas, Club historian.

After the several fine reports and the election of the above named officers, Mrs. Bertram Adams gave a splendid entertainment of magic and sleight-of-hand, a unique program fascinating and enjoyable to all.

Newtonville Woman's Club

Mrs. George H. Tracy, president of the Newtonville Woman's Club, called to order the last meeting during her two years' term, Tuesday, April 25, after the Annual Luncheon. During the meeting the Annual report of all Club activities was read by Mrs. Charles W. Peterson, recording secretary. Interesting highlights mentioned included the fine financial condition of the Club, which had been maintained in spite of the damage done to the Club House by the hurricane, with all debts paid and a good balance left in the treasury. The retiring House chairman, Mrs. Clarence A. Wentworth also has left the Club House in such excellent condition that no repairs are necessary. At the beginning of the meeting three congratulatory letters were read by the corresponding secretary, Mrs. Raymond A. Green, from Charter members who had been invited to the Club luncheon but were unable to attend. Mrs. Joseph H. Willey, Mrs. Arthur H. Soden, and Miss Margaret C. Worcester, Mrs. Green also announced the Newton Federation luncheon to be held at Brae Burn, May 9, and Mrs. George A. Edmonds, Federation secretary, told of the State Federation meeting at Swampscott the last of May at which the new Junior Club of the Newtonville Woman's Club would be represented for the first time.

The president, Mrs. Tracy, spoke of the Scholarship to be announced by the Education chairman, Mrs. Edward C. Fales, as an award that was earned, not a gift, for a girl who had proved her merit in all her school activities. Mrs. Fales then stated that the $200.00 Scholarship this year would go to Jean Elizabeth Jordan.

Mrs. Clifford B. Whitney, who has been the Club's treasurer for ten years and who was now retiring from that office, gave her annual report and Mrs. Tracy then congratulated her on her splendid service and expressed the gratitude of the Club, and presented her with a bouquet of red and white roses, ten red roses for each year of service, and white roses to cheer her in her new office. Mrs. George L. Curtis, secretary of Finance, gave a careful report of receipts and expenditures.

For herself, Mrs. Tracy said, there had been two tasks that she had wished to see accomplished during her presidency; oil burners to replace the old furnace; and a Junior Club. Due to the splendid co-operation of committee chairmen and Club members, this wish had been accomplished and she was gratified with the results. In closing, she told Club members that she would take her two years as president to her treasure house of memories, and humorously added that, as one lecturer had declared periodic changes were necessary to growth, she was now ready to invite the newly-elected president to take office.

With a gracious welcome, she presented the gavel to Mrs. Frank E. Morris, who gracefully acknowledged the introduction, and expressed an earnest desire to carry on the high standard set by the retiring president.

An amusing one-act play put on by the Drama committee, under the direction of the chairman, Mrs. Edwin P. McGill, and much enjoyed by the audience, ended the meeting.

The following were elected officers to serve for 1939-1940: Mrs. Paul E. Ellicker, Mrs. Robert S. Bowen, and Mrs. Charles R. Thompson acted as tellers.

President, Mrs. Frank E. Morris; vice-presidents, Miss Estelle G. Marsh, Mrs. Raymond Tucker, Mrs. Clifford B. Whitney; recording secretary, Mrs.

J. Walter Allen; corresponding secretary, Mrs. Frank M. Simmons; secretary of Finance, Mrs. George L. Curtis; treasurer, Mrs. Clarence A. Wentworth; clerk, Mrs. Edward J. Norris; assistant treasurer, Mrs. Howard C. Thomas; Standing committee chairmen: Hospitality, Mrs. Henry E. Johnson; Meetings, Mrs. Otha M. Fish; Program, Mrs. Raymond A. Green; Department committee chairmen: American Home, Mrs. Harold L. Stillman; Art, Mrs. John R. Tolman; Children's Christmas Party, Mrs. Robert E. Linquist; Civics, Mrs. Edward J. Ovington; Conservation and Flower, Mrs. Frederick W. Harding; Drama, Mrs. Edwin P. McGill; Education, Mrs. Edward C. Fales; Hospital, Mrs. Donald C. Jewett; Legislative, Mrs. Ernest P. Rallsback; Music, Mrs. Arthur D. Quimble; Publicity, Mrs. Chester S. Merrill; Volunteer Service, Mrs. Frank Anello; and Nominating committee for 1940, Mrs. L. Ivan Pettys, chairman; and Mrs. William F. Ferrin, Mrs. George A. Edmonds, Mrs. Perez B. Howard, and Mrs. William C. Lodge. The new House chairman is Mrs. George F. Williams; the chairman of Ways and Means, Mrs. Haydn M. Morgan; and Junior adviser, Mrs. Thomas G. Walters.

Newton Community Club

The Annual Meeting and Luncheon of the Newton Community Club was held in the Eliot Church on Thursday, April 27.

The Executive Board met at 10:30 o'clock, preceding the regular meeting, when Mrs. Maurice W. Dennison, second vice-president, in behalf of the Board, presented Mrs. Frank H. Briggs, the retiring president, with a very lovely pen and pencil set. Mrs. Briggs, in accepting the gift, thanked all the members for their co-operation.

The business meeting was called to order at 11 o'clock. The reports of the secretaries, treasurer, and standing committees gave a very fine resume of the many Club activities of the past year.

The Scholarship awards were given to Allen Crissey, Rhoda White, and Harriette Church.

Mrs. Arnold C. Barker, chairman of the Nominating committee, read the ballot. Mrs. George Pratt Maxim, Mrs. Loren D. Towle, Mrs. Pitt F. Parker, and Mrs. Everett B. Crawford were appointed tellers.

The following officers were elected: President, Mrs. Wallace Wales; first vice-president, Mrs. Arthur D. Weston; second vice-president, Mrs. Kendall A. Woodrough; third vice-president, Mrs. Frank E. Wing; recording secretary, Mrs. George R. Strandberg; corresponding secretary, Mrs. Stanton DeWitt Barclay; treasurer, Mrs. Lawrence Garvin; auditor, Miss Margaret H. Aubin; directors, Miss Florence C. Bacon, Mrs. Fred T. Field; and Nominating committee for 1940, Mrs. Steven B. Wilson, chairman; and Miss Margaret Ball, Mrs. C. Lawrence Barber, Mrs. Ralph C. Henry, and Mrs. Stealing N. Loveland.

Mrs. Barker then escorted the newly-elected president to the chair to be greeted by the retiring president. Mrs. Wallace Wales spoke of the honor the Club had bestowed upon her and asked for the co-operation of the members in the year to come. In a humorous manner she returned the gavel to Mrs. Briggs who then thanked the Club for two years of their friendship and support.

The business meeting was followed by a luncheon in charge of Mrs. Allan N. Kee, Mrs. Alexander T. Shalke was in charge of tickets and hospitality. Between two and three hundred members attended.

The head table was decorated with colorful spring flowers and a large pink-frosted birthday cake with twenty candles, celebrating the Club's twentieth year.

The presiding president, Mrs. Briggs, the president, Mrs. Wales; seven past presidents, and special guests, including Mrs. David A. Westcott, first vice-president of the Massachusetts State Federation; Miss Emma D. Coolidge, historian of the Club; and six founders, Miss Kate W. Fox, Mrs. John T. Alden, Mrs. Ralph C. Henry, Mrs. Vernon B. Sweet, Mrs. Frederick A. Wetherbee, Mrs. William M. Mitchell, all seated at the head table, received bouquet-corsages of pink roses, sweet peas, and spring flowers. The other tables were decorated with potted plants.

Mrs. Westcott gave greetings from the State Federation, and spoke on what this Club has done in the past and its high standing in the community, and closed with best wishes for the future.

The president, with poetic toasts, introduced each past president, who lighted two candles, symbolic of her two years as president. Mrs. Franklin E. Smith, the first president, cut the cake. The following past presidents attended: Mrs. Franklin E. Smith, Mrs. Edward H. Keach, Mrs. J.

Yes, it's hard to believe but $894 is all a sprightly Buick business coupe costs, delivered and ready for the road at Flint, Mich. And that buys, along with the skylarking life of a Dynaflash straight-eight engine and the smooth going of Buick Coil Springing, a lot of standard equipment that often costs extra elsewhere. Transportation, state and local taxes (if any) are of course extra, so for low delivered prices...

sponsorship of Mrs. Arthur J. Mansfield, chairman of the Music committee. The recently formed Glee Club, directed by Mrs. Norman Shipley, and with Mrs. Clendon M. Smith, as accompanist, has achieved fame with its first performance. The part of Blue Beard, with a contralto solo beautifully rendered, was convincingly played by the new president, Mrs. Wales. Another solo by "his" fiancée, Rosabel, was also beautifully sung by Mrs. R. D. Hand. Others in the cast who played their parts excellently were Mrs. Sydney A. Marston, Mrs. Herbert George, Mrs. Alfred H. Handley, Mrs. David Black, Mrs. Ronald Jones, Mrs. Charles F. Hooper, Mrs. Edwin Hovey, Mrs. John Alden, Mrs. J. A. Armstrong, Mrs. Clayton L. Wescott, first vice-president of the Massachusetts State Federation of Women's Clubs, who was present in place of the president, Mrs. Henry W. Hildreth, who was ill. Mrs. Edgar P. Hay, president of the Newton Federation, was not able to be present on account of illness. A telegram and letter were read from two past presidents, Mrs. Fred M. Blanchard and Mrs. Walter A. Beedle.

Mrs. Charles E. Gibson, recording secretary, read a very interesting account of the various Club activities, and the treasurer, Mrs. Sidney B. Sargent gave her usual fine report. Gertrude Osborne presiding. Following a short business meeting the speaker of the evening, Mr. Rudolph M. Seymour, of Concord, was introduced by the hostess, Mrs. Capobianco. Mr. Seymour is associate county agricultural agent at the Mass. Extension Service, and he had a wealth of knowledge for his audience, illustrating his talk with lantern slides upon "Growing Seedlings" and "Young Plants in Gardens"; also two reels of hurricane-damage pictures, showing the method of restoration. An interesting illustration of different methods of grafting trees and rose bushes also was given in picture form.

Refreshments were served by the hostess, assisted by Mrs. Albert Proctor, and Mrs. Antonio Valente. The president, Miss Osborne, cut the birthday cake, which was beautifully decorated in pink and white, with two candles in honor of the Club's second birthday. Surrounding the cake was a decoration of fresh pansies. A pansy also decorated each plate served to the guests.

The next meeting of the Garden Club will be held on May 27, with a Treasurer Hunt at Camp Mary Day, So. Natick, and an outdoor supper.

A Variety of Events

Clubwomen Conduct Attractive Sale

Sponsored by the Newton Federation of Women's Clubs, the third Annual Sale for the Blind will be held Wednesday, Thursday, and Friday, May 10, 11 and 12, at the Newton Centre Woman's Club House, starting at 10 a. m. and continuing till 5 p. m. Large tables will be laden with hand-made articles suitable for all ages, infants, children, and adults. Wedding and graduation presents may be selected at this time, and the linen chests replenished. Many Newton people last May bought more of the same articles purchased the year before, as, for instance, one clubwoman came asking for the large heavy washcloths, at the request of her husband; and the stock of large kitchen aprons was in constant demand.

The Social Hour for the Blind will furnish at 3:30 o'clock each afternoon a program presented by one of the blind members. Wednesday afternoon, Mr. Harold Brooks, of Waltham, will give piano solos. Mr. Harold Puffer of Needham, president of the Social Hour for the Blind, will introduce on Thursday afternoon Miss Jane Learned and her Seeing-Eye Dog Flossie. The program Friday afternoon will be tenor solos by Mr. Andrea Caroselli, of the Perkins Institute for the Blind. Newtonville, Waban, Newton Highlands, and Chestnut Hill will conduct the Sale Wednesday. Mrs. H. P. Forte is chairman for the day.

Newton Centre, Auburndale, Newton Lower Falls, and Needham will conduct the Sale on Thursday, with Mrs. Harry Marshall as chairman of the day.

Newton, West Newton, and Newton Upper Falls will have charge of the Sale on Friday, with Mrs. Alfred H. Handley as chairman of the day.

Each church and each federated club will have a table staffed by ten club-workers.

Newton Hospital Aid Association

Mrs. Maynard T. Hutchinson, president of the Newton Hospital Aid Association, will be the hostess for the coming meeting of the Board of Directors of that organization. This will be held on Tuesday morning, May 9, at 10:30 o'clock, at her home, 15 Temple st., West Newton.

After the usual business meeting at which she will preside, she will serve morning coffee to her guests.

Weeks Junior High Pupils Present 8th Annual Concert

The annual Spring Concert given by pupils of the Weeks Junior High School, Newton Centre, will be presented this evening at 8 p. m., in the school auditorium. Conductors will be Haydn M. Morgan, director of Music Education, C. Ralph Spaulding, supervisor of instrumental music, Alvin D. Parker, and Miss Myrtle Erickson. There will be a small admission charge for all but members of the P. T. A. Members will be admitted free. W. C. T. U.

The West Newton W. C. T. U. met at the home of Mrs. F. F. Davidson on Woodland rd. last Monday evening. The president, Dr. N. Louise Rand presided. The devotional service was led by Miss Mary Root, after which a most interesting talk was given by Miss Lily Potter of Lasell Seminary on her acquaintance with Frances Willard the founder of the Women's Christian Temperance Union. Miss Potter at one time lived in Evanston, Illinois, just around the corner from Miss Willard's home and attended the Northwestern University while Miss Willard was a teacher there. She spoke of her wonderful kindness to everyone and her ability to teach everything for the uplift of humanity and many other phases of the life of Miss Willard.

Mrs. Billings was the assisting hostess. Many members of the West Newton W. C. T. U. attended the Institute to be held in the Baptist Church Thursday, May 4th, in Framingham.

LIBRARY CHARGES FOR RESERVES

In order to meet the cut in the Library budget, the Newton Library, beginning this week, is charging borrowers 1 cent for each book reserved. In nine out of ten, perhaps in 99 out of 100 libraries, it has always been the practice to make a charge for this service, some libraries charging 2c. Newcomers to Newton have invariably expressed amazement at the Library's generosity. This 1c charge of course pays for only a part of the added service rendered. Besides the postal card, there is the printing, and also the cost of the little printed card on which the reserve is made out. In 1938, 61,000 reserve requests were filled.

This measure was voted at the April meeting of the Board of Trustees of the Library. Reports from the branch libraries indicate that this innovation is being graciously accepted by the public.

LASELL JUNIOR COLLEGE

Nancy Bryd Turner gave a most enjoyable evening of readings, from her poems relating her earliest experiences, for students and guests. A Fashion Show under the direction of Barbara Kingman, chairman of the Endowment Fund, with students as models, was put on by Filene's at the Barn Tuesday afternoon. The Dance Club under the direction of Mrs. Alice Paine Paul will join with groups from Wellesley and Radcliffe in a demonstration at Winslow Hall on Wednesday evening. Mr. Daniel Blumfield was the Friday assembly speaker.

In 1884, my father, a young dairyman in northern Vermont, sold his farm and came to Boston to go into the Milk business. By supplying Boston with superior quality Milk from New England's finest dairy farms, he built a trade of loyal and satisfied customers. Each passing year saw the name William F. Noble become more and more synonymous with superior Milk.

Always he pioneered for better Milk. He introduced new, high standards of sanitation and protection. He was among the very first to adopt pasteurization, sterilizing machinery, automatic bottle fillers and cappers—and modern cooling and refrigeration. Later he was the very first small Milk dealer to install complete laboratory control.

As my father's successor as head of the company, I have always been proud of the work he did to improve Milk quality and methods of protection. I have constantly striven to carry on his ideals. Today, the Noble Company announces another great step forward for better Milk and better Health—the introduction of Noble's Irradiated Red Seal Milk. It is a fine wholesome, healthful Milk which you and your children will enjoy.

Christian Science

bondage and limitations are due to ignorance and lack of understanding. As we see the creation of Soul, the universe of divine intelligence, the man of God's creating, ideas of Mind, the light of Truth dispels the darkness of ignorance, misconception and false belief.

Recently I was in a section of our country where beautiful wild oranges are raised. It was not so very long ago that these oranges were believed to be very poisonous. Of course they never were injurious or harmful. The belief that they were was a delusion. The people who entertained this falsity did not have to change the oranges; all they had to do was to change their belief about them. When they did so, their fears were overcome and nothing. In the realm of Soul, God, and divine Truth, there are no false beliefs to limit man, rob him of his joy, take away his health, or interfere with his supply of good. Since all good comes from Soul, infinite good, it is safe in God, protected by God, and governed by God.

Exalted Vision

How beautifully Jesus proved this in the case of the two blind men who followed him and asked him to have mercy upon them! Note you that Jesus did not ask them one word about their physical infirmity. He gave his entire attention to their mental condition. He asked them, "Believe ye that I am able to do this?" When they replied in the affirmative he declared, "According to your faith be it unto you. And their eyes were opened." The sight that God had created was right there and had never been altered, but Jesus opened their eyes, their understanding, to the manifestation of Soul—that perfect creation of God, where everything that He has created is perfect, right, good, and true. Some of the most beautiful flowers have been developed from what were once considered to be worthless weeds. God's perfect ideas are here and now. As thought is uplifted and purified we exchange "the objects of sense for the ideas of Soul" (Science and Health, p. 269); we see the beauty of holiness, the grandeur of good, the majesty of Mind. The inexperienced mountain climber may have to stop far short of the summit, where his view is necessarily limited, but the hardy mountain climber goes to the summit, where his view is unobstructed in all directions. Christian Science lifts us to the heights of Soul, exalts our vision, and enables us to see in all its glory what God has created, the beautiful and the good, which is ours to enjoy now and forever.

The Discoverer and Founder of Christian Science

The Bible tells us that our citizenship is in heaven. As children of Soul, as the ideas of God and the heirs of immortality, we have a heavenly estate, secure in the kingdom of Mind. To those of us who have gained some understanding of this great truth, what a privilege is granted in being followers of that great and noble woman, our beloved Leader, Mrs. Eddy, who has brought this great truth to the world and made it available to all mankind. Truly she exemplified in the fullest degree that true ministry which is doing things needful and helpful, rendering aid and being serviceable. She brought to the world that true knowledge of God, infinite good, which alone can meet humanity's need, still its strife, end its fears, heal its diseases, and bring the kingdom of heaven to earth. When this sublime truth came to our Leader and lifted her from disease to health, from death to life, she recognized the priceless gift that had come to her. After proving the rightness of

Powers' Paragraphs

Boards of Aldermen have been adversely compared with the present Board by certain persons. We hope that members of the present Board—or future Boards—will not repeat the manifestation of political perspicacity such as they did last Monday night.

The point was well raised that the City of Newton will be responsible for the education of the girls who would be domiciled at "Welcome House," should this institution be permitted to locate in the Clark house. Of course, it has been stated that the 24 girls will receive their education at their home, but such a plan might be changed in the future, even though the management of "Welcome House" sincerely intends at the present time not to burden the city with the cost of schooling for the girls. It should also be remembered that two of the three Aldermen from Ward 1, where the Clark estate is located, are against the granting of the permit. So are two of the three Aldermen from Ward 7, the other ward in the village of Newton. Heretofore the wishes of Aldermen in the ward affected have been respected by their colleagues in the Board of Aldermen. And to offset the activities of an organized minority which is willing to have our zoning ordinance trifled with, unorganized citizens of Newton, who favor the protection of our zoning ordinance, might do well to acquaint their Aldermen with their views.

One of the most honorable men it has been our privilege to know passed from this life on April 28 when Robert S. Keefe of 266 Cabot st., Newtonville, died at Cardinal O'Connell House, Brighton. We were associated with Mr. Keefe about 20 years ago when we were both employed by the Shepherd Worsted Company. He was honest, frank and cooperative. Possessed of a keen sense of humor and a kind heart, he stood for decency and despised sham and selfishness.

Breaking the Laws

The man who reserves the right to break a single law cannot complain when he is the victim of the lawlessness of others.

said he would not vote in favor of anything concerning which he knew nothing, and that the office of sergeant-mechanic had apparently worked satisfactorily for twelve years under two Mayors. Temperley argued that either the special committee members are not sure of their ground, or suspicious of the status of the sergeant-mechanic. He said the sergeant-mechanic is entitled to a hearing, and the controversy over him should be cleared up.

Alderman McKay, chairman of the Finance Committee, said his committee likewise had not seen the last report of the special committee which had investigated the office of sergeant-mechanic, but this report had nothing to do with the Finance Committee's recommendation to have the office abolished as the recommendation was based entirely on the matter of economy. Aldermen Gaddis and Colby agreed with McKay, and Colby stated that Chief of Police Hughes had said that the mechanic who has been assisting the sergeant-mechanic can satisfactorily do the repair work on the police department motor vehicles.

Newton Sports

START ON SECOND UNDEFEATED SEASON

Newton High inaugurated its outdoor track season last Saturday at the annual Worcester Polytechnic interscholastic meet, romping to its 13th consecutive major meet crown. The orange and black massed 29½ points against 13½ for the second place Worcester Classical outfit. Four meets marks were broken and another equalled with Don MacKinnon, Newton ace, leading the field with a new mark in the 220-yd. low hurdles and equalling the best figures in the 120-yd. high hurdles for a double win. He was clocked in 25s over the low barriers, replacing Warren Wittens 25.4s which the former Newton star made in 1935, and in 15.6s over the highs.

Billy Pescosolido was Newton's second best performer, turning in a total of 6½ points. Pesky placed third in the 100 yd. dash, second in the broad jump and tied for third in the high jump. The versatile Newton star's extra duties militated against his pressing Harris and Quinn, his foremost highjumping rivals to a more impressive height in the latter event.

Fred Hall captured a thrilling 440-yard event with Art Hughes also figuring in the point division with a fourth place. Hall's time was 51.8 sec. Stewart MacNeil captured the pole vault for another orange and black five points clearing 10 feet 6 inches to best the field. George Hutchings added another point to Newton's total with a fourth in the mile run. Hutchings was well up among the leaders but was unable to match the final brush to the tape which saw Blair of Medford running fourth, 25 yards in the rear, making up the deficit to finish second to Carroll of Belmont. Coleman passed the Newton entry for third in the last yards of the race. Bob Liming captured Newton's other point with a fourth in the discus with a toss of 103 feet 6 inches. Robert Pullman of Newton took second in the first heat of the 440 to put three Newton entries in the finals but found the field too fast. Paul Hines qualified in the 220-yard dash with a second in his morning trial but failed to produce against a fast field in the semi-finals.

The Newton victory presaged another grand slam for Coach Enoch's boys to duplicate the feat of a year ago when they turned in victories in all indoor and outdoor interscholastic meetings.

TRACKSTERS RUN OFF WITH FIRST QUAD MEET

On Thursday Newton High was host to Lawrence, Lowell and Worcester Classical in the first quadrangle meet to be held in Newton at Dickinson Stadium this year. Newton came out on the top, winning by a score of forty and a half points. Worcester Classical was runner-up with 20 points followed by Lawrence with eighteen and Lowell a half a point behind. The local contingent won 6 of 9 firsts placed in all but two events.

Paced by Captain Don MacKinnon and Bill Pescosolido who each garnered ten points the powerful Newton track team was unbeatable. Mac-

AN IMPROVED NEWTON NINE WINS TWO GAMES

A vastly improved Newton High baseball team eked out a victory over Waltham, 3-2, on Monday in a game postponed from last Friday. The following day the orange and black took Cambridge Latin to town, defeating them, 13-6. Newton High lost its league opener last week to Arlington by a score of 12-0. In the Arlington contest Newton collected only three hits, all singles. One was made by ex-capt. of football Johnny Fitzgerald and the others by Tony D'Angelo and Danny DeRubeis. The game on Monday with Waltham, Newton's arch rival in all major sports, ended in a 3-2 triumph for the Garden City boys. Newton had improved greatly since the Arlington contest. On Tuesday, the Newton boys beat the boys from Cambridge High and Latin by a score that was somewhat lopsided, 13-6, being the final count. Ernie Coletti grabbed the home-run honors by hitting the first in Newton's present campaign for the league championship. Friday afternoon the orange and black travels to Cambridge to play against the technicians of Rindge Tech. Newton, after winning the last two contests, has high hopes of beating Rindge.

Smart to See—Smarter to Buy!

The model illustrated is the Buick Special, model 41 four-door touring sedan $990 delivered at Flint, Mich.*

NOBODY has to tell you, skimming along at that brisk Buick pace, that plenty of eyes are turning your direction!

It's a smart car to see, all right—what you're discovering there behind the wheel is how much more there is to this beauty than a look or two will uncover!

You're feeling the eager power that a straight-eight can pour—when it's a Dynaflex eight with a cyclone in each cylinder to give life, lift—and thrift—to every smooth-flowing mile!

You're finding out that bumps can be tamed, that car riding can be level as flying—when all four wheels, not just the front, ride on stout coiled springs of soft and cushiony steel!

You're discovering how pleasant it is to look out through windows enlarged as much as 412 square inches. And you're enjoying that very special Buick "feel," firm and taut and steady, nowhere any skittery looseness, or wind wander, or hunt!

In a word, you're beginning to realize that, smart as it is to see, this Buick's even smarter to buy.

Smarter for the extra contentment you'll get from owning it—smarter even if you had to pay a premium to get it.

But you don't have to pay a premium! Instead, this great-eight beauty is today priced lower than some sixes. Costs are below those of a year ago. Total outlay—counting included equipment you'd pay extra for elsewhere—is often less than for some cars with lower advertised prices.

So what to do? Easy! Simply turn around, head for the showroom, get down to the details of trade-in terms, monthly payments, all that!

Even there you'll find your Buick dealer ready, willing, eager to serve—just like the good and gallant car he sells!

Ruling Issued Against Giving City Employees Advance Vacation Pay

Had Been City Policy For Many Years; Change Made Owing To Complication That Arose in Mahoney Case

Daniel White, Comptroller of Accounts for the City of Newton, informed department heads last Friday that he has made a new ruling relative to paying city employees for their vacation period. Instead of giving the employees the pay for the vacation period in advance, this money will, in the future, be withheld until after the vacation period. It had been the custom for many years to pay the vacation money in advance, but this was done without any official authorization on the part of the city government. Last year a complication ensued. Former Street Commissioner Charles Mahoney was given two weeks vacation pay on Thursday, July 14, the weekly pay day. On Saturday, July 16, the day on which he was to have started his vacation, he died suddenly. As he had not been paid for his last week's services to the city, this amount was withheld to offset the advance vacation pay he had been given. Legal action was successfully taken by Mr. Mahoney's estate to procure the week's pay which had been withheld.

Because of the fact that about 400 additional city employees are to receive vacations with pay, starting this year, and because City Comptroller White has no legal authority to pay vacation money in advance, he cites the Mahoney case as the reason for changing the custom. If the City Government desires to authorize advance payments of vacation money, it can take proper action, and thus remove the responsibility from the City Comptroller.

Police To Stop Gambling in Stores

Because of complaints Chief Hughes on Saturday ordered patrolmen to warn owners of stores in this city where punch cards have been displayed, and chances sold, to stop the practice, as it is a violation of the law. Many children were among the regular patrons of these punch boards, on which they took chances in the hope of winning prizes of little value.

At least one store in Newton is still operating a slot machine, which has been bringing in profits for many months, and which police claim they cannot stop the use of this slot machine, because those who "play" it receive a piece of gum in payment.

Governor To Lead Parade May 30

Governor Saltonstall has accepted the invitation of Mayor Childs to serve as Chief Marshal of the Memorial Day parade in Newton. The Governor for many years has marched in Memorial Day parades in this city, and this year as the first citizen of the Commonwealth, he consented to head the marchers.

The Newton Veterans Council has requested Mayor Childs to recommend to the Board of Aldermen that they appropriate an additional $100 for Memorial Day expenses. In the budget the Mayor recommended $500, and the Aldermen cut this amount to $400. The veterans want the cut restored.

Will Stop Illegal Use of Sidewalks

As a result of complaints of the growing use of public sidewalks in business sections of the Newtons by certain storekeepers who use public property for the display and sale of fruit, vegetables and other merchandise, a member of the Newton Engineering department has been making a survey of sidewalks at Newton Centre, and will also survey sidewalks in other parts of the city. This is to determine what parts of sidewalks, if any, are on private property, as claimed by some storekeepers. In recent years, more and more storekeepers who started in business in the Newtons, have been appropriating the sidewalk for business purposes. The practice has been frowned upon by the Health Department, because dogs and flies contaminate the food displayed in the open, on sidewalks, and dust gathers on it.

The use of sidewalks for such a purpose is illegal. A former Street Commissioner granted permits for displaying fruit and vegetables on sidewalks, with the proviso that only 18 inches of the inside of the sidewalk be used. Some merchants have been using several feet of the walks in front of their stores.

Boston & Albany Cancels Trains

Because the continuance of the bituminous coal miners strike has so reduced its supply of fuel, the Boston & Albany Railroad today cancelled a number of its trains, both on the main line and the circuit branch. General Passenger Agent Pierce of the B. & A. stated that these trains will not be put into operation again until the strike is over and normal coal deliveries resumed. The following trains have been cancelled:

Drop More Newton Men From WPA

Last Friday, May 8, fifty-four additional Newton men were dropped from the WPA lists. The first week in April 95 Newton residents were ordered discharged by WPA regional officials at Boston, in the first big slash caused by Congressional retrenchment in WPA appropriations. There are now about 650 Newton residents remaining at work on WPA projects. Some of these are working on "hurricane" clearance projects at Wayland, Sudbury and other places, and this city must provide transportation for them. None of the projects started in Newton, or approved for the near future, will be abandoned. About 50 per cent of the 35 men who were dropped by the WPA early in April, subsequently applied to the Newton Welfare Department for relief.

The cost of the Newton Welfare Department for the first three months of this year was about the same as for the first three months in 1938. The cost of this department for April, 1938, was $24,880, excluding costs of treatment for welfare cases at the Newton Hospital. The cost of the Welfare Department for April of this year was $24,080, excluding the hospital cost. This averaged about $2000 for each of the months.

Bad Forest Fire At Shaw Woods

A forest and brush fire at the Robert Gould Shaw estate, Dedham and Nahanton sts., Oak Hill, devastated many acres last Saturday afternoon and night and necessitated the combined efforts of Newton, Needham and Wellesley firemen, as well as those of a large crew of lumberjacks from Maine, to extinguish it. A couple of months ago the logging crew came from Maine to salvage the lumber (Continued on Page 12)

Men Outnumbered By Newton Women

The Newton Board of Assessors yesterday made public the figures of Newton's latest census, taken a few months ago by members of the Newton police department. These figures show that in the city are 27,648 women over 20 years of age, and 21,551 men. This shows that there are 6000 more women than men in this city. Poll tax bills are being sent to all the men, but those over 70 can claim exemption.

Markets Fined For Having Decayed Fish For Sale

Inspector Irving House of the Newton Health Department and Deputy Henry Sheehan of the State Department of Conservation have been conducting a campaign against Newton markets and stores that kept decaying food for sale. In the Newton court last Friday Solomon Schwartz, manager of the Newtonville Delicatessen at 817 Washington st., Newtonville, was fined $100 by Judge Mayberry for having tainted fish for sale, and $25 for having the yard at the rear of his store in an unsanitary condition.

On May 1, Joseph O'Meara, manager of the Star Market at 304 Walnut st., Newtonville, was fined $100 by Judge Mayberry for having tainted fish for sale. He appealed. Inspector House testified that on April 24 he found 37 1/2 pounds of tainted bluefish at this market, and that he had warned the management on previous occasions.

George Quinn, manager of the Mohican Market at 250 Washington st., Newton, was arraigned in the Newton court on May 1. Inspector House and Inspector Sheehan testified that on April 26 they found 33 pounds of tainted haddock and 8 pounds of meat at this market. Quinn's case was continued until May 10. On Wednesday Quinn testified that the fish was not for sale, but was being held until the superintendent arrived, so that the manager might receive credit for it. Quinn was fined $100, and appealed. Later the appeal was withdrawn and the fine paid.

Veteran Policeman Seriously Ill

Patrolman John R. Foristall of 23 Charles st., Auburndale, a member of the Newton police department for about 30 years, was stricken suddenly last Saturday at his home, and has since been in a serious condition. Mr. Foristall has been on duty for many years at Auburndale.

Boy Accepts Dare, Face Badly Burned

Robert Jones, 10, of 11 Washburn ave., Auburndale, was badly burned on the face last Saturday night when he lighted a match and held it over a gasoline tank of an old automobile in a yard near the corner of River and Lexington sts., West Newton. The boy was returning from a moving picture theater when one of his companions dared him to hold the lighted match over the tank. Following the resultant explosion, young Jones ran to his home, a considerable distance away. His parents notified police headquarters and he was rushed to Newton Hospital in a police car.

THREE OF COMMISSION SUPPORT CHANGE—PAUL REVERSES STAND

Continuance of Present Set-up Would Require Appointment of Superintendent With Civil Service Rights

A conference was held at Newton City Hall on Monday night between the Claims & Rules Committee of the Newton Board of Aldermen, the Playground Commission and City Solicitor Bartlett. The members of the Playground Commission present included Chairman Ralph Henry, Edward Dalton and Irving Paul. The principal subject discussed was that of changing the ordinances pertaining to the organization of the Playground Department. In the past the executive authority of this department has been vested in the commission of five members, who are appointed by the Mayor and confirmed by the Board of Aldermen. Last year a sub-committee was appointed by the Playground Commission to draw up a program on activities and personnel. This committee was composed of Lyson Bruce, Jr. and Mrs. Teresa Marshall. Among other matters referred to in the report of this sub-committee was that relative to the tenure of office of Ernest Hermann, superintendent of playgrounds in Newton. The report was made public in January and was to have been presented at the meeting of the Playground Commission that month. It stated that Mr. Hermann would reach the age of 70 last March, and not being the head of the department, would have to be retired because of reaching the age limit. The report also recommended that instead of having a part-time superintendent of playgrounds in Newton, a full time superintendent be appointed.

Chairman Henry postponed the January meeting of the Playground Commission and did not call any meeting the next two months. In the meantime Mr. Bruce's term of office expired and he was not reappointed by Mayor Childs. Agreeing with Bruce's views regarding the program of the playground department, and the appointment of a full time superintendent, were Mrs. Marshall and George Kellar. Disagreeing with Bruce were Chairman Henry and Commissioner Edward Dalton. When Bruce's term expired in March, he was not reappointed by Mayor Childs. In his place the Mayor appointed Irving Paul of Newton Centre.

A few months ago Mayor Childs sent a communication to the Board of Aldermen recommending that the ordinances governing the Playground Department be changed so that the Superintendent will become a member of the commission and the head of the department, instead of being an appointed employee. Such a change would eliminate the legal requirement of Mr. Hermann being retired on a pension at the end of 90 days after his 70th birthday which occurred on March 13. The Claims & Rules Committee of the Aldermen, in conjunction with City Solicitor Bartlett, has drafted amendments to the ordinances to bring about this proposed change in the organization of the Playground Department.

At the conference last Monday night between the Claims & Rules Committee and members of the Playground Commission, letters were received from Mrs. Marshall and Mr. Kellar of the Commission which stated that they are opposed to the change which would make the superintendent head of the department and lessen the authority of the commission. Chairman Henry and Mr. Dalton, who were present, told the Aldermen that they favor the change. The new member of the commission, Mr. Paul, had been opposed to the change on the supposition that it would be surrendering the executive powers of the commission. But, when it was explained to him that if the present set-up of the department is continued, it will be necessary to appoint a Superintendent of (Continued on Page 6)

Newton Schools Plan Music Fete

A short parade will precede the program of the Annual Music Field Day of the Newton Public Schools on May 13 at Clafin Field. All school bands and the drum corps are scheduled to enter the field at 3:30 p. m.

Each unit will play one selection from their places on the football field, and this will be followed by a number by the combined junior and senior high school bands.

Over 400 students will participate in the program which is not intended as a contest but as a demonstration of the various instrumental organizations in the Newton Schools.

A loud speaker system will announce the program as it proceeds. The public is invited to attend, and there will be no admission charge.

In case of bad weather the festival will be postponed until May 25 at the same time and place.

Second Church In Newton Plans Special Service May 21

To give clergymen an opportunity to hear the service of worship, unusual for a church in the non-liturgical tradition, used at the Second Church in Newton, a special service has been arranged for next Sunday evening, May 21, at eight o'clock when the Sunday morning service will be repeated.

For the past 25 years, this manner of worship, which was instituted by Dr. John Edgar Park, now president of Wheaton College, has proved successful in that it possesses liturgical soundness, beauty and spiritual power. Dr. Boynton Merrill, present minister of the church, has altered the service only slightly at the end of the year.

A lecturer in worship for four years at the Andover-Newton Seminary, Dr. Merrill was sent to the far west last year to conduct seminars on worship for clergymen by the National Council of Congregational Churches. The Seminar on Public Worship plans to send him on a series of brief trips to churches east of Chicago during the next two years.

This service has been planned in an effort to share the rich experience of worship that Dr. Merrill and others have found in this deviation from the traditional non-liturgical worship.

Motorcycle Officer Is Injured

Cornelius Dwyer, one of the motorcycle squad of the Newton police, received injuries to his right hip and knee on Saturday night at 9:25, when his cycle collided at Walnut st. and Linwood ave., Newtonville, with a car driven by Gabriel Arduno of 712 Boylston st., Newton Centre. Dwyer was taken to Newton Hospital for treatment, and then removed to his home, 11 Wiltshire rd., Newton.

Smoke Causes Exit Via Cellar Window

A fire which started in a storeroom in the cellar of the house at 11 Westchester rd., Newton, early on Sunday afternoon, caused Robert Campbell, who resides at that address, to crawl through a cellar window after he had gone into the cellar to attempt to extinguish the blaze. The cellar, which came filled with smoke, and the fire spread up to the first floor, causing damage estimated at $500. The cause is unknown. The house is owned by John Ridge of 145 Pearl st., Newton.

Letters To The Editor

McCABE EXPLAINS STAND

3 Lewis Street,
Newton, Mass.,
May, 1939.

To the Editor,
Dear Sir:

In the past three weeks several references have been made in your paper as to my votes on the Clark estate petition. I have no apology to make for any of them, but I should like the privilege of stating the facts.

The meetings of April 17 and May 1 certainly demonstrated that your Board of Aldermen is not a bunch of rubber stamps. That is as it should be.

Here are the facts as to myself: On the Committee of Claims and Rules I was one of five who voted YES that the petition be granted with reservations.

At the meeting of April 17 I stated that I would vote YES if a revocable permit for one year were granted, and that prior to the expiration of the year a public hearing should be held for the purpose of making a final decision which would be just to all. I submitted a motion to this effect and it never got to first base. Then I voted NO against the permit because it was felt that an irrevocable permit should not be granted until the people decided after a fair trial.

If the project is as good as the proponents say it is, or as bad as the opponents say it is, after a year's trial, a decision fair to all would be an easy matter. After the vote I was one of five who voted YES to request colleagues to move for reconsideration. This I did and then voted for the reconsideration.

At this time I stand as I stood before—against the petition as it is before us, but will vote for a reasonable revocable permit. One year was suggested. That may be too short a time. Five years was also suggested. In my opinion that is too long a time.

As to zoning, I do not think any member of the Committee on Claims and Rules need yield to the chairman in the proper support of our zoning ordinances. And I want to say after sitting with the chairman for nearly five years that he has done a splendid job. It's a surprise to learn about "slick political trickery," "invisible government," and "playing fast and loose." It would be appreciated if some of these points could be disclosed and exposed. They just don't exist on the Board of Aldermen.

About thirty communications by special delivery and otherwise, for and against the petition, and at least one hundred and fifty telephone calls were handled by me. Some of them were hot off the grill. These letters, calls, and some black looks are perfectly all right with me. It is my purpose to do what I think is right, and go through. The easiest way for me was to vote NO and fold my hands, but that would have been cowardly. It is all a part of the job. However, I do object to anybody calling my home, and telling members of my family how "no good" I am. This is discourteous and unnecessary as they are well informed of my shortcomings.

Very sincerely yours,

FRANK T. McCABE,

Alderman-at-Large,

Ward 1.

A TRIBUNE

In the passing last week of Mrs. Gertrude Lamkin Dowd, Newton has lost a citizen whose worth can never be estimated except by those privileged to know intimately her truly remarkable character. One of the older residents of the village of Newton Centre, Mrs. Dowd carried on her many and diversified charitable activities so quietly and modestly that probably few realized how widespread were those interests, extending from Nova Scotia to Kentucky; from Labrador to the West. A woman of travel and garden clubs, interested in literature, in art, in music, devoted to her church and ever ready to lend her energy and time to its activities, vitally interested in the questions of the day and her own city, Mrs. Dowd found time and strength to organize and carry on many other good works and an infinite number of people of various creeds and ages will have reason to mourn her loss. Hospitable, energetic, cheery and helpful, I am sure I speak for the throng who can testify that they never heard an unkind or carping word from her, and those of us who have been closely associated with her in her generous and broad-minded and self-imposed charitable works feel that not we alone, but the community and the world have lost one whose presence will remain, unseen, with us long, encouraging us to "carry on in memory of her."

KEEP NEWTON CLEAN!

The reputation the City of Newton has gained as the Garden City of America, as a result of the beautiful homes, the wide paved streets, the well kept lawns, shrubbery and landscaped gardens, is the envy of every community in the United States. This reputation has been gained through the cooperation and combined efforts of every property owner and resident in doing his share to preserve the cleanliness and orderliness of the city.

Unfortunately the unprecedented hurricane last September took its toll in wiping out and taking down so many of the beautiful trees, thus imposing upon the property owners the burden of removing the debris. A splendid job has been accomplished in removing effects of the storm but there still remains, here and there a spot where an unfavorable reminder is left behind.

The Chamber of Commerce is appealing to every property owner who has been unable to remove such debris to make a special effort during the

Newton Is Second In Contributions For Chest Funds

Newton stands second in its number of givers to the Community Chest among the medium-sized cities of the country according to recent studies made by the National Community Chests and Councils, Inc. Last year in Newton there were 234 givers per 100 people compared with 22 in Stamford, Conn.; 20.2 in Plainfield, N. J. and only 19.2 in Montclair, N. J. Warren, Pa., however, led the list with 34.4 givers per 100 of population. The study, made by the Community Chests and Councils, included the 24 cities of the nation in which the Community Chests raised from $100,000 to $200,000 in their Chest Campaigns.

Newton also stands second in its per capita pledge to the chest of $2.87. Montclair, N. J. leads with a per capita pledge of $4.09. In Stamford the per capita pledge is $2.67 and in Plainfield, $2.52. The average for cities of this class is $1.69.

Turning to the average amount pledge Newton drops to fourth place with an average pledge of $12.24. In this classification Montclair also leads with an average pledge of $21.70. Other New Jersey cities which also lead the Newton Chest in their average pledge are Morrisstown and Plainfield. The average per capita pledge of the chests in these medium-sized cities is $9.31.

A less gratifying record is revealed when Newton's standing as to the amount raised from pledges of $25.00 or more is studied. In this classification Newton is ninth on the list with the comparable New Jersey cities strongly in the lead.

Commenting upon this study Community Chest officials declared that while Newton's record was excellent, the study revealed the necessity of more generous giving by some groups in the community. They also stated that they believed that more generous giving would be made as the citizens came to understand more clearly the very real needs for social work which exist in Newton.

Camp Mary Day Summer Encampment

Sunday, May 14, from 3:00 to 5:00 p. m. will be the day at Camp Mary Day with the Camping Committee of which Mrs. Walton S. Redfield is chairman acting as hostesses, and parents interested in summer camp are invited to attend. Camp Mary Day directed by Dr. Hazel H. Richards will open for its seventeenth season on June 29th, and any Girl Scout under fifteen years of age may apply for a two, four, six or eight week period. The purpose of Camp Mary Day is to develop comradeship among the girls. Instruction is given in handicraft, dramatics, folk dancing, nature study, sketching, outdoor cooking and housekeeping by a staff of trained counselors, with each girl participating in any or all the activities. An American Red Cross Life Saving Corps, under the direction of Leona Angell of the Boston School of Physical Education, will supervise all water front activities.

Regional Conference Girl Scouts
Mrs. Theron B. Walker, Commissioner of the Newton Local Council of Girl Scouts, accompanied by other members of the organization from Newton, went to Springfield, Mass., May 4 and 5 for the fifteenth annual conference of New England Girl Scouts. The clinics, round-tables, and speakers dealt with "The Girl and Her Program." Others attending from Newton were Dr. Hazel H. Richards, Miss Kathleen Twombly, Miss Adelaide Ball, Mrs. Herbert C. Hardy, Mrs. Horace K. Davis, Mrs. Lee Davidson and Mrs. Richard Shields.

One hundred and three Newton Girl Scouts will participate in the Flag Finale of the Massachusetts Girl Scout presentation "Toward Bright Horizons" in the Boston Garden on Saturday afternoon, May 20. Miss Helen Potter of West Newton is directing the episode and other Newton women who are members of the program committee are Mrs. Walton S. Redfield, Mrs. W. V. M. Fawcett, Mrs. Grosvenor Calkins and Mrs. Herbert C. Hardy. This state wide assembly will take the form of a panorama showing how Girl Scouting fits the individual girl of today to take her place as the citizen of a free country. It will be an occasion for great enjoyment when thousands of girls will have a chance to see and greet their friends from other towns and cities throughout the State and other New England states.

The Sachem District Rally

The gothic towers of the Weeks Junior High literally rocked when the combined troops of the Sachem District held a gigantic rally in the gym on Tuesday.

Adding new glory to past triumphs Troop 5 walked off with the top honors of the evening 5 amassed a total of 19 pts. and swamped their nearest rival troop 17 who had 11½ pts. Included in the evening's program were the following events: beanbag relay, knot tying race, novelty drill and obstacle race.

The purpose of the meeting was to stimulate parental interest in Scouting, to emphasize the importance of summer camping and to build district consciousness among the Scout troop of Norumbega Council.

month of May to clean up all remains of the effects of the hurricane so that the City of Newton may maintain its reputation of being the Garden City of America.

This is not just pride, it goes deeper than that, it's just good business. A clean, well kept city attracts the class of newcomers who will become good citizens.

The Baptist Church at Newton received 5 young ladies to membership last Sunday evening.

The Eagles, a new baseball club, are willing to receive challenges from any club whose average age is not over 13. Address P. O. Box 225, Newton.

The increased attendance at the evening service in Grace Church is the result of free seats and fine music.

Such a runaway as does not often happen without more or less smashing of wagons and bones, happened Monday afternoon on Centre st., Newton without serious damage. Dr. Scales and his son were driving down the street and in front of the library one of the shafts broke, starting the horse into a run. The 5:30 train having just arrived, the street was crowded with carriages, and the doctor's horse dashed among them, escaping collisions by a hair's breadth. We believe that some of the employees should not do too much complaining in the meantime. It only brings adverse criticism from those who are not fortunate enough to have regular jobs.

The death on May 6 at New Ipswich, New Hampshire of Miss Madeline Thurston, for over 30 years a beloved teacher at the Bigelow and Underwood Schools, brings regrets to the many hundreds of her former pupils. It also brings a gap in the group of retired Newton school teachers who, in recent years, formed a happy, little neighborhood in the quiet, unspoiled, old village of New Ipswich.

The newspapers on Wednesday contained a news item from Washington. It was told of the fact that the State Department of the U. S. The Y. M. C. A. gospel service on the bank grounds last Sunday afternoon, was one of praise and song, and very interesting and impressive. Hugh Campbell, the leader, took for his theme—"Heaven," enforcing the truth about it by readings from scripture and by Miss Blackwell. He and Master Van Buskirk gave some finely sung solos, and there was forcible story and anecdote, and hearty congregational singing.

A son of W. P. Leavitt of Pearl st. was badly hurt Tuesday, as a result of being pushed off a Cambridge horse-car on Galen st. by the driver. The boy fell backward, the back of his head striking the ground. The boy's father intends to sue the street railway company.

50 YEARS AGO

Newton Graphic, May 3, 1889

The police are determined to break up the gang that tramps persistently up Washington st. from Newton Corner to Adams st. and return on Sunday evenings. Two of the noisy ones were in court this week and paid fines.

Bessie Henry, 4 year old daughter of Richard Henry of Brookline, in crossing Harvard st. Tuesday afternoon was knocked down by the pole on one of Pearson's express wagons. The horses and wagons passed over her body. She was taken to her home, and although there were no bones broken or bruises on her body, she died about an hour later, apparently from shock.

In regard to the lack of sewerage in Newton, which some consider a disadvantage, a high authority on sanitation says that properly constructed cesspools, frequently cleaned out, are much safer and less dangerous to health than a trunk line system of sewerage. There is less danger of the spread of an epidemic, and of the invasion of houses by sewer gas. As Newton is one of the healthiest cities in the State, as our low death rate proves, there would seem to be something in this statement. Certainly with a death rate of 12 to a 1000, there is no need of apprehension because of our lack of sewerage.

Fred Harvey of Ansburda, while riding down Central st. on Thursday morning, was thrown from his bicycle and severely injured while trying to avoid a dog. One wrist was broken, and internal injuries are feared.

The offer of 6 acres of land on Waban Hill for use as the location of the high-service water tower and public park, puts a new complexion on the water problem. Both branches of the city government met on Monday evening and voted to accept the gift. The Water Board was requested to make a report as soon as possible. It had been planned to put the high service water tower on Institution Hill, where land would have to be purchased at a high figure.

EDWARD H.

Powers' Paragraphs

The other day we read in a newspaper that out in Cleveland a group of mothers whose children attend a certain school have organized as traffic officers. The protection of small children from traffic hazards as they proceed to and from school, is one of the chief worries of parents today. Police departments can provide traffic officers at only some of the many streets where school children face speeding automobiles. We have in this column several times suggested that WPA workers be used as traffic officers, and we have been told that WPA workers are not permitted to serve in this capacity, although we read a couple of years ago that in a mid-west city they were doing so.

We believe it would be far better to use intelligent WPA workers as traffic officers on school duty, than to have them engaged in fantastic projects which are of no benefit to the public, and only conceived because WPA officials cannot find anything practical for the men to do.

We believe that the city employees, in all departments should receive advance pay before starting on their vacations; the supposition being—that they have worked a year before receiving the vacations, and therefore they have earned the pay in question. We believe the Mayor and Aldermen should take official action so that the City Controller may legally authorize such payments to the city employees. We believe that some of the employees should not do too much complaining in the meantime. It only brings adverse criticism from those who are not fortunate enough to have regular jobs.

The death on May 6 at New Ipswich, New Hampshire of Miss Madeline Thurston, for over 30 years a beloved teacher at the Bigelow and Underwood Schools, brings regrets to the many hundreds of her former pupils. It also brings a gap in the group of retired Newton school teachers who, in recent years, formed a happy, little neighborhood in the quiet, unspoiled, old village of New Ipswich.

The newspapers on Wednesday contained a news item from Washington. It was told of the fact that the State Department of the U. S. The rules for showing "reverence" to their Majesties are as follows:

"The first bow should occur when six feet away. It should not be an ordinary bow, but low and from the hips, arms at the side, heels together and neck stiff.

Then the man should walk three feet forward and watch the King closely. If His Majesty holds out his hand there must be another bow—but not such a deep one.

Let the King speak first. When presented to the Queen, you bow all over again.

When you leave their Majesties, you bow again, and when you reach the door, there must be still another bow. No matter how many times you enter or leave the room, you bow at the door."

And we are being told that England is a "democracy."

In connection with the investigation of the Newton police department which was ordered last year by the Mayor, an employee of another department was allegedly providing information regarding the reputed prevalence of gambling in Newton. We have been informed that this employee was recently absent from his work because of illness, and was observed "convalescing" at Narragansett Park race track.

The delay in starting the WPA sidewalk project in Newton has been caused by the non-arrival of steel forms which are to be used in making the cement blocks. These forms were shipped from Pittsburgh last week, and when they arrive, work on constructing a sidewalk along Adams st. will commence.

A complaint has been made to us that two stores at the Newton Corner business district are openly selling groceries on Sundays. Police obtained evidence against one of these stores last year, and asked for a complaint at Newton district court, but it was denied. Now, another store has entered the Sunday business, in violation of State laws.

What has frequently been predicted appears to be coming to pass. The totalitarian government of Russia, under the domination of Stalin, seems to be veering from England and France, thus shattering the hopes of those two nations for Soviet aid in combating the militant aggression of Germany, Italy and Japan. This, on top of the refusal of smaller European countries to take any stand unfriendly to Germany, ought to convince President Roosevelt and his internationalist Secretary of State from the hills of Tennessee, that they should cease bumbling into the European imbroglio. Mr. Roosevelt has more than enough to do in his efforts to get the U. S. A. out of the sorry economic mess it has been—and is in. This country will have an increasingly difficult task in enforcing the Monroe Doctrine, which means keeping Old World governments out of this hemisphere, and so this country should not become involved in the quarrels of the other hemisphere.

It is our belief that if the President and Mr. Hull kept aloof from the Dangers of a Good Time

Hardly had this column's reference to vacation time got into type last week than out came the expert opinion of Massachusetts Safety Council statisticians that most accidents occur during leisure hours. It thus appears that when my annual recreational period arrives I will be up against it whether I remain at home working around the house (Heaven forbid) or roam the sands or the meadows on pleasure bent.

I read in the report, without surprise, that "strains from lifting, infections from cuts, bruises and contusions from falling objects all added to the total number of 'off the job' injuries in the home." That didn't upset me near as much as the statement that a man using a whisk broom at home whisked it into his eye with unfortunate results. How he got it near his head is not quite plain unless he was for the moment without a hair-brush.

Many, it is revealed, were so careless while bathing that their outings included fractured toes while swimming, cuts from glass on the beach and blood-poisoning caused by a fishhook. You'd think that hanging was safe enough, but the report states a player picked up a splinter and paid no attention to it and tetanus set in.

The chronicle, from such an unimpeachable source, makes me wonder what I may do in perfect safety. Unless the weather is continuously hot I shall want to move around. But therein lies danger, too. The moral of it all is that one should stick to one's employment and thus be certain of fewer catastrophes. That will be a comfort to those who have to stay on the job if they take it philosophically.

It Happened in Newton

Here is a refreshing instance of the frankness of childhood. Among the audience at a recent amateur theatrical performance in our city was a small boy. It was a fast-moving mystery play, with shooting in the dark, police on a man-hunt and many other exciting episodes. Gripping his mother's hand, the little fellow keenly observed every point but the novelty of attending a play and watching so much seeming confusion made him extremely nervous. When asked between the acts, "How do you feel?" he truthfully answered, "Terrible! I wish I hadn't come!"

When Strangers Ask Questions

Unless it be a grave error on my part there is the spirit of genuine hospitality behind the orders of the heads of the Boston police that all officers shall have a knowledge of the city's historical places that they may impart it to strangers. In view of the fact that all New England is looking for more visitors than ever this summer the idea is an excellent one. People new to Boston will ask many questions because they want to find the famous spots of which they have read. Therefore, it would never do to have a policeman say, "Sorry, but I don't know; you'll have to ask somebody else."

All this disturbs me as I think it over because I am wondering what we in Newton would reply under similar circumstances. How much do we know about Boston, or Newton for that matter? Could you tell a man from Texas where to find the residence of the author of "America"? How about giving the location of the John Eliot memorial? These are only a few things we all should know and glibly state when interrogated. The same applies to Boston where the chances are greater that strangers will stop to inquire about the Old North Church, Faneuil Hall and a lot more sites that mean so much in the history of our country. If you're one of those who won't be around this summer but happily situated in the country or at the shore you need not worry. Those who stay at home must be ready, however, and here is a warning.

This Week's Grouch

As one of those who like the small-town, neighborly feeling in a community I believe it makes for better living. It is good to see a man proud of his city, friendly with the other inhabitants and eager to have Newton, or wherever his home may be, an attractive city or town in the best sense of the word. Nevertheless, I am compelled to say that there are those who take advantage of such a sentiment. They take it for granted that the neighbors will not find fault if their children overrun the surrounding lawns. If cars are parked so as to block another's driveway the one inconvenience is supposed to be a good guy and overlook it.

The same situation is found when people drive their cars against the curbing and leave them while shopping in the square. Often cars are left without thought of whether every bit of parking area has been utilized. You may find one driver who has placed his machine in such a way as to spread over into the next spot when he could have used far less space. In many other ways some people take advantage of other folks' good nature. They want the big share of neighborliness and all advantages that go with it.

District Nursing Asso

A meeting of the Executive Board of the Newton District Nursing Association was held on Monday, May 8, 1939, at the headquarters, 297 Walnut st., Newtonville.

Interest was aroused by the increasing number of pay patients cared for by the nurses. There was a time when those who could afford to pay hesitated to take advantage of this organization. They now begin to realize that the dollar paid to a nurse for a visit helps to make possible continued service to the needy.

April has been a busy month—1062 visits have been made for bedside care—218 more than during the same period last year.

There is a great demand for volunteer service at the Well Baby Conferences during the summer. This work usually consists of helping to weigh the babies or of handling the records. It is an interesting experience for the volunteer and at the same time a valuable contribution to the community.

Progress is being made in plans for the establishment of a Well Baby Conference at the Pomroy Home. However, no definite announcement can be made at this time.

After the business meeting the executive director, Miss Nelson, spoke on nursing technique as given in the Nursing Manual governing the work of the Newton District Nursing Association. Following this she gave a demonstration of the technique used at the birth of a baby. Great interest was shown in this demonstration and many remarks were made by the Board members concerning the changes in the field of obstetrics through the years.

Speakers To Be Heard By State Clubwomen

Governor's Night, Tuesday evening, May 23, will be the gala event of the Annual Meeting of the State Federation of Women's Clubs, to be held at Swampscott. On this evening there will be the Presidents' Reception, each section of the state being led by its District director, always a beautiful spectacle of lovely evening gowns. Governor Leverett Saltonstall and Mrs. Saltonstall will be guests of honor, and following the evening's program in Convention Hall there will be a Reception in the Ball Room of the New Ocean House.

The Convention will open on Monday morning, May 22, and continue during three days, through Wednesday morning, the 24th. At the Monday morning session Dr. Valeria Parker, honorary president of the National Council of Women and chairman of the committee on Protective Care, New York World's Fair, will speak on "The Newer Generation—Some Opportunities and Problems." Monday afternoon, Dr. Gerald Wendt, Director of the American Institute of the City of New York and Director of Science, New York World's Fair, 1939, will speak on "The Science Review of 1939." Monday's dinner will be a "Get Acquainted Dinner," in charge of Mrs. James G. Clarke, chairman of Meetings.

Monday night the Metropolitan Chorus of one hundred and twenty men will furnish the music, and there will be a Symposium of speakers.

Tuesday morning, May 23, Dr. Gerhart Seger of Germany, a former member of the Reichstag and of its important Foreign Relations Committee, will speak. At the close of this session there will be time for Round Tables with the chairmen. Tuesday afternoon the speaker will be Mr. Edward Weeks, Editor in Chief of the Atlantic Monthly Press. Tuesday evening, Governor's Night, after a message from Governor Saltonstall, there will be a fine musical program arranged by Mrs. J. Arthur Snyder, chairman of Music.

Wednesday morning, May 24, the speaker will be the Rev. Boynton Merrill, D.D., pastor of the Second Church in Newton.

There will not be many changes in officers this year, as this is not the election year for a new president. Mrs. Henry W. Hildreth, who will preside throughout the Convention, will continue as president. Mrs. Edward T. Broadhurst, of Springfield, has been selected for corresponding secretary, and Miss Sylvia Koese, for clerk. Mrs. Broadhurst, who is president of the Springfield Atlanta Club, is nominated to succeed Mrs. A. Wilson Atwood, of Worcester; and Miss Koese to succeed Mrs. John F. Capron, of Newton Centre. Miss Koese is one of the Junior Club members who has had the opportunity of representing the Juniors at a General Federation Convention, attending the Triennial in Detroit in June, 1935. She has since served three years as a member of the Junior Membership department of the State Federation. She is a past president of the Wollaston Junior Woman's Club. She studied law at Portia Law School. She has a wide acquaintance among the Junior clubwomen of the state.

There are to be eight new District directors to succeed those who retire from office, having concluded the two-year term allowed. Those who have been nominated are: Mrs. William L. Fitzgerald, Hyannis, district 1; Mrs. Joseph Schwarz, Taunton, district 3; Mrs. G. Stuart Woodman, Reading, district 8; Mrs. Andrew Nichols, 3rd, Danvers, district 9; Mrs. Clayton H. Stevens, Leominster, district 11; Mrs. Howard B. Hammond, Chicopee, district 14, and Miss Lena Giddings, Great Barrington, district 16.

There are also eight chairmanships which will be filled this year. Chairmen who have served a three-year term are Mrs. George W. Morris, American Citizenship; Miss Eleanor Hudson, Preservation of Antiques; Mrs. Walter E. Thompson, Conservation and Gardens; Mrs. Harlan T. Stetson, Education; Mrs. Walter W. Stronker, Art; Mrs. Frank D. Perce, Press; Mrs. William T. Hanson, Public Health; and Mrs. Viola Dangelmayr, Co-operation with Disabled War Veterans.

There will be many attractive exhibits at the New Ocean House indicating the many interests and talents of clubwomen. Mrs. Stronker, Art chairman, invites clubwomen to display their work done in Arts and Crafts classes, which may be left with a committee member at the New Ocean House between 1 and 3 o'clock Sunday afternoon or on Monday morning before the Convention opens. Massachusetts artists wishing to exhibit paintings in the Ball Room may write to Mrs. E. Lesley Lockman, 114 Traincroft, Medford, for applications.

Mrs. Frank D. Pierce, Press and Publicity chairman, invites all clubs to exhibit their Press scrapbooks, both Senior and Junior. Junior entries must be at the New Ocean House before 5 p. m., May 20. Senior entries must be at the Press Table not later than noon, May 22. Rules of the Contest will be found in the Federation Topics for May.

Juniors of State To Convene At Swampscott

The foyer of the New Ocean House, Swampscott, will be busy, indeed, and festive on the afternoon of Saturday, May 20, when Juniors from all corners of the state will gather for their day of Annual Convention. At 3:30 o'clock there will be Round Table Conferences in the foyer by the chairmen of the departments of American Home, Drama and Literature, Press, Public Health, and Junior Membership.

Their banquet will be at 6:30 o'clock, and officers of the State Federation will be guests, and afterwards will be on the platform as guests at the business session. Many Senior Clubwomen will attend this attractive affair to view the Parade of Junior Presidents and District directors from the hotel to Convention Hall. The meeting here will be opened at 8 o'clock, with Miss Frances A. Letson, State Chairman, of the department of Junior Membership, presiding. Awards will be given to winners of the various contests held during the years, these being in Drama, Poetry, and Scrapbooks. To the Junior Philanthropists of Braintree will be awarded the silver cup in the Drama contest.

The Newtonville Junior Woman's Club and the Thompsonville Girl's Club, two new clubs, will be presented. Miss Betty Worthen, of Malden, who was selected as Junior delegate to attend the General Federation Council Meeting in San Francisco, will bring glimpses of Junior activities at this Convention.

A feature of the program, also, will be five-minute talks by eight young women who are members of The International Group and students in American colleges. Miss Josephine Bruno, one of the three winners of the Speaking contest, will present a recommendation and plans for a "Junior Project" for discussion and vote. There will be a musical program consisting of trumpet, marimbaphone, and vocal selections.

Other Events

Newton Federation Annual Meeting

The Annual Meeting and election of officers of the Newton Federation of Women's Clubs was held Tuesday, May 9, at the Brae Burn Country Club. Seated at the head table during the luncheon hour and for the business meeting were the officers of the Federation: seven past presidents of the Federation; also several presidents or officers of Associate organizations. These former presidents were Mrs. Bertrand E. Taylor, Miss Irving O. Palmer, Mrs. Ralph C. Henry, Mrs. Ernest Cobb, Mrs. Ellis Spear, Jr., Mrs. J. Porter Russell, and Mrs. J. Earle Parker. Mrs. Edgar P. Hay, president of the Federation, presided. Mrs. J. Porter Russell asked the blessing. Mrs. Irving O. Palmer gave a brief memorial to Mrs. John H. Pillsbury, president of the Newton Federation from 1909 to 1912. Mrs. John F. Capron read the reports of the chairmen. Ragweed Week will be observed July 17 to July 22 again this summer and everyone is urged to assist in eliminating this menace from Newton. Reporting on the combined philanthropies of the Clubs in the Newton Federation, Mrs. Austin H. Decatur announced the total as $5,093.14. Gifts in Newton from this grand total amounted to $4,580.63. The contributions to the Community Chest were $1,394.10; Scholarships, $1,550.00; and Newton Hospital and Nurses' Home, $414.50.

Mrs. Robert S. Bowen, chairman of the Christmas Health Seals, stated that 11,500 letters were sent out by the ten local chairmen for the 1938-1939 Christmas Health Seal Sale in Newton; and $6,468.02 was the amount received from the Sale which is an increase over the amount received last year. Each of the ten districts showed an increase.

After deducting the expenses of the Sale, 85 per cent of this amount will be used for the benefit of the people of Newton. A large proportion of the fund, and perhaps the most appealing fact to the contributors, will be used for Newton children who are sent to the Southern Middlesex Health Camp in Sharon, where Newton now

Dogs Biting Many Persons In Newton

The army of dogs which runs unrestrained in the Newtons, caused a number of casualties over the week-end. Last Saturday six owners of dogs were ordered by the police to restrain their pets, mostly because the animals had bitten persons. Those notified included Jack Sharkey, 19 Stone ave., Chestnut Hill, on complaint of Mary Plimpton, Lee rd.; Mrs. Charles Gifford, 248 Homer st., Newton Center, on complaint of John Gran, 177 Garland rd.; Mrs. Langdon Persons, 57 Dudley rd., Newton Center, on complaint of Mrs. Mary Bingham, 160 Dudley rd.; Catherine Rand, 139 Gibbs st., Newton Center, on complaint of William Pratt, 19 Chestnut ter.; Mrs. Tony Petrucci, 15 Hamill pl., Newton Centre, on complaint of Mrs. E. J. Feeley of Brookline; Marcel Durot, 23 Fredeana rd., Waban, on complaint of Paul Leahy, 18 Aberdeen st., Newton Highlands.

On Monday complaints were made to the police which resulted in four more dogs being ordered restrained. The owners and complainants are—Anthony Carvelli, 50 Auburn st., West Newton; complainant John McCrea, 58 Auburn st.; Charles Selby, 350 Chestnut st., West Newton; complainant Willis West, Knowles st., Newton Center; Percy Deluzio, 1231 Centre st., Newton Center; complainant, Mary Kenh, 151 Jackson st., Newton Centre; James Cigmaglia, 934 Commonwealth ave., Newton Center; complainant, Donald Walsh, Commonwealth ave.

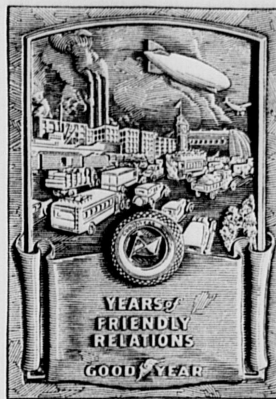

During the month of April 21 persons in Newton were bitten by dogs. In addition to 3500 licensed dogs in this city, there are hundreds of unlicensed dogs.

Gets Ten Days for Giving Bad Check

Dominic Leone of 96 Hawthorn st., Nonantum, was sentenced to serve 10 days in jail by Judge Mayberry in the Newton court on Wednesday when found guilty on a charge of larceny. The larceny was the payment of a tax bill to Louis Ebb, a constable who collects delinquent taxes by a check for $17.54. The check was dated ahead, and flowed back to Ebb. The judge offered to suspend the sentence, but Leone took an appeal. His attorney contended that larceny had not been committed as the defendant had received no material goods in exchange for the check.

August Osterlund Receives Award

In recognition of 10 years of pleasant dealings with the Goodyear Tire & Rubber Company, August Osterlund, Inc., of 724 Beacon st., Newton Centre, local dealers for the big rubber company, has just received a very attractive plaque, which now hangs in a conspicuous place in the dealer's office.

Accompanying the plaque was a personal letter from P. W. Litchfield, president of Goodyear, expressing the company's appreciation of the loyalty maintained by the dealer through the years, along with the hope that the pleasant relations may continue indefinitely.

Naturally the local representative of Goodyear feels very proud of the plaque and the letter. The plaque is a work of art, done in bronze, with the name of the dealer and that of Goodyear appearing in raised letters on the lower portions, while in the background are portrayed various modes of transportation — automobile, bus, truck, railway train, steamship, air plane and airship.

Postpone Children's Carnival At Newton Centre To May 27

The Newton Centre School Association has postponed the date of the Children's Carnival from May 20, 1939, to May 27, 1939, at the Newton Centre Playground on Saturday afternoon from 1 to 5 p.m.

In case of rain the carnival will be postponed until June 3, 1939.

Joining Puritan Rd. With Plymouth

The work of extending Puritan rd. at Newton Highlands, to Plymouth rd., has been under way the past week. Property owners on Plymouth rd., who objected to the use of their street as a thoroughfare for the new real estate development in the Puritan rd. area, obtained an injunction in 1937 which temporarily prohibited the construction of the extension of Puritan rd. through a piece of land separating it from Plymouth rd. For many years a "paper street" had existed over this land, but owners of abutting property claimed this land was not a public way. Recently the injunction which had been obtained from the Supreme Court was dissolved, and E. W. and M. C. Nutting, who have been developing the Puritan rd. area, commenced work in connecting the two roads.

The Plymouth rd. residents had asked that Beethoven ave. be improved so as to connect Puritan rd. with Beacon and Woodward sts., but this has not been done. Over 20 houses have been built in the Puritan rd. area, and it has been contended by Plymouth rd. property owners that their street has been damaged by the considerable increase in heavy trucking. The extension of Puritan rd. to Plymouth rd., will give residents of the former street greatly improved traffic facilities.

Rotary Club

The members of the Newton Rotary Club were enlightened as to the economic trends for the future by Mr. E. C. Wilkinson who is associated with Standard Statistics of New York City. He reminded his audience that an analysis of the past, present, and probable future business conditions should assist anyone in the conduct of his affairs.

His business index is compiled by an analysis of 29 major industries, taking into account also the effect of Government spending. Mr. Wilkinson had many graphs showing the peaks and depressions in industries and general business. 1926 was considered a normal business year. The month of March 1937 was the only time business has been up to normal during the past 10 years.

A general rise in business is expected during several years to come with a prediction of 10 to 15 per cent increase for 1939 over that of 1938. The outstanding industries which are increasing are residential building and shipbuilding. The entire discussion carried a tone of optimism.

Dezotell Found Not Guilty by Jury

James A. Dezotell of Newton, who was arrested several weeks ago in a luncheon at Newton Corner by Inspector Alfred Hammell of the Newton Police, was found not guilty by a jury in Middlesex Superior Court at Cambridge last Monday on charges of having lottery tickets in his possession and of assaulting a police officer. Dezotell was found guilty on both these charges by Judge Mayberry in the Newton court on April 21, and fined $50 on each.

Hammell testified that he entered the luncheon and grabbed Dezotell who was holding an envelope containing the lottery slips. He said that Dezotell kicked him, and that during the struggle the envelope with the slips was thrown to the floor and grabbed by another man who escaped. Dezotell refuted Hammell's testimony. He said that the envelope contained sales orders for furniture, in which business he is engaged, and that instead of his attacking Hammell, the police clasped an "iron claw" on his (Dezotell's) wrist, severely injuring it, as he was dragged along the floor.

James Akins, who was attorney for Dezotell, argued that Hammell had no authority to arrest Dezotell, and that he had found no evidence on the latter. On the day of the arrest, Akins argued at the scene after Hammell had placed Dezotell under arrest. At that time Akins protested against the arrest, and Hammell released Dezotell, subsequently asking for a warrant for the latter's arrest.

Costs $15.30 To Evade Taxi Fare

George Patten of 164 Parker st., Newton Centre, was fined $5 in the Newton court last Monday for evading a taxi fare. He was also ordered to pay the $5.30 he owed for the fare, and another $5 to the taxi driver to compensate him for his time and trouble in prosecuting the case. On April 24 Patten hired Max Garber of Dorchester to drive him from Boston to Newton, and from there to Cambridge. At Cambridge Patten failed to pay the taxi driver, but told the latter to call at an office in that city the next day and he would get the money. Garber went to Cambridge, as agreed, but Patten did not show up, and a warrant was issued for his arrest.

Two Fined For Drunken Driving

Harold Thorne, 22, of 297 Parker st., Newton Centre, was fined $35 by Judge Mayberry in the Newton court on Monday for driving a car while under the influence of liquor. He was arrested on May 1 by Patrolman Stevens after the car he was driving had collided with another automobile.

Fred Pearson, 39, of 24a Myrtle st., Waltham, was fined $50 in the Newton court on Monday for driving a car while under the influence of liquor. Serg. Bannon testified that he had placed Pearson under arrest after he, with Patrolmen Greeley and Scott had proceeded to Cherry st. in response to a radio call. Pearson's car had hit a parked car on Ash st., Waltham, and the defendant was then pursued by the owner of the car hit, John Edmunds of Waltham, to the scene of the arrest.

European mess, England, France, Germany and Italy would soon settle their differences, and that there would be much less probability of frightful war. If the newspapers of this country stopped featuring "war scares," a big step toward the maintenance of international peace would result. The press in Germany and Italy is muzzled, but English papers use only a fraction of the space about threats of war, that the papers of the U. S. A. use. One significant fact is — that thousands of persons from European countries and the British Islands have engaged reservations for trips to this country the coming Spring and Summer, to visit the two big fairs at New York and San Francisco. Among the visitors from overseas are their Majesties—the King and Queen of England. It is not likely that these distinguished personages would cross the Atlantic to visit Canada and the U. S. A. if they thought war is imminent in Europe. Also touring this country are the Crown Prince and Princess of Denmark. Thousands of people in this country who intended to go to Europe this year have been deterred from engaging passage because of the "war scare" articles in our newspapers. If President Roosevelt will "pipe down" on his uncalled for dissertations on the European situation, and if our newspapers devote more space to our own affairs and less to those of Europe, it will be better for all concerned.

It is encouraging that many newspapers in this country have, the past couple of weeks, been giving fewer scareheads to the imminence of war in Europe, and more space to our serious domestic troubles, such as the strike of the bituminous coal miners. It is also encouraging to observe a belated rush of bookings by persons who are going to Europe, Great Britain and Ireland during the coming months. Let us set our own house in order and pay less attention to Europe. And this goes for President Roosevelt, as well as for the rank and file of American citizens.

BETTY CARDER AND DONALD BERRY

A decided departure from the usual dance recital was made in the program of the Sands-Welch School on Saturday evening, May 6, at the Newton Centre Women's Club when a French medieval farce of lusty comedy featured the entertainment.

The Tulip Bed, a modern version of an English fairy tale, was danced and played by children attracting comment from many.

Pigeon Boy, a ballet of Old China, aroused much interest among the Chinese people of Boston. They provided costumes for the dance and guided Mrs. Welch in the manners and traditions of China. In an unusual group of numbers included in Divertisements, three of the instructors gave their interpretations of the dances.

Among the 100 who appeared were:
Ruth Waldron, Jack Robey, Morgan
Mahoney, Abner Pratt, Lewis Carter, Edward Mahoney, Walter McGill, John Morrissey, Charles Skinner, Ken-movements, the meeting, the conflict, and the eventual reconciliation of these colorful groups of earlier days. There will be a place in the tableaux for every cub who attends with pioneer or Indian costume. The Dramatization will be directed by William N. Mansfield of Newton Centre and Scout Commissioner William V. M. Fawcett of Newton. Commissioner Fawcett is to take the part of Indian Chief Akela in the pageantry.

Pioneer Leader will be Kay D.
Peck of Newton Highlands, for three years Chairman of the Pack Committee of Pack 4, and active for a period of years as a member of Troop Committee 4B. His son is now Assistant Den Chief of Pack 4.

The Palava program is to be climaxed by the Council Ring Campfire, at which the traditional fire-making ceremony will follow the appeal to the Great Spirit for fire and light, in which all cubs present are to take part in the appeal of the Fire Maker.
This dramatic ceremony of Indian mystery and fire medicine will precede the award of the blue and gold Attendance Banner presented to the pack having the largest total attendance in proportion to its registered membership. The attendance of the families, neighbors and friends of the cubs will count toward the attendance award. Many other awards and citations are to be made also at this time.

There are at present 77 Cub Dens, comprising the 13 Cub Packs in Norumbega Council. They represent nearly 60 per cent of the total Council roster, being the largest proportion in the entire country, and illustrating the importance of cubbing in Newton and Wellesley.

Nobscot Reservation, where the Palava is to be held, has been in existence for eleven years as an important adjunct to the various activities in Norumbega. It includes 22 troop cabins and is easy of access, being but a short distance from the Worcester Turnpike at Framingham
Centre. Many families will enjoy picnic supper at the various cabins to which Den Chiefs are attached. It will be unnecessary to bring drinking water as the crowd can readily be served from the water well of Troop 6W, which adjoins the field and is most accessible. The water is inexhaustible and of high purity, being regularly tested by the City of Newton.

Officials and notable guests who will appear in the reviewing stand with the Governor will include the following:

Hold Conference
On Reorganizing Playground Dept.

Playgrounds in Newton from a civil service list, following an examination.
Mr. Paul stated he would favor the proposed change because it will permit the Mayor to select whatever person to head the playground department whom he deems the most desirable, subject to confirmation by the Board of Aldermen. The commission would include the present five members, plus the Superintendent as a sixth member.

The proposed changes in the ordinances will be submitted to the Board of Aldermen either at the next meeting or in the near future. It is understood that there is a considerable difference of opinion in the Board on this matter.

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE

"Mortals and Immortals" is the subject of the Lesson-Sermon which will be read in Churches of Christ, Scientist, throughout the world, on Sunday, May 14.
The Golden Text is: "We that are in this tabernacle do groan, being burdened: not for that we would be unclothed, but clothed upon, that mortality might be swallowed up of life" (II Corinthians 5:4).

Among the citations which comprise the Lesson-Sermon is the following from the Bible: "Blessed is the man that walketh not in the counsel of the ungodly, nor standeth in the way of sinners, nor sitteth in the seat of the scornful. But his delight is in the law of the Lord; and in his law doth he meditate day and night. . . . For the Lord knoweth the way of the righteous: but the way of the ungodly shall perish" (Psalms
1:1, 2, 6).

The Lesson-Sermon also includes the following passage from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy: "The real man is spiritual and immortal, but the mortal and imperfect so-called 'children of men' are counterfeits from the beginning, to be laid aside for the pure reality" (p. 409).

Cunard White Star Line Has Heavy European Trade

Mr. Harold P. Borer, General Passenger Manager of the Cunard White Star Line, visited Boston yesterday. A luncheon was given in the Sheraton Room of The Copley-Plaza to one hundred and fifty New England Travel Counselors and Agents.

In commenting on the departure of the "Queen Mary" this week with upward of 1600 passengers, the largest list carried by any ship since last August, Mr. Borer stated: "It certainly lends credence to the fact that the American traveling public has gotten over their 'war hysteria.' The moment baseball pushed the European war scare headlines off the front page, business with the American traveling public began to get normal again."

Mr. Borer further pointed out that there is a great interest throughout the various European countries in the New York World's Fair. As a consequence, his company alone has several sailings heavily booked with the Europeans coming here for their vacations.

It was pointed out to the Travel Agents present that many prospective travelers may be delaying their vacations in the thought that travel to Europe this season may be light and that there is still plenty of time to make reservations on any sailing they might select. Many of these people are going to be disappointed as the steamship lines are assured that their ships, during the summer season, will be full. If not with Americans, the accommodation will be occupied by Europeans who are coming over in greater numbers than ever before.

Travel representatives were present from all parts of New England. Mr. Charles Stewart, New England Manager of the Cunard White Star Line, and Mr. Charles C. Dasey, Passenger Manager for New England, acted as hosts to Mr. Borer and the travel agents.

Passed Red Light, Got Fresh, Fined

In the Newton court on Monday, Judge Mayberry fined Timothy Stearns, 42, of 25 Allen rd., Wellesley, $10 after he had been found guilty of driving by a traffic signal at West Newton where the lights were against him. The usual fine imposed for this offence is $5, but after Patrolman Charles Mague had told the court of remarks Stearns had allegedly made to the policeman when he was stopped, the judge imposed a fine of $10. Mague testified that Stearns remarked: "What the hell did you stop me for," and that when the Wellesley man asked the patrolman for his name, and he gave it, Stearns said: "You are either a Mick or a Mac; how do you spell it?"

Newton Man Hit By Automobile

Edward J. Rooney, 48, of 52 Arlington st., Newton, was hit about midnight last Friday by a car driven by David Townsend, 19, of 36 Hood st., Newton. Rooney was crossing Galen st., near Hunt st., Watertown, when he was struck. He was taken in the Watertown police ambulance to the Cambridge Hospital where it was found he had received a fractured skull and other injuries. His name was placed on the danger list. Townsend told the Watertown police that he did not see Rooney crossing the street until it was too late to avoid hitting him.

Fined $25 For Reckless Driving

Edgar S. Hanna of 93 Freeman st., Auburndale, was fined $25 by Judge Mayberry in the Newton court on last Friday for driving a car so as to endanger the safety of the public. He appealed. On April 21 a car driven by Hanna, and a car driven by George Farley of Cambridge, collided at the intersection of Washington st. and Commonwealth ave. Hanna was injured, receiving a fractured rib. Judge Mayberry commented that there was civil negligence on the part of both drivers, but that on the evidence presented, he had to find Hanna guilty.

Basley's Lumber Co. Observes Two Decades of Advancement

Since its inception in 1919, the Basley Lumber Company has forged ahead until it has now gained a high position in the retail lumber business of Greater Boston.

Established as Newton's only lumber yard under the late Frederick R. Basley, the interests in the firm were purchased by Mr. Roy S. Edwards shortly after Mr. Basley's death in February, 1931.

Mr. Edwards had been connected with the lumber company for a number of years and for the last eight years he has been the directing hand in this alert organization.

There are various ways of prolonging the life of the garden, but the major factor is care. A well-watered garden won't burn up; a well cultivated garden won't be submerged in weeds; a garden protected from insect and disease attack won't be destroyed.

Given proper care, annual flowers may be prolonged most easily simply by keeping them picked. Annuals, almost without exception, will continue blooming well into fall if their blossoms are removed regularly.

A second bloom late in the season is often obtained on such perennials as delphinium, sweet william, coreopsis, perennial dianthus and pyrethrum if the first blossoms are picked in their prime.

Many gardeners have been successful in planting a packet or two of annual seed late, then digging up and potting plants just before frost arrives. The plants grow and flower in the house for many weeks after things in the open garden have been killed. Try this in the fall with any of the following: Ageratium, begonia, calceola, carnation, coleus, pinks, dimorphotheca, lobelia, dwarf marigold, pansy, petunia and snapdragon.

Vegetable gardens last longer if a succession of crops is planted. Servings of fresh radishes, carrots, turnips, beets, beans and corn may be kept coming to the table well into fall by sowing at intervals after the original spring planting.

Late summer is an excellent time for a final planting of such crops as rutabagas, beans, beets, Chinese cabbage, turnips and cabbage plants. Many such vegetables are even better when maturing in the moist, cool fall than when planted for summer harvest. Spring is the time for the first planting of the garden season, but the first planting should not be the last.

has its own cottage to accommodate for the entire season sixteen who need supervised care and treatment to restore them to health. Some of the Christmas Seal money is also allotted to the City Public Health doctor to assist in the Health Educational Campaign which includes tuberculin-testing clinics. Much printed matter and many pamphlets are annually distributed to the schools, libraries, etc., concerning tuberculosis. A motion picture machine with sound projector and screen has recently been purchased for health educational use. One of the newer plans already practiced by many groups in the National Association and the State League, and now to be adopted by the Health Committee of the Family Service Bureau of Newton, for whose use the Newton Federation conducts this Sale, is the rehabilitation of those who are becoming, or have become, well enough to assume again their places among the workers of the world. At some of the sanatoria, many educational courses are now offered to train those able to undertake some practice or study. The encouragement that these people experience gives great uplift to their morale, and returns them to the world as valuable contributing citizens. There remain, of course, sundry uses for the Seal Sale funds as heretofore, such as food, milk, medicine, hospital equipment, transportation, etc.

Mrs. Raymond A. Green, chairman of the Nominating committee, presented the ballot for the vote of the Federation. The officers elected were: President, Mrs. Edgar P. Hay; first vice-president, Mrs. H. Clayton Pearson; second vice-president, Mrs. John F. Capron; third vice-president, Mrs. Newton A. Merritt; recording secretary, Mrs. J. F. Mullineaux; corresponding secretary, Mrs. A. Thomas Smith; treasurer, Mrs. Ernest L. Johnson; auditor, Mrs. Robert B. McLaughlin; directors, Mrs. George H. Crosbie and Mrs. Sidney B. Sargent; to serve for 1939-1942; and Nominating committee for 1939-1940, Mrs. Alexander I. Peckham, chairman; and Mrs. George Armstrong, Mrs. Ernest Dockstader, Mrs. Raymond A. Green, Mrs. Ethel P. Leach, Mrs. A. H. Shannon, Mrs. Alexander T. Skakle, Mrs. Harold T. Sprague, and Mrs. Edward H. Woods. Mrs. George H. Crosbie, of the Program Committee, introduced the artists presenting the musical program of the afternoon. Piano solos were given by Mary Murtagh, Mariam Burroughs, Violinist, was accompanied on the piano by Mary Pumphrey Tower.

Woman's Association Hears
American, Foreign Painter

Frederick Robbins, who went over to Holland to paint and saw so much beauty in the lives of the inhabitants in the fishing villages that he stayed two years, spoke from his experiences, at the May 3rd meeting of the Woman's Association of the Newtonville Methodist Church on "The Zest of the Zuider Zee." Using pantomime and song he portrayed some of the art which he saw in the costumes, personal lives, craft and natural instincts of these peoples. The young Dutch suitor imploring his sweetheart to "make up" and marry him and come to the lovely house he has built for her, the milkmaid with her neckyoke and pails lading out milk from house to house and a fisherman's elaborate farewell to his family were picturesque as seen through the artist's eye. The personal story of a 375 year old windmill, Mr. Robbins playing the role, was related in a way to impress the over-inquisitive and patronizing tourist. Mr. Robbins' clog dancing and imitation skating in the wooden shoes were the best.

The women met in the morning to sew for the Newton Hospital. Lunch was served at 12:30. The Woman's Bible Class is having a roll call Sunday morning at 9:45 and its 15th anniversary Banquet, May 12, 1939, scheduled dates for a rummage sale at 229 Washington st., Newton Corner, May 11, the Missionary meeting May 17, an outing for Group VI May 24, another for Group III at the home of Mrs. Howell E. Dupuy, Sr., at Scituate May 25 and the annual meeting June 7. A group of members will assist at the sale for the blind in the Newton Centre Club House next Wednesday. The Association responded to an appeal from the woman's organization of the Wakefield Methodist Church for aid in rebuilding their church which was badly damaged by the hurricane.

Noble Adds Vitamin D
To New Milk on May 1

On May first, the Noble Milk Company announced the addition of Vitamin D to its Red Seal Milk through the process of irradiation.

Vitamin D, popularly known as the "Sunshine Vitamin," is an essential to everyone's health. Its presence in our diet allows our bodies to assimilate calcium and phosphorus, the two mineral elements necessary to build strong bones and sound teeth, as well as better all-around health.

The Noble Company, established in 1884, has pioneered in many of the improvements in our daily milk supply. It was among the first dairy companies to adopt modern sterilizing and pasteurizing equipment. The introduction of medium-priced milk containing Vitamin D is but further evidence of the company's endeavor to carry on the high standards set by William F. Noble, the company's founder.

On Wednesday morning, May 10, the senior girls of Newton High School held their annual senior dress assembly. The mothers were invited, for it is the purpose of this assembly to show examples of suitable dresses for graduation. Jean Roberts welcomed the mothers and introduced the speaker, Miss Muriel Cox, an alumna of Newton High School and now the assistant director of the Chamberlayne School in Boston. She spoke about graduation dresses and described the distinctive features of the dresses modeled by senior girls. The following girls wore dresses made by themselves: Arline Brewer, Eleanor Davis, Betty Dolan, Virginia Gardner, Nancy Hayes, Catherine Lopes, Elsie Marcell, Doris Martinez, Gloria Martinez, Mary K. Murphy, Mary Rechcia, Margaret Ridgeway, Margaret Sullivan, and Norma Sweetland. Commercial dresses lent by Boston stores were worn by Eleanor Borden, Christine Cornell, Annie D'Ercole, Jean Jordan, Grace Joyce, Martha Mason, Ruth Phelps, Lucille Quigley, Jean Roberts, Anne Ryan, Ann Scallise, Jane Scanlon, Mildred Tedeschi, Katherine Viets, Ramona Wells, and Constance Years. Music was furnished by girl members of the Newton High School Orchestra.

On May 3, the Neophytes and the Puppet Clubs presented their annual collaborative performance. The Puppets, under the direction of Mrs. Cornell gave a variety program consisting of Sally, the dancer operated by Anna Ames; Charlie, operated by Constance Wilson and spoken for by John Mesmer; and Professor Swingit, operated by Robert Maginit. The Neophytes presented the swift-moving comedy, "Grandma Pulls the String." Those taking part were: Karyl Kern, Priscilla Parker, Herbert Rosenberg, Peggy Rautenberg, Molly Knight and Antoinette Lucia. Dave Gallison presided. Georgia Leonard, Dave Gallison, and Bill Woods arranged the scenery, and Alice Sarafan prompted. Miss Jessie A. Southard was the coach.

At the monthly meeting of the Social Studies Club, Daniel Needham, president of the club, introduced the guest speaker, Mr. Roland Hall Sharp. Mr. Sharp, foreign correspondent for the Christian Science Monitor, gave a very interesting talk on the present political situation in Europe. Before discussing this topic, he briefly explained the correct way of reading a newspaper. He said that in his opinion there would not be a war in Europe. As to the question whether or not the United States would allow Germany or Italy to take South American countries, he believes that these countries are well aware of the European crisis and would not submit to such actions.

At its seventh and final meeting of the year, the English Club entertained Alpha Beta. After Alpha Beta had heard an announcement from its president and the secretary's and treasurer's reports were approved, the business meeting was concluded by annual reports from the vice-president, secretary and treasurer. The prize of five dollars for the winning entry in the book-plate contest was awarded to Barbara Swan. The entertainment was planned by Jean Hamant and her program committee.

Officers for next year's English Club were chosen as follows: President, Mavis Hayden; Vice-President, Richard Gove; Secretary, Alan Michaels; Treasurer, John Fairfield.

Low Cost Heating
Is Goal of Company

The American Radiator and Standard Sanitary Corporation has spent thousands of dollars in the past few years to develop low cost heating for the small town home. This heating service was formerly a luxury of the metropolitan mansions and the city apartment houses. But it is now available at reasonable figures through 38,000 American Radiator-Standard Sanitary trade outlets, many of which are in the smaller places.

American Radiator and Standard Sanitary has approximately 2,000 wholesalers, but it does not have exclusive representatives among the heating and plumbing contractors.

In the new organization which was perfected the early part of this year, Henry M. Reed, formerly of Pittsburgh, was elected president and chairman and Mr. Roland J. Hamilton of New York was named vice-president, secretary and treasurer.

OAK HILL DISTRICT IMPROVEMENT ASSOCIATION, INC.

New Officers Organize

The first meeting of the new board of officers of the Oak Hill District Improvement Association met at the home of the president, Henry S. C. Cummings, 33 Oak Hill st., in Newton Centre, on Tuesday evening and made plans for the coming year.

It is planned that the Board will meet monthly except during July and August throughout the year and that in connection with five of these meetings there will be held "Open Meetings" to which the Community will be invited to attend. The first meeting will be held on Monday, June 5th, at which time Dr. C. B. Chope will be invited to address the Open Meeting using as a topic, "If We Only Could." Dr. H. Bristol Nelson, it is planned, will lead a brief period of discussion and this will be followed by a half hour opportunity for neighbors to get acquainted.

Other similar "Open Meetings" will be planned for October 2nd, December 4th, February 5th and April 8th with leading citizens of Newton taking speaking parts. The president announced that the Village would be divided into twelve districts with a director in charge of each section in order that problems of affecting the entire District might receive better representation. The following appointments were approved by the Board: District 1, John B. Stetson; District 2, Mrs. Ben T. Fawcett; District 3, Truman H. Brackett; District 4, Wendell R. K. Mick; District 6, Harold F. Tracy of 6 Hagen rd., Hagen-Parker st. section; District 7, Norman A. Hall; District 8, Philip Saunders; District 9, Charles R. Davis; District 10, Thomas R. Fallon; District 11, Dr. Franklin G. Balch, Jr.; District 12, Ralph W. King.

The following committees were also appointed and will serve during the coming year: Law Enforcement: Harold F. Tracy; City Affairs, Charles R. Davis; Publicity, Norman A. Hall; School Affairs, Mrs. Lawrence Early; Improvement Associations, Wendell R. K. Mick; Recreational affairs, Truman H. Brackett; Open Meeting, Mrs. Ben T. Fawcett. Membership, Philip Saunders; Safety, Lawrence Early; Tax Study, John B. Stetson; Mosquito Control, Dr. H. Bristol Nelson; Beautification, Dr. F. G. Balch, Jr.; and bus, Albert B. Hasenut; and Program, Henry S. C. Cummin.

The Board unanimously approved the widening of Brookline st. from the Brookline line to Dudley rd. to a fifty foot width; approved the proposed WPA project to lower the water table along the Saw Mill Brook, off Brookline st. near Vine st., approved enforcement of traffic Ordinance which would eliminate heavy trucking on Dedham and Brookline sts. The Board also discussed the possible request for a Thursday and Sunday midnight bus trip to the Oak Hill District; and it was brought out that numerous complaints had been received because of excessive speeding on Parker and Dedham sts. As a result efforts will be made to secure police co-operation in eliminating this danger. In the Newton Countryside section there was a request for a better sign at the head of Dedham and Brush Hill rd. indicating that the road was NOT a through way street.

The meeting was one of the best attended meetings that the association has had and it was very apparent that the officers and directors plan a very active year in developing a real community spirit and civic consciousness.

"Sense and Nonsense" To Presented At Benefit Play

Many prominent Newton ladies are among the patronesses for the twenty-third annual show of the children of the Drama and Dancing Departments of the North Bennet Street Industrial School, to be given Saturday morning, May 20th, at 10:45 a. m., in the Woman's Club Hall, Newton Centre. The play this year will be "Sense and Nonsense or Troubles Are Bubbles," written especially for this dramatic group. Simple Simon, Jack and Jill, Little Miss Muffet, Jack Horner, and many other Mother Goose's children will delight with their philosophy and their fun. New and interesting dances colorfully costumed will follow the play.

The proceeds of this performance help hundreds of city children in the North End of Boston to enjoy a summer kindergarten, story hours, roof parties, picnic pleasures and camp opportunities. The performance provides a delightful and wholesome morning's entertainment for children by children as the large audiences which have filled the hall in previous years give evidence.

NEWTON TRACK TEAM
VICTORIOUS AGAINQuad Meet Featured By Fast Times

Newton High continued its onward surge towards another undefeated track season yesterday turning back Brockton, Malden and Boston English on the cinders at Newtonville in its second quadrangular meet of the season. Newton tallied 42 points with Brockton taking second with 23 and Malden edging out Boston English 16½ to 15½ for the third and fourth places. The young athletes were favored by a young gale which swept down the straightaway with the result that three marks were turned in that would have meant world record could they have been allowed to stand. Don MacKinnon turned in a 13.55 clocking in the hurdles and Caldwell of Brockton a 21.5 in the 220 and a 9.8 mark in the century.

Along with the Brockton double winner was Billy Pescosolido who captured both the high and broad jumps to tuck ten points into the Newton total. MacKinnon turned in eight digits with his hurdle victory and second in the 220.

A great race was staged in the 440 between the two Newton stars, Fred Hall and Art Hughes with the latter turning the tables on his teammate for the first time this season in a close finish. Goldsmith of Malden set the pace to the final bend when both Hall and Hughes jumped him. Over the last fifty yards it was nip and tuck with Hughes leaping into first a step from the tape.

More thrills were furnished in the 880 with Nearhos of Boston English taking the lead from the gun. Hutchings, Newton favorite, was content to hold second until half the race had been run. He took the lead on the straightaway and, as Nearhos lost a shoe and faded, Barkhouse of Malden moved up on Hutchings' heels. Barkhouse took the lead on the last bend but on the brush to the tape Hutchings had enough left to nip the Maldonian at the tape. Bob Woods of Newton took third in a secondary duel for the point position.

Bob Liming of Newton, running his first cinder race, nosed out Billy Pescosolido for third in the 100 behind Caldwell of Brockton and Concannon of Boston English.

The Newton relay quartet took second to Brockton with Caldwell and Hall putting on an anchor leg which brought the spectators to their feet.

Newton's competition next week is a dual meet at Brookline on Friday.

NEWTON NINE MEETS
ARLINGTON AT NEWTONGame May Decide Suburban League Title

A baseball game which will probably have a decided bearing on the 1939 Suburban league baseball championship takes place this afternoon at Newtonville when Jeff Jones Newton nine takes on the pace-setting Arlington outfit. This game also starts the second round of league competition. Arlington, with five wins and no defeats, opened its league season against Newton a few weeks ago with a 12 to 0. An inexperienced Newton nine has come a long way since that defeat and since then has turned back all other league competitors to stay in the running for the title.

Last Monday the orange and black took an early lead over Brookline and stayed off threatening rallies by the Wealthy Towners to end the game with a 7 to 6 win.

The League Standing:

Arlington	5	0	1,000
Newton	4	1	800
Camb. Latin	2	3	400
Brookline	2	3	400
Waltham	1	4	200
Rindge	1	4	200

Several of the archers won first places while others were among the first five high scores. In the women's division at Melrose, Miss Thelma Phillips, Massachusetts state champion, took top honors while her sister, Mrs. Grace Harrison, finished third. Mrs. Anita Howard placed fifth.

Newton men who placed in the total scores for the day at Melrose are: Mr. Walter Kimber, who took second honors; Chester Shedd, fourth, and James Spofford, fifth place.

Cleaning up all five places, the Newton Juniors walked away with their division. Led by Scott Doten, who placed first, Joseph Kimber, Marjorie Kimber, Sally Spofford, and Patricia Skinner captured the remaining four top places, respectively.

Only taking part in the afternoon competition, 15-year-old Bobby Goldich snared a third place in the American round for men.

The cup for the highest score in the weekly handicap round of the Newton Archers was won by James Spofford at Newton Centre last Saturday. Robert Goldich placed first in the men's American round. Second honors in the handicap was taken by B. J. Seaman while H. E. Carter captured third place.

Vera Andrews won the handicap division for women with Dorothy Matthews taking second place. Mrs. Anita Howard placed third in the handicap and nosed out Mabel Schall by four points to win the American round. First place winner of the handicap, Vera Andrews, was third without handicap.

James Spofford was the winner of a new trophy donated by President R. C. Garner in memory of Dr. Carroll F. Moulton.

First and second places in the handicap and American rounds on the junior division were won by Scott Doten and Dunsmore Walsh. Joseph Kimber captured a third in the American shoot while Sally Spofford placed third in the handicap competition.

dreds of trees which had been blown down in last September's hurricane. Many of the trees had been cut into logs, and a portable sawmill had converted the logs into lumber. A bonfire, started by the loggers, got beyond control, and at 1:09 p. m. Saturday the Newton Fire Department was called. They could not check the rapidly spreading flames, and assistance was summoned from nearby Needham, and from Wellesley. Lack of water handicapped the firemen. In addition to many trees, a considerable amount of logs were burned, as well as much slash.

DOG/NOTE
by PETER BOGGS

When your boy asks if he may have a dog, remember the following story which should influence your decision in the boy's favor. Bobby Collier and three companions were hurled into the Potomac River when their sailboat capsized near their home. Bobby's three companions could swim but Bobby could not. Running up and down on the shore was Bobby's dog Betsy, a Chesapeake Bay Retriever, who had been left behind when the four started out on their sailing expedition.

Exhausted after their efforts of trying to save both themselves and Bobby, his companions called excitedly, "Betsy, come save him!" The dog swam out to the struggling boys. Bobby locked his arm under the dog's collar and the dog towed him safely to shore, a distance of over three hundred feet. Bobby had lapsed into unconsciousness soon after the dog had reached him, but despite the dead weight around his neck the dog saved his master.

It is true dogs may at times prove to be a source of trouble or an inconvenience to a family, but one never knows when they may be the means of saving the lives of one or more of its members. I heartily recommend that a child be allowed to have a dog if he wants one. Not only will it teach him responsibility and afford him many hours of pleasure, but someday the dog may save your son's or daughter's life.

CAST your eye just once on the passing traffic and you spot this stunning Buick as the one car of the year you can instantly identify.

It's the pattern—no mistaking that—and you'll find plenty of admiring glances following wherever you travel.

But if attention had been all we were after, we might have got merely that with a lot less pains than we took.

What we were shooting for was something a heap more important than attention: a picture that does you justice—and mister, look how gloriously we hit the bull's-eye!

You try out the driver's seat—it fits. You take hold of the wheel—it seems molded to your hand. There's the gas treadle, right where it should be...

So you ease down on the gas—and pronto, you've got rhythm! You fingertip the wheel—presto! there's control!

You wing down the straightaway, cruise around curves, swoop up the hill. Eagerly, instantly, amiably, your car does what you want—it's almost a part of you, your wish is its action!

So, you happily discover, here's where you belong!

It isn't the big and powerful wallop in that big Dynaflex straight-eight alone. It isn't only the level skimming comfort of soft-coiled Buick Coil Springing. It isn't simply the visibility—though those extra 412 square inches come in mighty handy.

It's the feel of this great car you'll go for, the way you feel at home!

Now such a car is worth plenty. But this Buick actually costs less than a year ago, less than you think—less than some sixes.

Surely, that leaves nothing else to settle except when you can get delivery. Why not see your Buick dealer and get the answer?

"Better buy Buick!"

Majority Of Aldermen Oppose 'Welcome House' After Reconsideration

Vote Is 12-9 Following Long Discussion; Action Ends Controversy Over Use of Clark Estate

By a vote of 12 to 9 the Newton Board of Aldermen on Monday night refused to grant the petition of Mildred Clark Sears and the Boston Safe Deposit Company which asked for a permit to use the Clark estate on Claremont st., Newton, as a home-school for girls by the Florence Crittenton League of Compassion. At the meeting of the Board of April 17 the vote on this question had been 10 in favor and 9 opposed, with President Floyd manifesting support for the petition, and the absent member, Alderman Jamieson, sending a letter which stated he also favored the petition. Of the 9 who voted against the petition on April 17, one, Alderman McCabe, really favored the petition, and later moved for reconsideration. At the meeting of the Aldermen on May 1, a majority of the Board favored reconsideration, and also voted to postpone again voting on the matter until May 15.

At the meeting on last Monday night the nine Aldermen who voted in favor of granting the petition were—Ashenden, Bacon, Everts, Floyd, Hutchinson, Jamieson, Lockwood, Temperley and Walker. The twelve who voted against the petition were—Barwise, Colby, Fahey, Gaddis, Hoffman, Hughes, Inches, McCabe, McKay, Rawson, Schipper and Tiffin. Aldermen Gaddis, McKay and Schipper changed their votes, as they announced they would do at the May 1st meeting, because of the probability that Newton would become responsible for the education of the 24 girls who would live at "Welcome House," the institution in question. Alderman McCabe had stated he would vote for the petition if the permit would be limited to a trial period of 5 years; otherwise he would oppose it.

Alderman Hoffman opened the discussion Monday night by saying that the city would lose considerable in taxes by permitting the institution to become established on the Clark estate, and that the social effects on the city at large should be considered.

Sustain Veto on Cleansing Plant

By a vote of 11 to 10 the Board of Aldermen on Monday night sustained Mayor Child's veto of a permit which the Board had granted to Raymond Miller to build an addition to his cleansing plant on Hawthorn st., Nonantum. The addition would be partly in a residence zone. Those who voted to give the permit, despite the Mayor's veto were Aldermen Ashenden, Bacon, Barwise, Everts, Fahey, Hutchinson, Inches, Lockwood, McKay, Rawson and Walker. Those who were in opposition included Aldermen Colby, Gaddis, Hoffman, Hughes, Jamieson, McCabe, Schipper, Temperley, Tiffin and Floyd.

Neighbors had protested about odors that come from the present cleansing plant, and had argued that with an enlarged plant, the nuisance would become greater. In the past unsanitary seepage from the cleansing has allegedly flowed into the Hawthorn st. playground across the street. There is no sewer connection there. In arguing for the granting of the permit, Alderman Rawson said that the odors and seepage will continue anyway, and that Miller will build out to the street line, if he cannot build the addition desired. Alderman Hoffman said Miller can eliminate the offensive odors if he will make a small expenditure. Alderman Gaddis said that the seepage from the place is bad and general conditions worse. Alderman Schipper said that all but one of the abutments object to conditions at the cleansing plant.

Will Investigate Soldiers' Relief

At the meeting of the Board of Aldermen on Monday night, Alderman Colby as chairman of the special committee appointed to investigate the Soldiers' Relief Department in Newton announced that the committee will start its task of delving into the conduct of this department next week and will study it from top to bottom. Colby stated that the probe will include all recipients of soldiers' relief from the city, and will not be limited to the relief recipient whom Alderman McCabe revealed to the Aldermen as having received nearly $6000 from the city last year. Colby said:

"We will study the department from top to bottom, he said. "We will try to find out the whole story about the department appropriations. Alderman McCabe's charges will be investigated as a part of the entire study. It will be our purpose to suggest improvements in the department, and bring about better co-operation." The other members of the committee are Aldermen Hoffman, Hughes, Lockwood and Schipper. (Continued on page 10)

Nobscot Echoes Youthful Enthusiasm As Governor Reviews Cubs At Palava

"I Am Happier To Be Here Before Dark"

Governor Saltonstall as he viewed the war-like Indian costumes of Donald Eden, Robert G. Farnum, and Carter Hoyt, Jr., before he reviewed the 600 Norumbega Council Cubs last Saturday.

INDIANS ATTACK PIONEER'S COVERED WAGON IN DRAMATIC FRONTIER BATTLE

Newton Centre Pack 19 Awarded Attendance Banner; Rep. Francis Introduces Governor Saltonstall to Throng of 1800

Over 600 Cubs from the thirteen packs in the Norumbega Council gaily costumed in Indian and pioneer attire echoed their youthful enthusiasm among the hills of the Nobscot reservation at their sixth annual Palava last Saturday afternoon as 1200 parents, Governor Saltonstall, and many other dignitaries watched the junior scouts "eyes right" as they passed in ceremonial review to the beat of the Pack 10 Drum Corps from Waban.

Representative Douglass B. Francis, Commissioner of Culling, introduced the Governor to the cubs after they had marched into formation by packs before the reviewing stand. In a few remarks to the future scouts, the first Governor to come from Newton in many years praised the youths and their work and emphasized that they were learning the basic principle of life, "To take care of yourself and others."

Start Gold Rush

Each pack was assigned a certain district on Wilson's field where they assembled with their parents for the four main events of the afternoon. Harold Banks organized the cubs for the Pioneer Game and Gold Rush, which was the first event on the palava program. Led by their Den Chiefs, the 77 dens started in search of a treasure somewhere on the eastern side of Nobscot mountain. Racing through wooded trails and over rustic bridges for nearly an hour, the treasure was retrieved by 11-year old Donald Mork of Den 2. Credit for the discovery was awarded to Pack 4 of Newton Highlands.

Returning to their pack quarters, the cubs changed to their frontier costumes and gathered up their wooden muskets, tomahawks, and other implements of pioneer warfare in preparation for the parade before the Governor and the dramatization of an Indian attack on a covered wagon.

Governor Arrives

Harold H. Clafflin, Palava Cubmaster, rallied the cubs for the review on the arrival of the Governor and his military aide, Major Dan Tyler, Jr. The parade was headed by a color guard and the Waban Pack Drum Corps of 20 boys with Bobby Eden as drum major assisted by Walker Merrill and Bob Newton. Ten-year-old Richard Wilkins was the bugler.

Following the introduction of Governor Saltonstall and his short address, the cubs knelt; and Scout Robert McGrath led the 600 youths in a "grand howl" for the first man of the commonwealth.

Tribe Attacks Pioneers

An atmosphere of the early American frontier descended upon the throng at Wilson's field as the cubs divided into two groups of Indians and pioneers to reenact an attack on a covered wagon by the redskins. Indian Chief Leigh M. Nisbet led his tribe against the pioneer settlement of Kay D. Peck, and the battle scene which followed echoed throughout the entire reservation.

Peace was finally made between the two groups in traditional manner with Chief Nisbet using the conventional (Continued on page 2)

New Engine 1 In Service In Newton

The new fire truck for Engine 1 at Newton arrived on Monday from Middleboro, where it was made by the Maxim Company. With an enclosed cab, the truck is quite modern in appearance. It has a 150 horsepower motor, a pump with a capacity of 750 gallons per minute, and carries 900 feet of 2½ inch hose, 200 feet of 1½ inch hose, 300 feet of ¾ inch hose and 100 feet of 3 inch hose. It has three lengths of suction hose and carries a 25 foot extension ladder and a 13 foot roof ladder. The truck has a number of devices which will be of assistance to its crew in the operation of the apparatus. It replaces the old truck which was wrecked in a collision several months ago.

Mick Named To Planning Board

At the meeting of the Aldermen on Monday night a communication was received from Mayor Childs submitting the appointment of Wendell R. Mick of Dedham st., Oak Hill, as a member of the Planning Board to succeed the late James Kingman. On Motion of Alderman Temperley the rules were suspended to permit confirmation of the appointment. Mr. Mick has been active in Oak Hill affairs. Last year he was one of the signers of a petition which asked that a study be made for construction of a traffic roadway through undeveloped land at Oak Hill in connection with plans drawn by Herbert Kellaway, a member of the Newton Planning Board.

THE "NO-RIDER" CAMPAIGN

Newton motorists should co-operate enthusiastically with the anti-bumming ride campaign recently undertaken by the Newton high school. A few years ago a similar campaign was extremely successful in practically eliminating this nuisance from our highways. In the natural course of events a let-down occurred with a renewed increase in thumbing which has resulted in more hitch-hiking in Newton today than ever before.

The Civics Board of the High School, and the Orange Shield, a group of students seeking to uphold the good name of the school have resolved to again attempt to reduce this nuisance with its attendant dangers. The campaign is centered around an effort to urge motorists to discourage roadside pests by refusing lifts. It is almost futile to appeal to the reasoning of the "thumper" as he is usually the type of person who thinks only of himself and not of the additional hazard he creates.

Printed gummed labels bearing the notice "No Riders" are available in many places throughout the city. Police Chief Michael Hughes, who heartily endorses the campaign and the Newton police department are also co-operating. It is hoped that Newton citizens will co-operate by attaching a label to the lower right corner of their automobile windshield in an earnest endeavor to stop this unnecessary, unfortunate, and hazardous practice.

Newton people welcome the fact that the "Welcome House" matter has finally been concluded for this year.

Accused of Hit and Run Driving

Harry L. Haines, 60, of Lindbergh ave., West Newton, was arraigned in the Newton court on Wednesday on a charge of leaving the scene of an accident without making himself known. Joseph Hopkins of 11A Dalby st., Nonantum, an employee of the Newton Street Department was the complainant. According to Hopkins, a truck driven by Haines hit him at the corner of Washington and Waltham sts., West Newton on Tuesday. Hopkins reported that his left arm was bruised and his sweater torn, and that he pursued and caught up with the truck when Haines stopped at a nearby store. He said that Haines asserted the truck had not hit him, and refused to give his name. The case was continued until May 28.

Pay Fines For Tipping Barrels

Four colored youths from Roxbury visited Newton late last Friday night and while on their way home early Saturday morning thought they would be "funny" by tipping over some ash barrels near the intersection of Washington st. and Jackson rd., Newton. Neighbors telephoned police headquarters and a police car with Serg. Cleary, Patrolmen Lovely, Slavin and Whelan, pursued the miscreants and caught them about 2:30 a. m. In the Newton court last Saturday the four Roxbury pranksters were fined $5 each for upsetting the barrels. They were Robert Mahner, 21; Clarence Horton, 22; John Douglas, 20; and Stanley Brown, 22. In addition, Brown and Douglas each were fined $5 for drunk driving.

Newton Dogs Biting Persons

Over the week-end three more dogs were ordered restrained. Stephen Shannon of 15 Alban rd., Waban, was ordered to restrain his dog on complaint of Maxie Beetham of Annawan rd.; Nicholas Ide of 26 Kensington st., West Newton, was ordered to restrain his dog on complaint of Mrs. Estelle Marr of Hazelhurst ave.; John Rogers of 12 Cottage st., Upper Falls was ordered to restrain his dog on complaint of Henry Sharrott of 48 Cottage st.

Welcome House Rejected 12 to 9

near the present site of "Welcome House" at Jamaica Plain, landing the school-home, and he also read a number of letters from property owners near the Clark estate in Newton, favoring the granting of the petition. He said that 8 out of 13 abutters favor the coming of the institution to Newton; and these people own 82% of the surrounding land, and pay 71% of the taxes in the neighborhood. Lockwood asserted that if the petition is not approved, there will be more regrets than if it had been approved. He said that if the Clark estate will be cut up into small house lots, real estate in the neighborhood will shrink in value more than if the home for girls came there.

Alderman Lockwood said that although he represents Ward 7, he had been a close friend of the late James E. Clark, and he told of Mr. Clark's many contributions to Newton charities, and for the betterment of this city. He said that he knew Mr. Clark would approve of the use of his former home for the purpose sought, and he was astounded to see Ward 1 Aldermen not wanting to see the estate kept as a memorial to Mr. Clark.

Alderman Tiffin opposed the granting of the petition. He read a legal opinion signed by himself and three other Aldermen who are lawyers (Colby, Fahey and Hughes) in which they asserted that according to law, "Welcome House" is a reform school, and therefore could not legally be located in a single residence zone in Newton. Tiffin quoted from the act of the Legislature passed in 1928 which granted authority to the Florence Crittenton League to conduct a non-secretarian institution "in which girls in need may receive guidance and assistance, and be so trained along moral and practical lines that they may become useful and self-supporting members of society." He said that this proves that "Welcome House" is a reform school. He quoted Bouvier's Law Dictionary and Corpus Juris to substantiate this contention. He then quoted the Newton zoning ordinance which asserted that "legally 'Welcome House' is a reform school, and is not permitted in a single residence zone."

Alderman Tiffin told of talking with Mrs. Chute, head of "Welcome House" relative to girls who reside at the institution, and their schooling, and that she stated it would not be expedient for them to attend the regular public school sessions, and that they would have to attend classes in the 12-year-old grades. He had also talked with Supt. of Schools Warren on this subject, and the latter had stated that Newton would probably have to assume responsibility for educating the 24 girls if the institution came to Newton. He said that in 1931 and 1936 the Florence Crittenton League had petitioned the City of Boston to send public school teachers to "Welcome House" at Jamaica Plain. He asked if taxpayers of Newton want to assume the educational expenses of 24 girls.

Tiffin said that real estate in Newton exempt from taxation totals $32,564,650, or 20% of the total valuation of the city, and that last year private educational institutions in Newton increased the exemption total to $258,000. Tiffin told the Aldermen that last year the Boston Community Fund had given the Florence Crittenton League about $5000 for "Welcome House," but if the home comes to Newton, the Newton Community Chest will be expected to assume this responsibility.

Alderman Walker, speaking in support of the petition, chided Chairman Rawson of the Claims and Rules Committee for ascribing to the majority of that committee a lesser degree of adherence to the oath of office they had taken. He also differed with the opinion of Tiffin and the other three lawyer-members of the Board who had asserted that "legally 'Welcome House' is a reform school. Walker argued that lawyers pay little attention to quotations from law dictionaries, and courts decide cases on facts. He said if an abutter of the Clark property would start legal proceedings in case a permit were granted allowing the home to come to that locus, the court would decide "Welcome House" is not a reform school. Walker said he thought the institution would improve the neighborhood. Alderman McKay said he had taken the question of Newton's responsibility of educating the girls at "Welcome House" up with the chairman of Newton's School Committee, and the latter had said this city would be responsible for such education. McKay said this caused him to change his vote.

Alderman Colby commented that Alderman Lockwood did not tell whether all the letters he had read commending "Welcome House" had been sent voluntarily, or whether they had been sought. He differed with Alderman Walker regarding the legal weight of definitions from law dictionaries, and said courts have to consider law encyclopedias and dictionaries. Colby read a statement in which he summarized the arguments that had been offered for and against the petition. He said that the proponents of the petition had stressed the high calibre of the people who are members of the Florence Crittenton League, but he said this was not a real argument. The other principal argument in favor of the petition, Colby said was the contention that it will prevent the Clark estate from being subdivided for house lots.

Alderman Colby referred to a number of reasons why the petition should not be granted. He said the zoning ordinance should be upheld, home owners protected, and the character of single residence zones kept in conformity with the intent of the zoning ordinance. He argued that "Welcome House" does not serve Newton, no Newton girls have ever resided in it, and the Pomroy Home for orphan girls on Hovey st., Newton, established over 50 years ago to serve this city, had but three girls in signs of his race. A campfire, lighted by Indian magic, was enjoyed by both white and red as the two leaders smoked the peace pipe of the tribe.

Pack 19 Gets Banner

Douglass B. Francis awarded the banner for the highest attendance percentage to Pack 19 of Newton Centre. Of their 38 members, 310% were present in addition to over 80 parents. Pack 2-W of Wellesley Hills placed second with 278% while close behind them was third-place Pack 7-C of West Newton with 264%.

Although Pack 10 of Waban is the largest in the world with 116 registered cubs, they were unable to win the attendance banner due to their large number. Mr. W. M. Dunkle, cubmaster, stated that it took nearly 80 cars to transport the 280 parents and members of the Waban pack to the Nobscot reservation. "We came up in parade form," said Mr. Dunkle.

Enjoy Picnic Suppers

Following the campfire, cubs and parents retired to various sections of the reservation to enjoy picnic suppers. Walks and visits to the log cabins were in order as the sun set on the opposite side of Nobscot mountain.

Over 500 cars were necessary to bring the 1800 cubs and parents to Sudbury for the annual event which closes the cubbing activities for the season. Between events fathers joined their sons in the various games of baseball which were popular during the entire afternoon.

The appearance of the Governor caused a barrage of amateur photographers to take snapshots of the memorable event.

Mr. Francis attributed the success of the Palava to the work of Henry S. C. Cummings, chairman of the Palava committee, and the other 12 members who worked with him. Harold Banks, Harold Clarlin, William V. M. Fawcett, Carter Hoyt, Russell Sanders, William T. Cass, John Duff, William Mansfield, Orville Clapper, Carol Hoffman, and William Dunkle were the other committee members.

The cub division of the Norumbega council consists of 13 packs, 77 dens, and over 600 registered cubs throughout the Newtons and Wellesleys. In the last year three new packs have been admitted to the council.

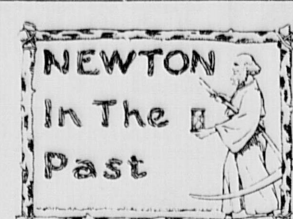

Sea Scouts Hold Bridge of Honor

Sea Scout Ship Norumbega, Vice-Flagship of Region I, held its sixth annual bridge of honor and ball on Friday evening, May 2, 1939, at the Underwood School. Music for the dancing was enjoyed by the officers and crew of the ship and of many visiting Sea Scout Ships who had come from Boston, Needham, Lowell, Andover, Foxboro, Lynn and Boston for the occasion. Members of the Ship's Committee and representatives of Norumbega Council, B. S. A., were present. The quarterdeck court which made the awards for advancement and achievement was composed of Donald McBurney Curtis, skipper of S. S. Norumbega, A. C. Blunt, Jr., President of Norumbega Council, Wayne B. Dow, Assistant Scout Executive, Miss Lois H. Dales of the Council office, Henry T. Dunker, chairman of Senior Scouting, and the following members of the ship's committee: Major L. E. Schoonmaker, U. S. A., Lt. Commander D. M. Pray, U. S. N. R.

The program started with a grand march at 8 o'clock followed by dancing until 9:30 when the bridge of honor was held. The ship was formed and the members of the Quarterdeck Court were "piped aboard" to make the following awards: Apprentice—Wesley Furbush, Stuart Freeman, Joseph Yerrard. Ordinary—James Brad, Robert Curtis, Eric Schoonmaker, Frank Morgan. Able—Richard Rennard, Joseph Gallant. Bugler—Walter Parmenter. Long cruise—Edmund Morgan, Robert Curtis, Ernest Johnson, Roger Patterson. Highest rank in Sea Scouting, comparable to a large ship in land scouting, that of Quartermaster was awarded to Bos'n Edmund Morgan, who is planning to enter Annapolis.

Other members of the Ship's Committee who attended were Ben Alrich Curtis, C. L. Morgan and R. M. Patterson, chairman. On Thursday, May 11, the Skipper Donald Curtis and four sea scouts went to Swampscott to receive the award of Vice-Flagship of Region One, which comprises the New England states. This is the second year in a row that the Norumbega has brought this honor to Newton.

It last year. From a financial angle, it argued that the city would lose considerable in tax revenues if "Welcome House" should come here, the city would have to assume the cost of educating the girls who would live in it, and the Newton Community Chest would be expected to donate toward the support of the institution. He told of conversing with Mr. Rogers of the Boston Community Fund, and of having been informed that last year "Welcome House" received about $5000 from this fund, and that it had asked for a donation of $14,000 for this year because it intended to enlarge its activities. The larger allotment asked for had been Quite a blow was inflicted on the cesspool cleaning monopoly at the Board of Health meeting on Monday, when the City Engineer announced that the "odorless excavator" carts hold only 56 cubic feet when they are supposed to hold about 75 feet, and the bills have been made out on the latter basis.

On Monday night the Board of Aldermen adopted an order appropriating $45 a month from May to November for a third watering cart in Wards 1 and 7; the residents to pay as much as the city allows for the three carts; and the appropriation of $25 a month for a watering cart at Lower Falls, the residents to pay a similar amount.

The School Committee voted last Friday evening to recommend the immediate building of two 4 room school houses; one at the east side of Shaw st., West Newton, to cost $15,000; and one at the corner of Centre and Lyman sts., Newton Centre, to cost $17,000. The lot at West Newton contains 29,000 square feet and will cost $4000. For the lot at Newton Centre, the committee considers 300 a foot a liberal price, and if it cannot be bought at that figure, the committee favors a 2 room building on Station st., about a half mile from the Mason School, to accommodate the Thompsonville children.

The hearing began with the presentation of a petition by Alderman Childs for the granting of a location to the Storage Battery Street Railway on the same streets to which a location has already been granted to the Newton Street Railway Company. On his motion a hearing was set for May 27. Alderman Childs also presented a protest against the overhead trolley wires from Col. E. H. Haskell, Levi Wade and some 30 others. Samuel L. EDWARD H.

Powers' Paragraphs

The keen, and at times somewhat bitter discussion held by the Board of Aldermen at three recent meetings on the matter of granting a permit for the use of the Clark estate at Newton by the Florence Crittenton League for "Welcome House," proved to citizens of this city that our Aldermen are not nearly all "Yes men," as some persons contend. It showed that members of the Board can and do exercise their own opinions on important matters. Personally we would like to see the Clark estate preserved if this can possibly be done. Although we believe that the majority of the Aldermen voted correctly Monday night in refusing to permit the use of the estate for the purpose desired, we would not oppose the use of the estate for some benevolent purpose which would be unobjectionable to neighbors, even though such use would make the property tax-exempt.

We were surprised to see on the docket for the meeting of the Board of Aldermen last Monday night a petition from the Auburndale Co-operative Bank asking that real estate at the northeast corner of Commonwealth ave. and Washington st. be changed from private residence to business zone. Forty-three years ago work was started on the construction of this very attractive boulevard through the centre of this city, after many property owners had contributed large areas of land. Beautiful residences were built along the avenue, and real estate totalling in value many millions of dollars, was developed on streets leading off the avenue. Commonwealth ave. and the resultant development it caused, was a vital factor in making Newton the outstanding residential community it is today. Fortunately, prior to the enactment of the Newton zoning ordinance in 1922, there was little business development along the long stretch of the avenue from the Boston line to Norumbega, except at the business district in Auburndale. A few unattractive one-story business blocks were erected near Irving st. and Chestnut ter., a couple of business structures were built near the intersection of Centre st., and a small structure was erected at the southwest corner of the avenue and Washington st. Some buildings owned by the street railway company, and a garage were built on the present city hall site, and were later razed.

From time to time efforts have been made to change the zoning along the avenue so that business might intrude. These efforts, for the most part, were made by real estate speculators who were not residents of Newton and had no concern for the future welfare of this city. They were interested only in profits for their own benefit. To the credit of past Boards of Aldermen, such efforts to pervert Commonwealth ave. from an attractive residential boulevard to a business thoroughfare, were promptly turned down. In recent years a couple of petitions were presented to the Aldermen asking for zone changes at the intersection of Commonwealth ave. and Washington st., and these petitions were included in the list of those properly refused.

We are not surprised to see outsiders attempt to deteriorate the avenue, but we are surprised to see residents of this city, officials of a semi-public institution, men who ought to be conversant with the history of Commonwealth ave., and the steadfast protection of Newton's most beautiful thoroughfare by various Boards of Aldermen over a long period of years, engaging in another attempt to deteriorate the avenue. If the intersection at Washington st. were changed into a business district, our Board of Aldermen could not consistently refuse similar zoning changes at the intersections of Centre and Walnut sts. And with business sections established at these places, it would not be long before the entire stretch of the avenue would be littered with business zones. There is little doubt in our mind but that the Board of Aldermen will speedily and by a large majority refuse the petition of the Auburndale Co-operative Bank. With the publicity which has been given recently to the protection of Newton's zoning ordinance as a result of the controversy over "Welcome House," the action of the Auburndale bank officials in presenting such a petition at this time, seems to us to show very poor judgment on their part.

The petitioners may argue that they have a financial interest in the land which they desired changed from residence to business zone, that it is difficult to sell it for residential purposes, or that it may be more profitable to sell it for business purposes. A number of attractive residences have been built in that vicinity in the past few years, and the land in question can be sold for residential purposes, if and when economic conditions in the U. S. A. improve. In the meantime the Auburndale Co-operative Bank is not the only taxpayer which is paying taxes on vacant land. Many more of us are in the same predicament. But, we are not asking to have Newton's zoning ordinance changed. There are still plenty of vacant stores at Auburndale and West Newton. And the merchants doing business in these two villages will gladly provide free delivery to persons residing in the vicinity of Commonwealth ave. and Washington st.

Because of the increasing tax rate in Newton, we are in agreement with those members of the Board of Aldermen who oppose further land takings, unless such takings are necessary. We do, however, believe that the city should take the lot of land adjoining the Stearns School at Nonantum. We are interested to observe that the School Committee has not gone on record as favoring this taking. We believe that the School Committee would strongly oppose a large, unsightly warehouse being built within 50 feet of the Angier, Weeks, Bigelow or other schools in this city.

ONE THING and ANOTHER

By L. D. G. Bentley

To the Ladies of Newton!

At last the truth has been revealed. No more need we to guess why Newton is preeminent. As rivals will confess: Why beauty, charm and everything that makes a city glow. Is Newton's right, superlative. And will continue so! The census figures tell it all, (Police listing never fails) The women total thousands more Than ordinary males.

Glad to be of Help

Up to this time, I have refrained from taking sides in the matter of World's Fairs. With two such important cities of our country striving that they may impress the universe, I would rather have the men in uniform speak for themselves because they would be far more interesting.

Late Sleeper's Soliloquy

Now that it's really spring we don't have to rely on the alarm clock or somebody's early bathing or shaving preparations to wake us for breakfast. I'm not referring either to the light sleeper who prowls around the house when others are trying to tear off a few more winks.

Only those who live in industrial places know what an early morning whistle means, but mail and other orders have been such that now and then there isn't any steam to blow. We're back now on nature's schedule. The birds are keeping track of the time for us. They're a good deal more romantic than the neighbor who bangs his garage door just at sunrise, although I suppose one is really as dumb as the other.

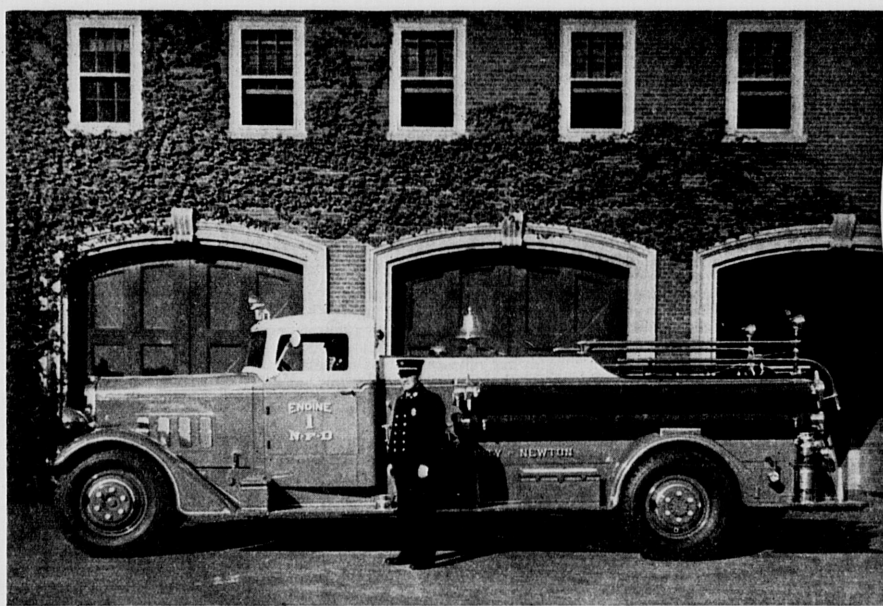

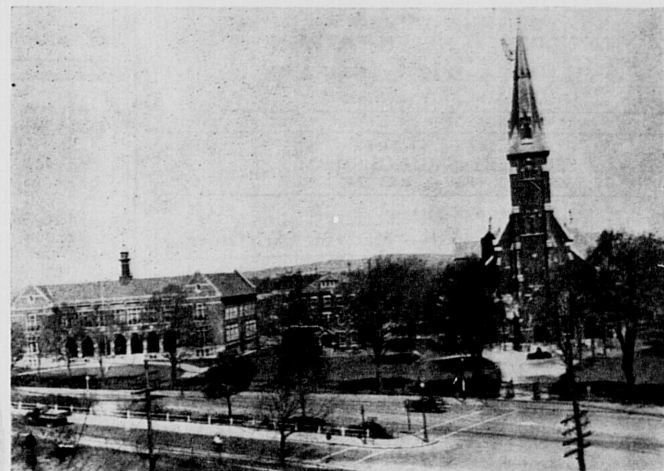

Making It Safe for Firemen

If I had the time and opportunity I should like to drop into a number of fire stations and interview the firemen on the matter of brass sliding poles. I would ask them what they thought of the observation of a public safety official in a midwestern city that if there weren't these poles there would be less danger of firemen getting hurt. I wonder what their comments would be to that same dignitary's assertion, "The fire-fighters as a rule are only half awake when they slide down it."

There are too many experts bobbing up in every quarter these days to tell other people how to perform their tasks and run their business. Usually they insist they have made a

Art in Taxation

The daintiest of all misuses in the mail that has lately reached my desk is the Newton poll tax bill. I must say it wasn't always so appealing. Usually it had an ugly appearance. But a change has come—happily, I am sure. Not only is the square envelope used in place of the sternly commercial stationery, but there is the delicate tint of light blue that makes the paper so distinctive. It is far different from the unartistic document of bygone years. Nor has the price been raised. It is still $2 with 1939 embellishments. There may be those who continue to grumble over paying a poll tax. To me it's pleasantly a pleasure in pastel.

BEMIS—LONG

Miss Elizabeth Plateau Long, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Clifton Long, Jr., of Hartford, Conn., became the bride of Judson Bemis, son of Mrs. A. Farwell Bemis of Old Orchard rd., Chestnut Hill, on Saturday afternoon, May 13. The ceremony took place in the Asylum Hill Church, Hartford, at 4 o'clock and was performed by Rev. Warren Archibald and Rev. David McKelth. Yellow madonna lilies and cabbott ferns decorated the church.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, wore a gown of antique rose point lace over yellow satin. Her veil of pale yellow tulle fell in cascades from a wreath of dull gold leaves and she carried a bouquet of yellow orchids. Mrs. Bruce Crane of Dalton, Mrs. Pomeroy Day of Hartford, sisters of the bride, and Mrs. Douglass Hall of New York were the matrons of honor. They wore gowns of chartreuse marquisette with wreaths of gold leaves in their hair and carried bouquets of yellow madonna lilies. Five Generations Of Newton Family

An unusual family photograph is printed in this issue of the GRAPHIC: five generations of a Newton family. In the photograph are Mrs. Mary Jane Smith, her daughter, Mrs. Emma J. Sanger, and her granddaughter, Mrs. Alice F. Benyon, all of 50 Lothrop st., Newtonville. Mrs. Smith's great-granddaughter, Mrs. Gertrude Benyon Galfard of Lexington, and Mrs. Benyon's two great-grandchildren, Charles and Ruth Galfard.

Mrs. Smith was born in Waltham, 97 years ago, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Bemis. Her mother died when she was a baby. She is the widow of Henry Smith who died many years ago. Mrs. Smith has resided in Newton and Newtonville for about 50 years, making her home with her daughter, Mrs. Emma J. Sanger. Mrs. Sanger, who is 78 years of age, is the widow of Frank H. Sanger, who many years ago conducted a wood-working shop on Morse st. Her daughter, Mrs. Alice F. Benyon is 58. She is the widow of Charles Benyon, formerly City Forester of Newton. Mrs. Benyon's daughter, the former Gertrude Benyon, is 30. She is the wife of Peter Galfard. Her son, Charles, is 5; and her daughter, Ruth Annie, is 3. Mrs. Smith has retained her faculties to a remarkable degree, and still enjoys good health.

Kiwanis Club

Past Presidents' Day was celebrated at the Tuesday meeting of the club. Four of the club's past presidents, Dr. F. H. Paul, Ernest Gibson, Wm. F. White and A. C. Bellinger were honored guests of the day. Each spoke of the benefits and pleasure received from the association with Kiwanis.

President Walter Finlay awarded tokens to several of the members for perfect attendance. Past President Dr. F. H. Paul and Wm. S. Wagner have each completed thirteen years of perfect attendance. International Trustee James P. Gallagher and Charles A. Barrows have a record of eleven years perfect attendance. L. Frank Perkins and President Walter Finlay have ten and five years perfect attendance. Thomas L. Aiken with one year perfect attendance intends to increase this as the years go on. Much honor belongs to these members for this record and the example set.

Several members of the club are working on committees to prepare the program and activities for the International Kiwanis Convention to be held in Boston this June.

Rotary Club

Frank Clark, chairman of the Boy's Work Committee, presented the annual Rotary Scholarship for 1939.

"Hal" Choate was responsible for a very interesting and different meeting. Inspector Kirby of the Boston Police Department and head of the Bureau of Information and Records, gave an illustrated talk that will remain in our minds for a long time. His first pictures were of the office of the Boston Police Department. From there, he took his audience through the various interesting departments including the teletype by which messages can be sent at one time to approximately twelve states in addition to the thirty or forty towns and cities in Massachusetts. In addition, he explained the two-way telephone service between the "prowl cars" and the headquarters in Boston whereby an officer in the car can pick up his phone and make a connection through the switchboard to not only any other car or department, but could even call Europe or his own home if desired.

The information on finger print records, and the great importance of all photography of every aspect of a crime including the victims, etc., was exceedingly well presented. The use of a fluoroscope to assist in locating hidden jewels on the person of a thief or suspect was a new development. The assistance given by the Department to the Boston Fire Department in making accurate pictures of Arson cases has apparently been of real value.

Inspector Kirby emphasized the importance of keeping rather close watch of younger children between the time they get out of school in the afternoon and the time for them to be home in bed. A number of sad cases have been investigated, and most of them could have been prevented if parents had been a little more careful.

Did you ever hear of getting married to cut down the cost of your dog's license? Well, it worked in Philadelphia in the early days. In 1772 dogs were first taxed in Philadelphia. Imagine going fishing and finding a dog three miles from shore. That's just what two residents of Lindenhurst, N. J., did a few years ago. They were fishing fully three miles off shore when suddenly they heard a faint yapping. Hauling in their lines they investigated and rescued a six-months old Alredale pup which they reasoned must have fallen overboard from another boat.

The dog was exhausted but quickly revived and now has a happy home with one of the fishermen.

Planting

IN DIGGING your ground, go deep. The aeration and breaking up is of inestimable value to your garden. Proper preparation of the soil means deep-rooted plants. Do not, however, go below the good soil level.

THE SOIL IS READY to work if it will crumble when squeezed in the hand. Much harm is done by working the soil which is wet and, the hand is the best test we know.

THE TIME to transplant seedlings is when they have made their first pair of true leaves. The first leaves are the pair of seed leaves which are entirely different from the true leaf.

THE PROPER SPACING of your plants is absolutely necessary to have size and quality. The pulling out of seedlings seems wasteful but a few properly spaced will give far better results than several times their number too thickly planted.

WITH ROCK gardens, avoid making it look like an exhibition area. The most attractive rock gardens are natural to the extreme and look as though they "just happened."

IN PLANTING shrubs, make the hole twice the size necessary to hole the roots spread out, also plant just a little lower in the foreground than it was in its original position.

JOIN YOUR local garden club. People who have an interest in the same things are always pleasant company.

PROPER FOUNDATION planting is very important for it can make the small house look larger and soften the bigness of the large house.

IN THINNING OUT plants do so in several thinnings. If plants are to be several inches apart, there should be two or three thinnings to get the desired result. Young plants cannot stand too severe thinning.

Clergymen Gather Sunday In West Newton Church

Many clergymen from eastern Massachusetts will be in West Newton this Sunday evening to hear the unusual service of worship which is used by Dr. Boynton Merrill at the Second Church in Newton. The service, seldom used in a church of the non-liturgical tradition, will begin at 8 o'clock in the evening and will be a repetition of the regular morning worship.

Dr. John Edgar Park, President of Wheaton College, inaugurated this manner of worship nearly 25 years ago. The service has been only slightly altered by the present minister of the church, Dr. Boynton Merrill.

Women's Club Activities

Edited by EMMA D. COOLIDGE

What Are The Juniors Doing?

This question was answered effectively by reports given at the Biennial Council Meeting held at San Francisco during the past week, May 8, through the 13th. "What do clubwomen do besides get together and gossip or put up useless signs, etc.?" was asked two Junior clubwomen and amazement was written on the face of the questioner when told that the Junior members of the General Federation of Women's Clubs are doing throughout the nation.

Here are a few of the answers. A Junior Club, of Carthage, Missouri, with a membership of 16, raised $2,000 to purchase two "iron lungs" for a Missouri hospital. Juniors of Salem, Oregon, purchased a pair of glasses each month for some poor child who needs them. During the cancer drive in Montana, Anaconda Juniors contributed $117 as their share. In Missoula, Montana, the major project of the Juniors has been the contribution of funds to the nursery school at the State University, the conducting of kindergartens, and the sponsoring of State Child Health Day.

The Laconia Club, a thriving group of Junior clubwomen in New Hampshire, sold poinsettias to raise money for prevention of tuberculosis. Juniors of Geneva, Nebraska, held a carnival using the money they earned for the improvement of the city park. Another club that takes its civic responsibility seriously is the Junior Club of Tampa, Florida, which has launched an extensive campaign for Public Safety.

Approximately $500 was raised by the Juniors of Raleigh, North Carolina, which is being used in nursery school work, and for the blind. This money was earned through a bridge tournament, a dance, a dinner, presentation of a marionette and fashion show, and by taking orders for pictures for a photographer. Activities of Indiana Juniors include presentation of programs on conservation of youth, stressing character building, and also public welfare work with charitable organizations.

These are just samples. The work of young clubwomen today is a definite credit to youth and to women, and their achievement through organization is growing.

In Massachusetts, the State Juniors two years ago raised about $1,200.00 which was used for Talking Books for the Blind. This was raised by their delightful Charity Ball; and last year's Ball netted them over $800.00 which they used to send needy children to health camps. Tomorrow evening at Swampscott they will consider their next Project, which Miss Josephine Bruno, a member of the Junior League of the Women's Italian Club of Boston, will present to them for vote. She outlined it at the April meeting of the Juniors, as a plan for a Summer School where children suffering from cardiac heart ailment could be cared for and instructed. Classrooms will be donated by Radcliffe College, and Juniors could become permanent sponsors of this assistance to children who lost as many as 93 days from school last year because of this weakness, at a cost of about $8.00 per child; or for 100 such children it would cost $800.00, which would be the goal set by the Project.

To list the work of individual Junior Clubs in Massachusetts would be lengthy indeed, but in general it has consisted of much charity work. Christmas and Thanksgiving baskets supplied to needy families, Christmas presents—the Rockport Juniors raised over $1,200.00 for this purpose last year—warm clothing, toys, gay scrapbooks for children in hospitals, gifts to the blind, Somerset Juniors gave a $50.00 scholarship to a high school girl, gifts of money to charitable institutions and hospitals, milk funds, and even active in hurricane repair work, and in a library service, taking books weekly to shut-ins, are among their accomplishments.

Musical Program For State Meeting

Music will have an important place on the program for the Annual Meeting of the State Federation at Swampscott, during the three days' sessions, Monday, May 22, through Wednesday morning, the 24th. The plans for this varied presentation for the pleasure of the State clubwomen have been arranged by the Music chairman, Mrs. J. Arthur Snyder. On Monday morning Evelyn Cornett, soprano, and Paul Simpson, baritone, will be accompanied by Ruth Spencer. The Ninth District Chorus, with Robert D. King director, will present a program on Monday afternoon, and in the evening the Metropolitan Chorus of one hundred and twenty men will sing with Roy Harlow conductor, and Earl Wedner accompanist.

Tuesday morning will bring Gertrude Ehrhart, soprano; Dorothy George, contralto; and Leo Litvin, accompanist. In the afternoon the Newton Highlands Glee Club, Florence Ginn Hale conductor, will give a program. Reception music will be by the Baldwin Trio, Dorothy Rosenberg, violin; Adelaide Hubbard, cello; and Lillian A. Rosen, piano. This is the gala evening of the Convention, Governor's Night, and three thousand clubwomen are expected to hear a message from Governor Saltonstall, and music by Louise Cane, harp; Frances Hendrickson, violin; and Mildred Spiegel, piano. Songs will be given by Richard Hale, baritone, and Martha Atwood, soprano.

Wednesday morning the Walden Male Quartette will entertain. Mrs. Snyder has asked that all clubwomen learn the words of the State Song; and Mrs. Salide Orr Dunbar, General Federation president, urges them to know all the words of the "Star Spangled Banner." During the Conference, Assembly singing will be led by Mrs. Mabel Barstow, official song leader of the Federation.

Women Called Good Resisters To Propaganda

Film Actor Melvyn Douglas has asserted before nearly three thousand clubwomen that "women can resist propaganda—and better than men." This was said at a Symposium on this question before the Council Meeting of the General Federation of Women's Clubs held last Thursday morning, May 11, in the War Memorial Opera House where all sessions of the Convention were held—at San Francisco, California. And not only did these delegates from every State in the Union, from Alaska and Hawaii—and visiting clubwomen—hear this statement, but other hundreds of women throughout the country listening in to the coast to coast broadcast heard this motion picture star go on record with this courageous declaration.

Three other snappy speakers contributed to this interesting discussion. Mrs. Anna Steese Richardson, director of the Consumer division of the Woman's Home Companion, New York City; Dr. Chester H. Rowell, publicist-editor of San Francisco; and Mrs. Gladys M. Graham, member of the Institute for Propaganda Analysis of Los Angeles.

"You can't fool all of the women all of the time," Mrs. Richardson proved in discussing her topic, although she dealt with the desirable kind of propaganda, advertising and campaigns, which had resulted—because "women did fall for them"—in woman's suffrage, better child health facilities, improved education, and pure food laws, in which women had been its most adept users of propaganda.

Dr. Rowell urged women to continue to be supercritical of all statements on international affairs, and to "adopt the Missouri State slogan of 'Show Me!'"

Mrs. Graham, student of propaganda measures, termed its resistance an achievement for both men and women, and warned them to recognize it by asking two questions: first, what is it against or for; and second, what does it fail to emphasize? In other words, what is the motive back of someone's being against or for the measure; and where is the authority for a statement, or lack of statement; and who is the authority, or, as Mrs. Graham tersely expressed this: "Says Who?" and "Why?"

All four speakers agreed that there was plenty of propaganda to resist, and expressed the hope that it could be resisted.

To return to the statements of Film Actor Douglas, who said such delightful things that we like to dwell upon his rare discernment, Mr. Douglas cited the reputation women always have had for intuitive powers of knowing where there is, or not, integrity and trustworthiness, and suggested there must be "some substance" behind so strong a tradition.

He said there were more women than men in peace societies, in the Institute for Propaganda Analysis, the Consumers Union, and other organizations bent on getting at the truth, and he concluded that women, given opportunity to examine the truth, know how to recognize it.

Motion Pictures and Radio

Motion pictures and radio programs took the spotlight for discussion and action in the Education department presentation of Thursday afternoon, also May 11. "Discrimination in selection of both film and radio program" was the slogan urged for 1939-40.

Motion pictures that interpret the ideals of democracy at their best are the aim of the Federation, according to Mrs. Arretus F. Burt of St. Louis, Mo., chairman of the Motion Picture department. Mrs. Thomas G. Winter, former president of the Federation, and director of Community Service, Motion Picture Producers and Distributors of America, Inc., recommended better selection of pictures and an understanding of the art of the cinema for its full appreciation by youth and adult.

Radio programs that will be above parental criticism and acceptable to children is the aim of the radio industry, according to Miss Margaret Cuthbert, director of Women's Activities of the National Broadcasting Company. Programs must be largely commercial to pay the way of radio, she said, but must be delicately balanced among education, entertainment, and cultural design to give the best results in youth and adult education. She asked the Federation to continue to co-operate in providing a central committee to enable agencies to try out their programs before putting them on the air.

Government Economy Advocated

On State Presidents' Night, Wednesday, May 10, Dr. Paul F. Cadman, professor of Economics at the University of California at Berkeley, was the principal speaker, taking for his subject "The Economics of Welfare." Dr. Cadman has been professor for thirteen years; was executive manager of the San Francisco Stock Exchange for three years; obtained his doctor of laws degree from the University of Paris; and is now president of the American Research Foundation. In this the major address of the Convention, Dr. Cadman condemned the federal policy of spending and increased taxation, and asked the delegates to demand economy of government programs. "Without solvent enterprise and a solvent government, security is a myth," he said, "and we must hold to a modern system where enterprise can meet its cost of production and where enterprise can produce a surplus. Then public welfare, a higher standard of living, a minimum of governmental charity, and national morale will be insured."

Growth in Membership

Reports were made the first day of the Council Meeting showing a gain of 34,000 in membership for 1938-1939 with the largest number of individual federated clubwomen living in the State of Massachusetts—42,075 of them. Iowa has the greatest number of federated clubs with 592. From one organization in 1890 the Federation of Women's Clubs has grown to 14,500 clubs in 1939.

Resolutions Presented

Twelve Resolutions presented to the Convention were as follows:

1. Endorsement of the principle of flexibility in the administration of foreign policy;
2. Commendation of participation of this government in the Inter-Governmental Committee on Political Refugees;
3. Promotion of the celebration of citizenship day as a recognition of youth coming into its majority;
4. Endorsement of the first four objectives of the National Health Program including a national and state program for the expansion of public health, maternal and child health services, hospital and clinic facilities and medical services for medically needy persons;

6. Proposal that the Redwood Mountain Grove of Big Trees be acquired through purchase by the United States government for national park purposes;

federal aid for education without Federal control;
9. Endorsement of the seven point program outlined by the Public Safety Committee of the General Federation;
10. Endorsement of principle of the child labor provisions of the Fair Labor Standards Act;
11. Support of the extension of protective child welfare services into every community, including aid to dependent children;
12. Encouragement of the teaching of Spanish in schools and colleges as a means of promoting a better understanding between the Americas.

The endorsement of the first Resolution coming from the floor left no doubt as to the desire of the club-women to give to the President of the United States, and not to Congress, the right to determine the foreign policy of the United States. This stand of American women is viewed as of special significance when the scope of the President's power and Neutrality Legislation is now before Congress.

The Resolution perhaps most contested, but finally passed by a two-to-one vote, was one endorsing the objectives of the National Health program and urging favorable consideration by the 76th United States Congress to provide through legislation "for expansion of public health and maternal and child health services; hospital, clinic and other institutional facilities; medical services for medically needy persons; and general programs of medical care developed by the individual States in co-operation with the medical professions and other professional groups according to their respective needs." It was this last "programs of medical care" that received most discussion due to lack of definition between voluntary and compulsory health plans.

In connection with the controversy over the Soldiers' Relief Department, Mayor Childs announced on Wednesday that the Soldiers' Relief Department had ceased giving relief to the veteran who was mentioned by Alderman McCabe at two meetings of the Board of Aldermen, as having been the person whom an employee of the Soldiers' Relief Department had attempted to incarcerate in the mental ward of a veterans' hospital at Chelsea, and in whose home a keeper was placed. The Mayor stated that as a result of a special investigation of this case, Director Dungan of the Soldiers' Relief Department had learned that this relief recipient owned and operated an automobile, and conducted a millinery store while receiving relief.

Action on Stearns Land Postponed

Action on the taking of the lot of land adjoining the Stearns School at Nonantum was again deferred at the meeting of the Board of Aldermen last Monday night. The Aldermen have been manifesting a willingness to take this land, but have been waiting to hear from the Playground Commission. At the meeting on May 1 a recommendation was received from Mayor Childs, asking that the land be taken by the city for recreation and community purposes. The Board at that meeting took adverse action on that particular recommendation because, as Alderman McKay explained, it would commit the city to build an unneeded community house on the property. It was suggested that the Mayor make another recommendation, asking that the lot of land be taken for recreation purposes, which he did. Nonantum residents have urged that the city take this lot of land so that a large warehouse will not be built on it by a wholesale paper company. The warehouse, if built, would be only 42 feet from the Stearns School. The matter was held in committee pending a communication from the Playground Commission.

Aldermen Give $100.00 More For May 30

At the meeting of the Board of Aldermen on Monday night it was voted to appropriate $100 additional for Memorial Day expenses on recommendation of Mayor Childs. In his budget estimates the Mayor had asked for $500 to defray Memorial Day expenses, and the Aldermen, in line with their economy attempts had cut this figure to $400; the savings supposedly to be made by hiring fewer bands for the parade. The Newton Veterans Council wrote a letter which stated that $500 will be needed for proper observances of the day.

Aldermen Hoffman and Inches speaking as veterans, opposed the additional amount, saying that the veterans should share in the efforts to cut down unnecessary municipal expenses. Alderman Schipper said that $400 would suffice if expenses for bands will be lessened. Twelve of the Aldermen voted in favor of appropriating the extra $100, and nine opposed the additional appropriation.

Newton Hospital Accident Service

On Monday the Newton Hospital announced that arrangements have been completed so that medical aid from the hospital can be speeded to scenes of accidents in Newton when any emergency arises that necessitates such aid. Police will go to the hospital in a cruising car and pick up the resident physician to rush him to the locus of an accident or drowning, if they deem this necessary or expedient. This co-operation of the hospital with the police in accident cases resulted from protests made last winter when efforts to resuscitate a child drowned in the Charles River were transferred from the scene of the drowning to the hospital.

Looking for a Bargain? Don't Pass this BUY!

The model illustrated is the Buick Special model 41 four-door touring sedan $996 delivered at Flint, Mich.*

WHAT we're concerned about is simply this: Lest you admire the size and swiftness and smartness of this trim Buick—and mistakenly decide it's a car you can't afford.

Lest you figure, since it's an eight and an eight of a hundred-and-thence some horsepower, it might cost more to run than you'd like to pay.

Lest you listen to all you hear about its wondrous comfort, and the smoothness of its BuicOil ride—and class it as luxury beyond your reach.

All of which, of course, is wrong!

This is an eight—a valve-in-head straight-eight—but it's also a Dynaflash eight, and it gets more good out of every drop of gasoline.

Mileage figures that owners report to us even beat some of the sixes!

And it's certainly a luxurious carriage to ride in—not only in size and comfort but in the completeness of its equipment. Every model has two horns, two sun-visors, two windshield wipers, plenty of ash receivers, an automatic electric lighter—not to mention automatic choke, Handishift transmission and the Flash-Way direction signal.

Even so—the list prices still run less than a year ago—less than some sixes—and probably considerably less than you think!

$894 and up
delivered at Flint, Mich.

*Prices subject to change without notice. State and local taxes (if any), optional equipment and accessories—extra.

We'd hate to have you miss out on a whale of a lot of fun simply because you didn't have the whole story. So—since your Buick dealer doesn't know how to reach you—why don't you call on him?

Don't worry about his pressing you to buy! When you see how little this honey costs—and how much it does for that little—you'll be pressing him to hurry delivery!

"Better buy Buick!"

School Department Will Save $38,930 In Salaries During Next School Year

Vacancies In Teaching Staff Not To Be Filled—Cut Substitutes' Pay

At the meeting of the School Committee on Monday night a report was submitted by Supt. of Schools Warren which showed that the school department will save $38,930 during the next school year. This sum will be saved by not filling 15 vacancies that will occur this year because of the retirement and resignations of teachers; by reducing the pay of substitute teachers; and by having some of the principals assume the direction of other schools in addition to their present duties. The new Franklin School will be under the direction of Elmer Ellsworth, who also has charge of the Davis School. Carlton Ray of the Angier School at Waban, will also have charge of the Pierce School at West Newton. G. Winthrop Brainerd of the Horace Mann School, will also serve as principal of the Stearns School at Nonantum. The present principal of the Stearns School, Kenelm Winslow, will retire this June. Helen Thompson will be principal of both the Cabot and Claffin Schools at Newtonville. Annie Pottle, principal of the Underwood School, Newton, will also be principal of the new school on Pearl st.

Among positions abolished are those of building assistants in three grade schools, a building assistant in one of the junior high schools, and that of the curator in the library of teaching aids. The raising of the age at which children will be admitted to kindergartens will eliminate the need of two sessions in some kindergartens, and the higher salaries paid to kindergartens who taught two sessions. Substitute teachers' pay will be reduced $1 per day. Heretofore they have received $5 per day in grade schools and $6 per day in the secondary schools, with $1 per day additional after 10 days of consecutive service.

The use of the high school gymnasium for the Community Chest dinner on November 9 was granted. Supt. Warren reported that it cost $60 to refinish the gymnasium floor after the last dinner of the Community Chest. He said that it will cost $75 to refinish the floor of the gymnasium at the Higginson School because of the use of the gymnasium for dances held under the auspices of "Newton Circle." The use of the baseball diamond at the high school athletic field in June and July was granted to the junior American Legion Baseball team, subject to the approval of the Playground Commission.

After leaving college he taught at the Newton Vocational School, and in 1919 he was made State Supervisor of industrial education in Delaware.

Dogs Bite Goats At West Newton

Biting dogs in this city, instead of confining their attacks to humans last week, also did some chewing on goats. An Irish setter and a German shepherd dog, owners unknown, last Friday attacked and bit two goats owned by Frank Caruso of 318 River st., West Newton. The dogs were driven off by Mrs. A. Leslie Moriarty, but not before they had severely injured the goats.

Taxpayers Assn. Will Make Study Of Municipal Gov.

The bi-weekly meeting of the Executive Committee of the Newton Taxpayers' Association, Inc., was held Tuesday evening, May 23rd, with practically a full attendance of the large city-wide committees.

Preliminary reports of sub-committees sponsoring studies of certain civic activities recently authorized, substantiated the position taken by the Directors of the Newton Taxpayers' Association, Inc., that although Newton is fortunate in having a better municipal government than most cities of her size, there are certain improvements that may be made with large resultant economies.

Pursuing their policy of careful analysis and studies by experts trained in the operation of municipal government, the Executives of the Newton Taxpayers' Association, Inc., authorize a study of a third phase of City management, and definite proposals and recommendations will be made to the civic authorities as soon as these studies are completed.

Court Awards McGuinness $15,397; Retrial Denied City

Judge Collins Reduces Award For Land City Took By 23 Per Cent

Judge Walter Collins of the Superior Court last week awarded to Mrs. Esther McGuinness of Parker ter., Newton Centre, $15,397 for land taken by the City of Newton for school and playground purposes at Oak Hill. In conjunction with areas of land which were donated by abutting property owners, the city took about 3 acres of land from the former Higgins property to which Mrs. McGuinness was the heir. This land was swampy and of little or no value until some years ago the city lowered and widened South Meadow Brook and drained the area. It was alleged by city officials that several years ago the Higgins heirs, in conjunction with other owners of properties in that neighborhood, agreed to donate the land to the city for the proposed school and playground sites for Oak Hill, but there was no written agreement. A couple of years ago the city built a street adjoining the Higgins land, and other properties nearby, and made the mistake of assessing betterments, after having awarded no damages for the land which had been taken.

Mrs. McGuinness instituted a suit against the city, asking $60,000 for the land taken, although the whole property was assessed for only $3500. The suit was tried some months ago in the Middlesex Superior Court. The city had real estate experts and Chairman Murphy of the Board of Assessors testified that the land taken had but a nominal value. Mr. Murphy testified that it was worth only $650. Testifying for Mrs. McGuinness was a horticultural expert, was an employee of the Mass. State College Field Station at Waltham. He told the court that there were 19,000 cubic yards of peat in the land in question, and that this peat had a value of $1 a cubic yard. The jury awarded $20,044 to Mrs. McGuinness. City Solicitor Bartlett filed a motion asking that the award be set aside and a new trial ordered. Judge Collins declined to order a new trial, and reduced the award about 23 per cent, to $15,397. City Solicitor Bartlett has filed exceptions, and it is believed will take the case to the Supreme Court.

A spitz dog owned by Santy DePuechio of 95a Elm st., West Newton bit five girl pupils of the Levi Warren School as they were engaged in the athletic period in the school yard on Tuesday morning. He got rough, however, and took nips at Phyllis Howland, 76 Holman st.; Margaret McBride, 297 Lexington st.; Judy Cody, 118 Upland rd.; Marion Fulton, 55 Hillside ave.; Caroline Castagnino, 13 Smith court. The dog was held until Patrolmen Taffe and Tobin took it to police headquarters. Its ownership was determined by the license number on its tag, and Serg. Leehan notified DePuechio to restrain the animal. The dog was examined by Dr. Routelle, city veterinarian, and found not to have rabies.

Larceny Charge Against Veteran Who Received Aid

As one result of the controversy over alleged abuses in connection with the Soldiers' Relief Department of Newton, a complaint charging larceny was issued by Judge Allen in the Newton court on Wednesday against Paul Wonderley of Hopkinton. The complainant was Edward Duncan, director of Soldiers' Relief for Newton. He alleges that Wonderley, formerly a resident of Newton, obtained $1500 from this city by false pretences. Wonderley is a widower and the father of three children. He is the man allegedly referred to by Alderman McCabe as the veteran whom an investigator of the Newton Soldiers' Relief Department (Continued on page 2)

Will Take Busses Off Walnut Street

With the approval of Mayor Childs, Supt. of Schools Warren and City Solicitor Bartlett, following a suggestion by Lieut. Moan of the traffic bureau of the Newton police, 12 Middlesex & Boston busses, which have impeded traffic near Newton High school each school day afternoon, will, in the future, park on Elm rd. while waiting for school pupils between 2:15 and 2:40. Similar suggestions were made in the past, but because Elm rd. is closed to traffic during school hours, there was reluctance in opening it for the busses, because this would technically be a violation of the traffic ordinance pertaining to this street. Under the new arrangement, the busses will enter Elm rd. from Lowell ave., and after they have entered an employee of the M. & B. will replace the wooden horses which bar the street.

Testimonial To Rev. G. Vaughan Shedd and Family

Members of the First Methodist Episcopal Church of Newton Upper Falls, and residents of that village gathered at the church on Monday evening, May 22nd, to honor Rev. G. Vaughan Shedd and Mrs. Shedd, and their family. For the past 10 1/2 years Rev. Shedd has been pastor of the Upper Falls church, and he has accepted a call to a church in Melrose. The altar of the church was decorated with palms and Spring flowers.

The program opened with an organ prelude by Miss Margaret Hartshorn, followed by selections by the church choir, and a baritone solo by Allan Fraser. Harp solos were played by Miss Millison Shedd. Oscar E. Nutter, in behalf of the parishioners and members of the community, presented to Mrs. Shedd a beautiful gold wrist-watch and bracelet, and a bouquet of Ophelia roses, in appreciation of her services as a pastor's wife, and as a comrade and comforter to any one in the community who needed help and cheer. Mr. Nutter then presented to Rev. G. Vaughan Shedd a gold watch and chain in behalf of the parish and his many friends as a token of appreciation of his 10 1/2 years' service to the parish and any one in the community, regardless of race or creed, whom he could serve.

Mr. Shedd responded by saying that: "Every time I look at this watch, I will look at Newton Upper Falls, and we are leaving the community praying for God's blessing on Newton Upper Falls and you." A reception followed the presentations, at which Rev. and Mrs. Shedd their daughter, Millison, and their two sons, G. Vaughan Shedd, Jr., and Mark, received nearly 400 guests. Refreshments were served in the parish hall. The party was sponsored by the Ladies' Aid Society, the Wesley Bible Class, and all the organizations. A group of young ladies of the church served as ushers. A poem, dedicated to Rev. Mr. Shedd, and written by Miss Ethel Richardson of Wellesley, a member of the church, was read.

Commander Boyd has requested that residents of Newton desiring to donate flowers, leave them at any fire station in the city on Monday, May 29, during the afternoon or early evening. Among those assisting in the decoration of graves will be members of the Sons of Union Veterans of the Civil War, and members of the Spanish War Veterans, American Legion, V. F. W., and Disabled Veterans.

On Sunday, May 28th, a memorial service will be conducted by Rev. Randolph Merrill at Central Congregational Church, Newtonville, at 11 a. m. Graves in some out-of-town cemeteries will also be decorated on this day, and in cemeteries adjoining Newton, details will decorate the graves on Memorial Day morning.

The Memorial Day parade will form at 2 p. m. at the Engine I Fire Station, Washington st. and Centre ave., Newton. Commanders of various organizations will report to J. Edward Theriault, Adjutant General; staff members and associate members of Charles Ward Post, G. A. R. will report to John B. Scarlett, Chief of Staff. The parade will start at 2:15. Larceny Charge Against Veteran Who Received Aid wrongly attempted to have placed in a mental ward at a veterans' hospital, and whose daughter was roughly treated by a keeper who was assigned to Wonderley's home, while the latter was at the hospital.

Following Alderman McCabe's charge about Wonderley's mistreatment, and the Alderman's charges that an alleged stodge of the Mayor's has been receiving large sums of money as aid during the last 16 months from the Soldiers' Relief Department, Mayor Childs ordered Patrolman Charles Jenkins of the Newton police to do investigating in connection with the Soldiers' Relief Department. At the hearing in the Newton court on Wednesday in connection with the issuance of a complaint against Wonderley, among those who appeared before Judge Allen were Patrolman Jenkins, City Solicitor Bartlett, Director Dungan of the Relief Department, and Harold Haffey, who has been serving as an investigator for the Soldiers' Relief Department. It is alleged that while Wonderley was receiving aid from the city, he owned and operated an automobile, and also part of the time was conducting a business. Judge Allen set June 5 as the date on which Wonderley will be arraigned in the Newton court.

Larkin Goes To Jail For 30 Days

Henry J. Larkin, 34, formerly of Dedham st., Oak Hill, was sentenced by Judge Gray in the Middlesex Superior court on Thursday to serve 30 days in Billerica prison for failing to comply with an order issued by that judge last year. Larkin had kept two dogs at his home in Oak Hill, and after the animals had bitten a neighbor's child and other persons, and he had ignored several warnings from Newton police to keep the dogs restrained, he was summoned into the Newton court on November 27, 1937, and fined $10. He appealed the case, but when it was heard before Judge Gray in the Superior court early last year, Larkin was given a suspended 30 days' sentence and ordered to get rid of the dogs.

Larkin removed from Oak Hill, avoiding a capias that had been issued for his arrest after it was learned that he had not complied with the order of the judge. Recently Newton police learned that he was living in Natick, and still had the dogs. Inspector Hammett went to Natick Wednesday night and arrested Larkin.

Leniency For Two Guilty of Arson

Mrs. Emanuele Capobianco of 209 Arlington st., Watertown, owner of a new house on Fernwood rd., West Newton, where an incendiary fire occurred on the night of October 21, 1938, pleaded guilty in the Middlesex Superior Court on Tuesday to a charge of procuring a person to burn a building. Judge Gray placed her case on file. Mario Pelargonio, 42, of the same address as the woman, pleaded guilty to arson. Judge Gray placed him on probation for two years. Pelargonio's left leg was burned in the flash explosion that occurred when he set the fire, and he appeared in court on crutches.

After Newton firemen had extinguished the blaze on the night of the fire, Deputy Chief Seaver found candles and rolls of cellophane in the house. Pelargonio was questioned by Sergeant Sullivan of the Newton police at his home. Daniel S. Taylor, told Sergeant Sullivan that he had been washing the walls and floors on the second story of the house with gasoline and turpentine, and the explosion and fire accidentally occurred when he ignited a match to light a cigarette.

Warned To Stop Using Sidewalks

Carl A. Serra, a manager of a market at 1237 Centre st., Newton Centre was arraigned in the Newton court on Wednesday on a charge of placing merchandise on a public sidewalk so as to obstruct the free passage of travelers. Patrolman McCormick made the complaint after protests had been made against the use of this market was using the sidewalk.

To offset any contention that the sidewalk was partly on private property, a survey was made by members of the City Engineer's staff. The defence produced photographs which showed barrels and boxes of rubbish on the Pelham st. sidewalk by other storekeepers, in an attempt to show that Serra was being discriminated against. Acting Street Commissioner Haughey offset this testimony by stating that the rubbish containers had been put on the sidewalk legally, to be collected by the street department trucks. He also stated that he had issued no permits for the use of sidewalks for display or sale of merchandise, and doubted that he has authority to do so.

Serra pleaded "nolo," and Judge Mayberry placed the case on file. The judge stated, however, that in the future, he will impose penalties on anyone brought into court on a similar charge.

The recent death of Thomas Tucker at Westboro at the age of 82 recalls old railroad matters. He began his railroad service in 1835 at Newton Corner as station agent; the old Boston & Worcester Railroad being then open just to that point from Boston. His duties were to sell tickets and obtain wood for the engines. He was one of the first conductors when the road was opened to Worcester on July 4, 1835. The train consisted of a few coach-like cars, not over 20 feet long, holding not over a dozen persons each. They had two compartments, were entered by a side door, and had one row of seats around the inside. The conductor passed from one coach to another by a railing on the outside.

EDWARD H.

Powers' Paragraphs

As evidence that Newton's zoning ordinance with its restrictions continues to make this city most sought for as a home community in the Greater Boston area, is the fact that Newton led all cities in Massachusetts in residential building during March and April. During April 40 permits for residences were issued in Newton. The estimated value of these homes was $255,600. In Worcester 40 permits were issued, with an estimated value of $167,350; Brookline was third, with 29 permits, with an estimated value of $164,200; Boston was fourth, with 26 permits, and an estimated value of $98,850. And there are some people trying to let down the bars on Newton's zoning ordinance.

The combination of an East wind and damp weather again brought to Newton last Sunday night and Monday morning that disagreeable, acid odor which has from time to time in recent years bothered residents of parts of this city. We have contended in the past that the odor comes from one of the chemical plants at Everett, and we still believe this is so, despite a letter we received a few years ago from the head of one of the big plants in Everett. In this letter the gentleman denied that his plant was the source of the odor. Our reason for believing that the "aroma" wafts from Everett is—that the smell is identical with that we have observed from time to time as we drove through the chemical district in that city. One supposition was—that the stench came from marsh gas, from the marshes along the Charles River. Where are the marshes along the Charles River between Newton and Boston? They were filled in years ago, and when they did exist, we never had any "gas waves" from the East wafting over this city.

The "best laid plans" of mice and men gang aft agley. Taxpayers of Massachusetts planned to save considerable in the cost of governing (or misgoverning) this State by having the Legislature meet biennially instead of annually. But the Legislature led by the reversed motion from Ware, intend to defeat this plan by voting for salaries for the years in which no session will be held. Most of the members "compromised" at a $1500 amount for the off-year, insisting they were taking a cut of 12½ per cent from that paid them for the two-year term under annual sessions but in reality wiping out much of the anticipated savings expected by the voters.

Only 19 members of the House of Representatives (including the 4 from Newton) stood in response to a request for a roll-call vote on the matter so that the public could know who favored the big salary at a time when taxpayers are crying for relief. It is generally believed that Governor Saltonstall will veto this proposal should it reach his desk in which case it must be returned to both House and Senate and be acted upon by roll-call.

In the Newton court on Wednesday the manager of a chain-store market was found guilty of "placing merchandise on a sidewalk so as to obstruct the free passage of travelers." Judge Mayberry placed the case on file at ter the defendant had pleaded "nolo," but stated that anyone brought in for such an offence in the future would be fined to the full extent of the law. The case was prosecuted by Patrolman Thomas McCormick. Judge Mayberry's statement that he will not be lenient in such cases in the future will meet with the hearty approval of the great majority of Newton citizens.

Not only in Newton Centre, but in other parts of this city, there has been a growing practice in recent years of the illegal use of sidewalks for the display and sale of merchandise, especially fruit and vegetables. Some of the storekeepers and employees of markets have gone further. They have been making a practice of hawking the merchandise displayed on the sidewalks, giving a "Blackstone st." atmosphere to the places where this method was used. One chain-market at Newton Corner, has been warned more than once in the past to desist from having its employees hawking fruit and vegetables on the sidewalk. Employees of this market even went to the extent of soliciting trade from persons waiting for street cars.

It is absolutely illegal to use a public sidewalk for the display and sale of merchandise. A former official of this city, who in past years granted permits for such use, had no authority to do so. If any person stumbled and was injured because of any obstruction placed by a storekeeper on a sidewalk, a person so injured would bring suit against the City of Newton. The drive which has been started against this illegal use of sidewalks in Newton Centre will be extended to other business sections in the Newtons. This drive will receive the support of various village improvement associations and of the Chamber of Commerce. Acting Supt. of Streets Haughey was summoned as a witness in the case in court on Wednesday, testified that he has issued no permits for such use of sidewalks, and correctly stated that in his belief, he has no authority to grant such permits.

It is up to the Mayor and the police to co-operate in stopping this illegal use of sidewalks. Only a small minority of markets in the city have resorted to this practice, which has been condemned by the Newton Health Department in the past. This misuse of sidewalks is unfair to the public, and to the majority of storekeepers who conduct their business in a sanitary and dignified manner.

Elderly Woman Burned to Death

John R. Gunnarson of 176 Parker st., Newton Centre returned to his home about 6 o'clock Thursday evening to find his wife, Annie Norling Gunnarson, 72, lying over a lighted gas stove in the kitchen, burned to death. The woman was badly burned on the body, face and head. Mr. Gunnarson removed the body from the stove and the police and medical examiner were notified. She apparently took a fainting spell while working at the stove. Her funeral service will be held at her late home on Sunday at 2:30 p. m.

ONE THING and ANOTHER

By L. D. G. Bentley

As Summer Comes

Closing shop for the summer on "One Thing and Another," which I shall do after writing the final paragraph of this week's column, I find me in the mood of a true vacationist. The prospect of leisure is welcome. The thought that I shall return refreshed to type my thoughts for readers is equally cheering. When the shutters go up it does not mean that sunshine is expected to keep them open, but that a cooling shade for the hotter days will be better all 'round. See you later!

Good Grounds for Growing

Life's exasperations should serve only as a cause for mirth. No doubt they do to people not directly concerned. I know, however, of one man who is still sputtering over what recently happened to him. Let's give him the name of Mr. Bizzie. At any rate he received orders from his chief, Mr. Rusher, to look up a certain report and telephone what he had learned without delay. Mr. Bizzie did his stuff in jig-time because he is an efficient swift-moving man and Mr. Rusher's command, said, "Drop everything and give this immediate attention." The commission was executed in seven minutes. Mr. Bizzie called Mr. Rusher, proud if breathless. "Let me talk to Mr. Rusher at once," he demanded of the latter's secretary. "This is something that can't wait, he said so himself." The secretary was unflinched as she replied, "Mr. Rusher has gone for the day."

Tip for Fair Patrons

"Take your easiest walking shoes," writes a New York friend who has already visited the World's Fair three different times. "Everybody finds their feet nearly kill them, including myself. Ladies do not have as heavy footwear as we men but my wife keeps up with style and her shoes are first class. Nevertheless, she wore a hole in each during one day's promenade. Sixty miles of walking if you're game for it. No wonder so many come home saying, 'O, my feet!'"

Old Army Game

Out in California a Senatorial aspirant was freed by the court of soliciting campaign contributions on premises of government jobs. The judge said, "If we hold promises like this to be breaches of the statute, then we are interfering with the God-given right of the American politician to make extravagant promises in exchange for support."

I'll go as far as anybody in condemning professional "pols" for "stringing" people with fake inducements. But I think those constituents who created a situation that repays promises of jobs and favors are equally deserving of censure. The politician is, as I view it, forced to do many things because they are expected of him. When people offer to support him and stipulate a government position as the reward they compel him to make a trade. It then, to my mind, becomes a "fifty-fifty" proposition, with each free, if he can, to outwit the other. It's actually a "hoss trade" and history shows us that such deals are frequently shady.

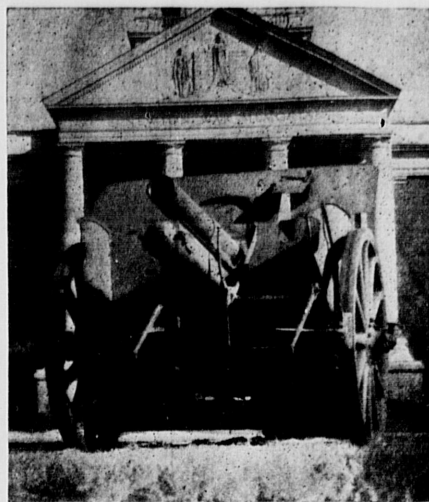

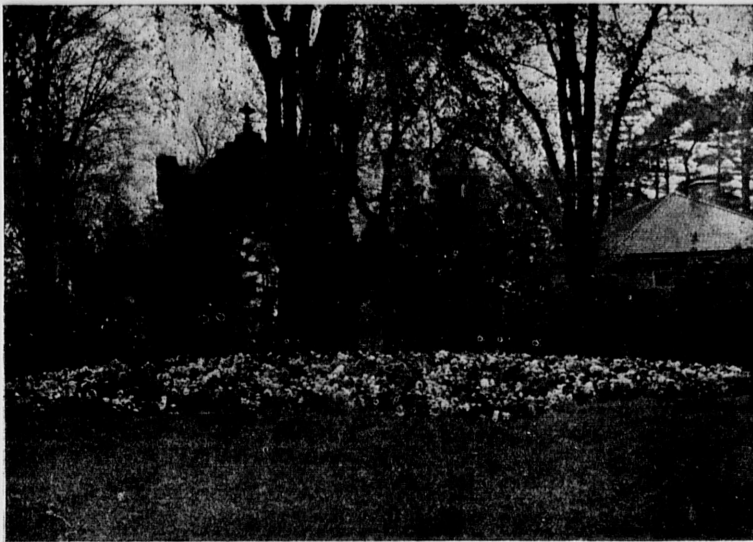

Why put a politician on the spot by requiring him to make all sorts of pledges that he can't keep? Those who do are as weak on civic pride as the candidate.

Merry, Merry Maytime

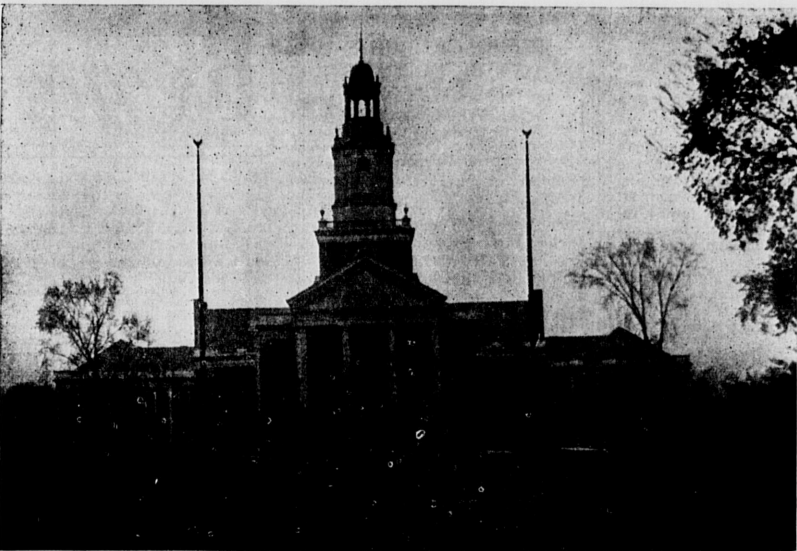

A general revival of May-pole dancing might relieve the country's nervous tension. At least I'm very much for trying it to make sure. It ought certainly to develop the community spirit and take our minds off axes and the European situation. Maybe May-pole dancing is more complicated than it looks and has a lot of technicalities that don't show from the front.

I wouldn't be the one to call it playing hopscotch with a ribbon in your hand, although I must say it very much resembles what I should expect that to be. The beauty of it is that no matter how tangled up May-pole dancers get they still make a pretty picture. If we should decide to go in for it every playground could be turned into a village green. Not a bad idea, that, either.

As far as I know people of all ages could take part in community May-pole dancing. Possibly, one had better be careful if fearful of arthritis, fallen arches or chronic indigestion.

Hints to Gardeners

Proper Watering

EACH year more and more gardeners are learning that gardens should not be watered by sprinkling. Sprinkling tends to moisten the surface soil only and thus encourages root growth at that point. When the root system is concentrated near the surface there is more danger of injury by hoeing; and if sprinkling is not done constantly plants will be quickly affected by drought.

Much of the plant food to be absorbed by the roots is deeper in the soil, and if plants are induced by light sprinkling to root near the surface they may be partially starved.

Too frequent sprinkling is inadvisable also because it tends to promote mildew, a fungus disease which preys disastrously on several flower favorites, particularly zinnias. Considered from the time angle, sprinkling is impractical. It can safely be done only in the evening, as water sprinkled on foliage under a hot sun may lead to damaging scalding. There is, moreover, great waste of time in holding a hose and directing the spray.

The most efficient method of watering is to lay the hose on the ground, letting the water sink deep into the soil around the growing roots. Do not have too heavy a flow of water, or there will be a washing of soil and exposure of tender roots. Let the water run slowly in one place for 20 minutes to half an hour. Small channels may be traced to lead the water along the rows.

Where water connections are not available, gardens can be protected against drying out by maintaining a soil with good humus content. Humus tends to help the soil hold its moisture. Proper humus content may be gained by spading into the soil straw manure, peat moss, or lawn clippings from the compost heap.

FEDERATION MEETS IN SAN FRANCISCO

Address by the President

In the keynote address of its president, Mrs. Saidie Orr Dunbar, given at the opening of the Council Meeting of the General Federation at San Francisco, she said:

"We continue to face the same needs within the fields of human welfare, world peace, and spiritual rearmament as a year ago—but their solution is even more imperative today."

"Our problems may differ in various sections of the country and the world," she said (there are 56 affiliated clubs in 20 foreign countries), "but they are basically the same. For we are turning our attention this year to the problems of peace, human welfare, and spiritual rearmament. The concentrated efforts of women of the world combine into a powerful force, and it is our aim to make this force felt for the positive activities of peace and public welfare."

Mrs. Dunbar urged greater cooperation and more vigorous field work among the Federation's 14,500 clubs over the globe to the end of developing leadership "in the home" for public affairs.

Turning to world problems, the president urged that women of the world become vocal in demanding settlement of disputes by peaceful means in an honorable way.

"Peace will come with justice," she said. "But the question is—do we care enough to work for peace as we would work for our boys during a world combat?"

Mrs. Dunbar pointed to a turning to religion by the world as necessary for applying positive precepts and principles in the solution of man's relationship to man. "Religion is the source of democracy and international good faith," she stressed.

In connection with her viewpoint expressed toward world peace, the statement of Mrs. Kathleen Norris, author, who spoke to the Juniors Tuesday evening, may be quoted. "World Peace with Sacrifice" was the attitude she advanced, as the only way out of a major world war. Mrs. Norris urged her sacrifice policy on the women of the world to the place where they would sponsor conceding Germany a port on the Baltic and a corridor across Poland.

She told the federated women and recommended that they tell Congress, "We have billions for friendship but not one cent for destruction."

Alaskan Trip

A trip to Alaska, the wonderland of the Northwest, was planned by the General Federation of Women's Clubs to top off its Spring Council Meeting held in San Francisco, California, Mrs. Saidie Orr Dunbar, president of the General Federation, who has already spent three summers in this enchanted land of snow-capped mountains, glaciers, totem poles, and scenery of indescribable beauty, headed the official post-Council tour.

This eleven-day cruise threading the intricate, smooth, mountain-shelved seas of Alaska's Inside Passage, attracted club leaders from every section of the United States. More than one hundred women were on board when the SS Mount McKinley left Seattle, Washington, May 16, on the first lap of its 2500 mile trip; to return May 27.

The itinerary was planned so that the federation party would touch every major port in Alaska; and in addition to viewing the scenic loveliness of Alaska, and seeing the historical places of interest, there would be an opportunity to visit some of the towns in which member clubs of the General Federation are located. It was expected that representatives of most of the sixteen women's clubs in Alaska that belong to the federation would be on hand to greet the federation delegation in Ketchikan, Wrangell, Juneau, Haines and Skagway; and plans were made by Mrs. Evangeline Atwood, General Federation Director for Alaska, and Mrs. Mildred H. Hermann, president of the Alaska Federation, for entertaining these guests at each stop-over.

Because of Mrs. Dunbar's familiarity with both the charm and the history of Alaska, she is giving a number of informal talks sure to be of interest to every national of the cruise. Besides the regular ports of call there would be "Surprise Ports," places off the beaten ocean pathway, which would add variety to the tour.

Newton Federation Executive Board Meeting

Marjorie Fish, assistant director of the Boston School of Occupational Therapy, gave a very informative talk on Occupational Therapy at the Board meeting of the Newton Federation on Monday, May 15, which the president, Mrs. Edgar P. Hay presided.

Miss Fish said that it is only in the past two decades that occupational therapy has taken its place as a definite form of medical treatment, and that here is one of the few professions that has no unemployment problems. The demand for trained workers still far exceeds the supply. This new profession is really an outgrowth of the World War and the "Depression," the speaker continued, and its benefits for patients are being demonstrated daily. Despite the specialty's rapid growth and shortage of workers, educational standards have been steadily raised. Occupational Therapy's means may include anything from arts and crafts to recreational activities, such as games and dramatics, or educational pursuits such as reading programs or round-the-world trips by way of stamp collecting and travel folders. There are four schools in the United States and the course of study is from three to five years. Many hospitals now have an Occupational Therapy department. The school in Boston will be very glad to send speakers to the clubs, she announced.

Mrs. Robert S. Bowen, Christmas Seal chairman, spoke of two moving pictures on Tuberculosis which she hoped the Clubs would show as part of their program. There is also a film on Ragweed which is available. Mrs. Bowen also announced that the Pilgrimage to Sharon would be on Sunday, June 25.

The Sale for the Blind which was held at the Newton Centre Woman's Club House, on May 10, 11 and 12, sponsored by the Newton Federation, was a great success.

The president called attention to the sample of Marijuana which she had on her desk and asked the members upon finding it growing to please notify the police so that the Narcotic Committee might destroy it. A splendid First Aid Kit designed to carry in automobiles was also on display.

Mrs. Hay was very happy to say that five church organizations had joined the Federation: The Ladies' Aid Society of the Centenary M. E. Church of Auburndale, Mrs. George Harvey, president; The Woman's Association of the Newtonville Methodist Church, Mrs. Howard Thomas, president; the Ladies' Benevolent Society of the North Congregational Church of Newton, Mrs. W. Frye, president; the Women's League of the Newtonville New Church, Newtonville, Mrs. Florence Young, president; and the Woman's Guild of St. John's Episcopal Church, Mrs. John Kent, president.

The following chairmen were appointed to serve for 1939-1940: American Home, Mrs. William T. Lavery; Art, Mrs. William Flye; Christmas Health Seals, Mrs. Robert S. Bowen; Civics, Mrs. Ernest F. Drew; Conservation, Mrs. Gordon S. Heath; Cooperation with War Veterans, Miss Nellie Osborne; Education, Mrs. Raymond Blaisdell; Finance, Mrs. H. Clayton Pearson; International Relations, Mrs. Charles E. Valentine; Legislation, Mrs. Walter Heath; Motion Pictures, Miss Ruth Filene; Physically Handicapped, Mrs. J. B. Galanay; Mrs. Elmore I. MacPhie, and Mrs. H. Clayton Pearson; Press, Mrs. Frank L. Ogilvie; Program, Mrs. W. S. Railsback; Public Health, Mrs. John MacNell; and Social, Mrs. George H. Tracy.

Newton Zonta Club

The Newton Zonta Club met at the home of Mrs. Della Stanley, 166 Mott rd., Waban, on May 15th. The address of the evening was given by Mr. Freelan O. Stanley, of Stanley Steamer fame, whose career has been most varied in interests, from early days upon a farm, school teaching as a youth, making of violins, inventions for these and in the field of photography, to architecture, and to the invention of the Stanley Steamer, in conjunction with his twin brother, Francis E. Stanley. Speaking to the topic "Women in Industry," Mr. Stanley stated that from his observations the unemployment problem was not due at all to women's activity in the business world.

On the much discussed subject of taxes, he said "Taxes should be levied with justice to all. If honesty prevails—we would need no government." "Principles laid down in the 'Preamble' by Benjamin Franklin should be adhered to, in the arrangement of the tax schedules, in accordance with the production and consumption of the citizens."

Mr. Stanley spoke with a conviction born of experience through the years. On Monday evening, June 5, the Annual Meeting of the Newton Zonta Club will be held at 6:30 o'clock at Miss Caroline Freeman's, 258 Mount Vernon st., West Newton.

Newton Hospital Aid Association

The Annual Meeting of the Hospital Aid Benefit Shop Committee was held on Thursday, May 18, at Cedar Hill, Waltham, Mrs. D. Brewer Eddy, who, with Mrs. Ralph Conant, is chairman of the Group, presided. At 11 o'clock there were the usual reports from the officers. One which was of special interest to the committee was that of the manager of the shop, Mrs. Francis Williams. Even though the sum which had been turned over to the Hospital from the year's profits had been under a thousand dollars this past year, Mrs. Williams still felt that the benefits which had been enjoyed by those customers who prefer to retain their self-respect by paying a small sum for clothing and for household necessities, instead of receiving aid from welfare agencies, could not be reckoned in terms of money. One customer alone, who said that in past years she had been a contributor, had clothed her entire family from the stock at the Benefit Shop, ever since their business had been ruined by the depression.

Mrs. Williams added that there was a constant call for children's clothing, and said that the stock was fast becoming depleted and that donations were needed along that line. There is also a call for sporting goods and tennis rackets, ball bats, golf clubs and balls to go with each, from high school students who patronize the Shop in large numbers. A recent gift of twelve rackets sold in less than a week.

Following the reports, the committee voted to recommend to the Association that the present site be retained for another year. It was announced that a sale of pictures is being planned for the near future, as the Shop has a large collection at present, many of which are of value. A vote was taken to keep the slate of officers the same as at present, so re-electing Mrs. Brewer Eddy and Mrs. Ralph Conant, as co-chairmen; Mrs. Charles Bartlett, secretary; Mrs. Edward Sawyer, treasurer; and Mrs. Francis Williams, manager. Luncheon followed the business meeting.

THE TALE of MADAM X

Pull up your chair, put on your specs, And read the tale of Madam X.
One fine Spring day to a shop she went To get herself a per-ma-nent.
The cost was low, but she, oh my! The price she paid in the end was high.
For with cheap lotions, methods, wrong, To ruin her hair did not take long!

To Madame Ruth went Madam X
The saddest member of her sex.
With scientific skill and care,
They reconditioned that lady's hair.
Brought back the gloss to the tresses dry,
Razor-cut, and dressed it high.
Out of the shop went Madam X,
A wiser woman, one expects,
She'd put this truth to costly test:
For Permanents, the best is BEST!

The model illustrated is the Buick Special model 41 four-door touring sedan $996 delivered at Flint, Mich.*

YOU spot it for its beauty—love it for its easy-going gait—buy it for its value. But there's no question at all about where the thrill lies in having this quick-stepping Buick for your own.

Action is its middle name—fleetness out where the roads are clear, nimble agility when the traffic's thick, quick-paced travel from the minute you get aboard.

You've literally got the hurricane harnessed to your service—for with every six inches you travel, a tiny cyclone lets go in the cylinders of this Dynaflex straight-eight to give life and lift to its movement.

ONLY BUICK HAS IT! This sure-fire direction signal that flashes warnings of turns at a flip of a switch! Shows day or night. Standard on all models!

Your hand on that wheel guides a big and roomy carriage—yet a finger movement steers it and a hand's weight holds it to the line.

On curves, its Knee-Action actually "banks" the road for you—on gravel, washboard, loose stone, or cobbles, giant coil springs of soft-flexing steel soak up, blot out, erase the bumps.

Your view's the view from seats in first-row-center—there's nothing that goes on you don't take in instant through an outlook stepped up as much as 412 extra square inches.

All the time, of course, you ride in style fresh as a breath of tomorrow's dawning. All the time you ride assured that you've bought both smartly and well.

For this roomy, full-powered, silken-riding Buick—sprinkled from bumper to bumper with standard equipment that costs you extra elsewhere—is priced down below last year—down below some sixes—down below your own idea of what it ought to cost.

Yes sir, here's the one for your money if you want the car and the value of the year—and it's tuned to go in a big way from the day you take it over.

Why not see your Buick dealer now?
